TODAY'S MARKETS

Short Crop Elsewhere on the Coast Causes Better Feeling in Oregon Product.

Latest market features: Onlons to command good price. Potato market holds well. Salmon season closes Sunday. Wheat market very firm. Bunch of banana cars arrive. Egg and poultry market firm.
All creamery butter at top.
Peach market stiffer again.
Tomatoes selling at reduction.
Melons are diverted from Portland.

Onions to Command Good Price. Oregon onions will command a good ice this season. This seems definite t this time. Crops elsewhere on the acific Coast are short and the prouction are is not as great as a year ording to the larger growers and liers. Supplies in California this har are said to be nominal compared the markets of with the demand and the markets of that state will be compelled to import practically all the supplies to be used this season. Some will be brought into California from Nevada while others will come from Washington. However, most of the onions will be imported from Oregon because trade has become accustomed to Oregon onions and will give them the preference if the price is not much higher than those grown elsewhere.

Potato market prices continue very Potato market prices continue very good along Front street. Receipts are very small and best white stock is still commanding $1.50 in a jobbing way throughout the wholesale district. A small amount of business is reported from the north but the volume could scarcely be larger at this time because of the lack of labor in the harvest. Salmon Season Closes Sunday.

At the noon hour the salmon season along the Columbia river will close Sunday. Late reports from the lower and upper river state that the catch is very spasmodic—one day the run being heavy and the next very light. The fall-winter season will open September 10, just a fraction more than two weeks from the time of closing the summer season. This, contend the larger handlers of fish is too small a tember 10, just a fraction more than two weeks from the time of closing the summer season. This, contend the larger handlers of fish is too small a period.

Fresh meats of all kinds are still very slow to arrive and with the heavy demand prices are holding right at the top.

All Greamery Butter.

All Creamery Butter at Top. Today all sales of best creamery but-Today all sales of best creamery butter are being made at 37½ cents a pound with the market very firm at that figure. Several out-of-town creameries are likewise selling at this figure because of the scarcity of supplies. Ordinary outside and city creamery is very firm at 35 cents and dealers say they experience no difficulty in selling all their supplies at that figure.

Egg market is very firm with price unchanged along the street.

Cheese market firm at the rise quoted yesterday.

Chicken market remains in a very good position although receipts are again quite liberal in some quarters.

Brief Notes of the Trade. car of California watermelens and A car' of California watermeiens and cantaloupes which arrived today were diverted from this market on account of the liberal supplies here. Best cantaloupe demand is shown for local stock, trade not taking to the Yakima valley stuff as in former years because better stock can be raised at home and the former section does not trade here. About half a dozen cars of bananas arrived from Central America today in years fine condition.

Peach market is in better shape with smaller supplies. Price is doing bet-

Tomato Market Down Again. With heavier arrivals the tomato market is down another notch today; best values being at 60 cents. Some good stock at 40 and 50 cents.

Description of the control of the good stock at 40 and 50 cents.

Prune market still at a standstill for fresh stock and only fancy pack brings a satisfactory figure.

Both hides and wool are very quiet. Nothing doing in chittim at this time. Some blackberries still coming from valley points. Find a limited demand at $1.50 and $1.75 a crate.

Apple arrivals are coming faster with better quality shown in local stock.

FARMERS HURRYING HARVEST OPERATIONS

By D. C. Ireland.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Wasco, Ore., Aug. 23. - Sherman county farmers are now stirring up the fact that the season is unusually late and that fall rains may soon commence.

and that fall rains may soon commence.
Go to it, brother farmers; you have the crop in reality which you have been dreaming of for years, if only you can get it into the sack in time.

In the southern portion of the county farmers are beginning to see the end of heading operations, and hired hands from heading crews are finding plenty to do with the threshing machines. It is almost impossible to stack headed grain so that it will shed rain, and every farmer should strive to be the first to get a threshing machine into his field and the precious stuff sacked and into the warehouse.

Where threshing returns are in the and into the warehouse.

Where threshing returns are in the yield is proving heavier than most of our farmers expected when estimating the yield from standing grain. This is true everywhere in the county this year and the peason for it is that the heads have filled clear to the top and the berry is generally plump and hard—all No. 1 and 70 cents a bushel. But there are many fields still too green to cut that require at least a week of good ripening weather.

HOP GROWERS TRY TO OBTAIN NOMINAL FIGURE FOR CROP

By Hyman H. Cohen. Many hop growers are willing to sell for ruinous values. their entire hop yards for a nominal sum, so scarce is picking money in the Willamette valley this season.

One grower at Woodburn tried to secure 2c a pound from a local dealer this morning, but this dealer, along with the others who have hops of their own, refused to even consider the request because he could scarcely get a sufficient amount of money to pick his request because he could scarcely get a sufficient amount of money to pick his own crop.

Another grower tried to sell the product of his yard to a local man at the rate of ic a pound for the entire production, the buyer to pick the hops at his own expense. This offer was likewise refused because the dealer did not think the hops would sell for more than picking money, even though the quality is declared to be very good.

This is the entire attuation in a nutshell, and shows in what hard straits the short sellers are, and why they are moving everything in sight to get the grower to mortgage his farm in order to get picking money and then sell his hops for a song.

If the larger per cent of the Oregon crop is not picked this year growers will be that much better off, and the industry will likely be saved from entire ruin. If growers could in some way call a mass meeting and decide to pick but a half of their crop, it would help the situation considerably, and probably result in picking money being secured for that amount, and a better price for the hops that have been gathered. Otherwise present prospects are Beport of New York Paper.

The New York Producers' Price Current thus reviews the general situation:

"The market is in waiting position today, there being no transactions reported in 1906 hops, and it is still too goon for the new crop. Picking of some of the early yards will begin in this state next week, and a few bales should be on the market in another 10 and ays at the most. Picking is in full swing in the Sacramento district of California, but the crops in other sections will not be harvested for another fortnight. There is no change noticed in crop news, and it begins to look as if the crop is now assured. There is some complaint in New York that the crop needs rain, but this is not considered serious. The coast conditions continue good, although not many wires are coming through on account of the telegraph strike. England reports conditions unchanged and an average crop in prospect. PEAR DEMAND HEAVY

Season On in Rull Swing Around Albany and Canneries Rush Work.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Albany, Or., Aug. 23.-The Bartlett Even Sullivan's Eagle's Nest Millers Again Offering 80c pear season is now on in full swing and on account of the lack of local market thousands of pounds of this luscious fruit is being shipped to canning institutions in Seattle and to other markets. The prevailing price is i cent per pound and this makes a fine return for the grower. A few years ago there was practically no demand and these pears were a burden on the market and farmers generally made a practice of feeding them to the hogs and other stock on the farm. It is estimated that an average of five tons of this fruit is daily shipped from here to Portland and Seattle markets.

The most prominent pear dealers and shippers of this fruit are the Owen Beam company and Lasselle Packing company. These parties are in the market for all that can be obtained and the owner of pears finds a ready market. thousands of pounds of this luscious the owner of pears finds a ready market.

The Bartlett pear is very delicious and can be grown to the greatest perfection in Linn county and the Willamette

The local box factories are taxed to their fullest capacities in manufacturing a sufficient number of boxes to propa sufficient number of boxes to properly handle the crop. It is said that from three to four times as many pears would be shipped from Albany could the necesary boxes be obtained. Mr. Beam, one of the local dealers, reports that he has an order from the Weber-Bussell company for 500 boxes and is unable to fill it immediately. Over 100 boxes were sent from Albany years and The were sent from Albany yesterday. The Lassalle Packing company has a carload ready for shipment, comprising a total of 600 boxes.

The fruit business is receiving added impetus on account of the ready market for all that can be grown. Cannery men are in daily competition to gain the best quality of these fruits for their own packing houses. The output of Bartlett pears this year will be exceptionally large and the returns encouraging to the growers.

To Stimulate Idaho.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Moscow, Idaho, Aug. 23.—A. A. Morse, industrial agent of the O. R. & N., was here yesterday interviewing business men as to what the company could do to promote greater diversity of agriculture in this section. He was advised that a starch factory would be a great help, as it would promote the growth of potatoes, etc., and give employment to labor. Mr. Morse assured the people that he was ready to recommend to the company measures which if taken he thought would result in the establishment of this industry.

Home Telephone Bonds

Superior Assets For Bank or Individual

75%

Of the depositors of the Oregon Trust & Savings Bank would gladly accept Home bonds for their deposit if they could get same. Personally, I am willing to take any Home bonds at par with 50 per cent stock bonus for all my balance in that institution, and I will guarantee at least two hundred thousand dollars more will be taken by other depositors on that basis. Don't get worried about the Home Bonds. If the total deposits were in these securities I could pay everybody in full, single-handed. You cannot force the sale of government bonds or a choice piece of real estate in a minute's notice. Be prudent and patient, and reserve your judgment. The Home bonds will more than hold up their end.

Reading first preferred ex. dividend on health and police this morning and Former Councilman George S. Shepherd, father of the ordinance regulating the height of buildings in the city, appeared before the council committee on health and police this morning and urged that the committee vote against the repeal of that portion of the ordinance prohibiting the erection of brick buildings over four stories high.

Shepherd urged as a reason that the

DINAN RESIGNS TO PROTECT HIS FRIENDS

(Journal Special Service.)
San Francisco, Aug. 23.—After his resignation yesterday and the appointment of Captain Anderson as acting chief, Chief of Police Dinan issued a statement denying the charges preferred against him and stating that he resigned so that he would not jeopardize the interests of his friends in the department. The old police board which was succeeded by Mayor Taylor's new board will make an issue of its removal in the next campaign. next campaign.
