North Beach

North Beach, Aug. 24 .- A prominent railroad official is responsible for the statement that 4,000 more tickets have been sold to the various beaches this year than last. It is, safe to say that 1.000 of these people have come to 2,000 of these people have come to North Beach and notwithstanding the reports of cool weather from Portland the crowds are still coming. The Potter brought down 500 passengers Saturday and has been bringing a good crowd every day since.

The residents of North Beach predict fine weather for the remainder of Au-gust and September and many cottagers are planning to stay until late in the Tall.

The Saturday-to-Monday visitors are as numerous as ever and they always make the most of their brief visit and seem to enjoy beach life to the utmost. Owing to the departure of many of the young men, the social life at North Beach has not been as gay this week as formerly. Card parties, dancing, riding, picnics are the usual forms of entertainment and tennis and bowling are the popular sports. the popular sports.

Peats in Swimming Tank.

The swimming tank at Long Beach is The swimming tank at Long Beach is one of the most popular attractions and every day the tank is well filled with bathers and the gallery crowded with interested spectators who take a keen delight in watching the progress of beginners and applauding the truly amazing feats which are accomplished by some of the expert swimmers.

A large party of young people from the Breakers had a swimming party at the tank Tuesday morning and it was a jolly affair. One of the most exciting events of the morning was the race between Miss Clara Boot and Miss Margaret Boot. Both girls are expert swimmers, but Miss Margaret won the race. Dave Jordan, Ed Jeffery and Wid Honeyman did some very pretty fancy diving, and Frank Korell, who has quite a reputation as an expert swimmer, did some feats which astonished and pleased the many spectators present. some feats which astonished and pleased the many spectators present. Miss Lee Bingham and Miss Clara Howell are frequent visitors at the tank and both girls are pronounced ex-cellent swimmers, Miss Bingham being particularly graceful.

Visit Seining Grounds.

The seining grounds at Sand Island have attracted a number of visitors this week, and on their annual trip to Sand Island the life-saving crew from Fort Canby took over a party of 25 people. Captain Steward took his guests over in the motor life boat and the outing was greatly enjoyed by all those fortunate enough to be among those present.

Another party composed of Mildred Nichols, Vida Nichols, Margurite Labbe, Blanche Huston, Norman Pease and Antone Labbe went to the seining grounds in Captain Graham's launch Sophia on Thursday and from all reports

"Then she proceeded to tell me of a cow her father had obtained once from an old fellow who was noted as being up at milking time and on hear-ing the complaint against the cow went to the barn, puzzled to account for her behavior. He stood in the doorway and watched while the milking was attempted with the usual display of bo-tempted with the usual display of po-vine bad temper.

"Then suddenly he began to whistle the tune of an old hymn. At the first notes the cow stopped her antics and stood quietly until milked, the old chap keeping up the whistling all the while.

"That's it,' he explained complacently when it was over. Twe sort of got in the habit of whistling that tune as I milk and I reckon she missed it. "He seemed rather pleased with the beast's appreciation of his accomplishment, but it was a long time before the farmer got over his annoyance at hav-ing to learn to whistle the tune of that
