WEATHER REPORT

prevail this morning east of the Cascades, but the weather continues cloudy west of the range. Light rainfall occurred during the night at Portland and North Head. The disturbance overlying this vicinity on Saturday has now reached North Dakota on its eastward course. Light to moderate rains over the lower Missouri and upper Mississippi valleys have resulted from this movement. The pressure is low over southeastern California, and threatening weather prevails from the south Pacific coast northeastward to Colorado in consequence. Light rains have fallen over Arizona, New Mexico and Colorado, with thunderstorms reported from Phoenix and Flagstaff. Fair weather prevails over the entire northeastern portion of the country in consequence of the high area overlying that portion of the high area overlying that portion of the country. The indications point to fair weather over this district to-
