

SALOON KEEPERS KICK AT SANDWICH LICENSE

Restaurant Men, They Tell Council Committee, Can Sell Liquor at All Hours for Five Hundred Dollars Less a Year Than Is Required of Them.

Strenuous kicks, of a persuasion known only to saloon keepers, are being received on the anatomy of the city council and as a result an ordinance was yesterday ordered drafted which will prevent all sale of liquor in restaurants after 1 o'clock in the morning. Restaurants that sell liquor with meals only will hereafter be compelled to observe the same hours as saloons proper. Entirely too much latitude has been given the restaurants in the opinion of the ways and means committee of the council, with a consequent hardship on the saloonmen. Saloons are required to pay a license of $100 a year, while restaurants get off with a $300 license. Saloonmen urge that there are a number of restaurants in town which are selling more liquor than they can possibly do between the hours of 5 a. m. and 1 a. m. In view of the further restriction of the Sunday closing act the saloonmen feel that they are being unjustly discriminated against and a number of members of the council feel the same way.

Saloonmen Get Busy.

In bringing up the subject one of the councilmen said: "These saloon keepers are waylaying me on almost every corner whenever I come down town. They say that a great injustice is being done them through council and state regulations. The council prevents them from selling liquor between the hours of 1 o'clock and 5 o'clock in the morning, while the state closes them upon Sundays. When the saloon keeper comes down town at 5 o'clock in the morning to open up his doors, he finds boozed rollers going home with the milkman. He thinks that municipal legislation has deprived him of getting a portion of these fellows' money and he is naturally sore, and I don't blame him."

Some of the members of the committee thought that the price of a meal should be defined so that restaurants could not get a man with a sandwich for 10 cents at 9 o'clock at night and then permit him to stay until 5 o'clock the next morning with the sole object of drinking.

Councilman Rushlight said that a discrimination was being made against the saloon keepers so long as the restaurants were permitted to remain open all night. He said that many people went to the restaurants after theatres on Sunday and were permitted to refresh for the remainder of the night if they desired, while the saloons could not open up.

Several of the councilmen asserted that they had been informed that a number of saloon keepers intended taking out restaurant licenses to run in conjunction with their saloons, so they might get a share of the trade that was available after closing hours. The number of licenses that can be granted is already limited, but there is no restriction on the number of restaurants that might sell liquor with meals.

There are a number of restaurants that observe the spirit and letter of the law according to the councilmen and the intent of the proposed ordinance is not to strike at them but at the restaurants that do practically a saloon business on a restaurant license.

AT THE STOCK THEATRES

The Lyric theatre this week is playing "The Girl from Texas" and last night people stood to hear the story of the large-hearted little maid from the Lone Star state who won her conquest into the hearts of the aristocracy of the Emerald Isle. Incidentally it might be mentioned that one of the interesting items about the play was the part of Lord Kenwood, the hero of the piece, will be with the Lyric throughout the coming winter season.

The girl from Texas treats of a young woman born and raised in Texas who is sought out and returns to claim Kenwood Manor by inheritance. Miss Verna Felton takes this role and as the unsophisticated girl suddenly thrown among the nobility and the refinement of dress and manner wins the applause and sympathy of the audience. Peter Bunker, Albert Ford, as the old uncle "Rich" from Texas, furnishes much amusement, as does Forrest Seabury as Hans the German, always in trouble.

Charles Hayes as Shane McCrea, the evicted Irish peasant, brings pathos and heart interest into the plot which Ralph Belmont, as Lord Kenwood, meets like the large-hearted Irishman he depicts. Irving Kennedy as Count de Chambray, G. L. Walling as Hiram Carson, the villainous aristocrat, and many people Rubbles, the servant, Mrs. Charles L. Allen as Lady Kenwood, Miss Marie Thompson as Elise Farleigh and Miss Charlotte as Mrs. Farleigh, all play important parts in a most acceptable manner.

AT THE VAUDEVILLE THEATRES

Any one who takes his time and money in hand and journeys over to the Grand theatre this week will, if he has any imagination at all, be transported out to the race track where he can see the flash of the colors, hear the thud of the hoofs and the yell of thousands of excited people. The man who produces the effect is Miles McCarty, who, assisted by Aida Wolcott, comes as the top liner in "The Race Track's Dream." McCarty has a line of paddock dialect that would swamp a professor of Sanskrit, puts on all his funny act and throws in a little heart interest just for good measure.

In addition to this are Morrissy and Rich, the comedy entertainers, Joe Thompson, with his illustrated songs, Bradley and Davis, whose dancing and comedy is made a feature of the day, and John Walsh, "The Man with the Hod."

To many one of the most acceptable parts of the program is the popular number by Redwood and Harvey, the European instrumentalists, whose musical number, is notable not alone for its exhibition of skill, but for the melody with which it favors the audience. These attractions will hold the stage at the Grand for the entire week with matinees.

AT THE THEATRES

Comic Opera at Popular Prices.

The management of the Marquam Grand is winning popular numbers during the engagement of the Californians, opening next Monday, September 1. It gives an opportunity to the people of all circumstances to enjoy a rare musical treat at reasonable prices. Tom Karl's ambition has been to organize a company along the lines of the old Bostonians, and that he has succeeded thus far amply testified by the California's continuous engagement of 10 weeks at the immense Auditorium, Los Angeles, to business which taxed the seating capacity of that big building. The company to open in Portland is identical the same in every detail and will open in Victor Herbert's masterpiece, "The Serenade." Seat sale opens Thursday at 10 a. m.

"That Girl From Texas."

Of all the girls that have been seen on a local stage this summer there is no doubt but that "The Girl From Texas" is the most interesting, the most delightful and the best Verna Felton in little role making hundreds of new friends, as are all the others of the company. It is a show you ought to see.

"The Liars" at Baker Sunday.

Never before in the history of the Baker, or any other Portland theatre, for that matter, has there been such a line-up of seats as greeted the treasurer at Baker theatre yesterday when the box office opened. It is the talk of the town. Seats will now be on sale this day for the afternoon matinee, and regular performance. Baker theatre opens next Sunday matinee in Harry Arthur Jones' splendid comedy, "The Liars."

Musical Programs by Mail.

So great an interest has developed in the Italian band at the Oaks that Manager Freeman of the park has decided to supply information by mail to those who desire it. Many persons call by telephone to ask the musical program for the week, and in order to accommodate them the management will mail the week's program to any one who desires it. Call up the Oaks and make it known just what you want and the information will be mailed to you.

Georgia Minstrels Coming.

Next Sunday, Monday, Tuesday nights, September 1, 2, 3, the famous Georgia Negro Minstrels will be the attraction at the Hellig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets. Popular prices will prevail. A special price matinee will be given Monday, Labor day.

"That Girl From Texas."

There seems to be no question of the success of this week's entertainment if one is to judge by the crowded houses. "That Girl From Texas" has been seen here for the first time and is full of the life and go that all theatre-goers love and is meeting with unqualified approval.

"Carnival of Love."

This is the last week of the popular Stockwell-MacGregor company at the Marquam and the current attraction is "The Carnival of Love," a screaming farce. The piece was seen for the first time in Portland last night and met with instant success. There was big audience and one well pleased. There will be a bargain matinee tomorrow and there will be a regular matinee Saturday afternoon.

All Good Acts.

All the acts at the Grand are good. It is a long and entertaining program, head by Miles McCarty and company, in "The Race Track's Dream." This act has been a feature wherever it has appeared. John Walsh, the monologist, is scoring a hit with his songs, sayings, and Redwood and Harvey have a musical act direct from Europe.

Breaking Records.

Records are being broken at the Star theatre this week by the French Stock company, the new organization which has been engaged for a long season. "The Daughter of the South" in which the company is making its debut, is a thrilling, patriotic drama of the civil war, one of the best seen here in some time.

Joseph's Schools Open Monday.

Joseph, Or., Aug. 27.—The school board has designated September 1 as the day for opening the public schools of Joseph. The principal will be Professor J. C. Conley, with Professor A. G. Jones of Missouri, Miss Jessie Martin and Miss Stella Hooper as assistants.

A Woman's Back

Has many aches and pains caused by weakness and falling, or other displacement, of the pelvic organs. Other symptoms of female weakness are frequent headache, dizziness, imaginary specks or dark spots floating before the eyes, gnawing sensation in stomach, dragging or bearing down in lower abdominal or pelvic region, disagreeable drains from pelvic organs, faint spells with general weakness.

If any considerable number of the above symptoms are present there is no remedy that will give quicker relief or a more permanent cure than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It has a record of over forty years of cures. It is the most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening medicine known to medical science. It is made of the glyceric extracts of native medicinal roots found in our forests and contains not a drop of alcohol or harmful, or habit-forming drugs. Its ingredients are all printed on the bottle-wrapper and attested under oath as correct.

Every ingredient entering into "Favorite Prescription" has the written endorsement of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of practice—more valuable than any amount of non-professional testimonials—though the latter are not lacking, having been contributed voluntarily by grateful patients in numbers to exceed the endorsement given to any other medicine extant for the cure of woman's ills.

You cannot afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for this well proven remedy of known composition, even though the dealer may make a little more profit thereby. Your interest in regaining health is paramount to any selfish interest of his and it is an insult to your intelligence for him to try to palm off upon you a substitute. You know what you want and it is his business to supply the article called for.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original "Little Liver Pills" first put up by old Dr. Pierce over forty years ago much imitated but never equaled. Little sugar-coated granules—easy to take at candy.

MAN MURDERS WOMAN WHO WRECKED HOME

(Journal Special Service.)
Chicago, Aug. 27.—A man registered at the Saratoga hotel as Charles Andrews, of South Bend, Indiana, shot and killed a woman registered as his wife yesterday afternoon. Although he was dying within an hour in an ambulance en route to the hospital. He left an un-identified woman, then shot himself by mail at Elkhart, Indiana, where my K. P. receipts have gone. Get a box freight at Paris, Illinois, and use the contents as you wish. Come to Chicago, where you'll find Ethel and me. We are feeling hum lately, you know why. Do not let anybody know.

Later another sheet of the unfinished letter was found in which were the words, "Be a good boy and mind mother." The police are endeavoring to learn the identity of the murdered woman, who is believed to be the "Ethel" to whom the letter referred.

BUILDING RE-LEASED

Owners of the "Wonder" Expect to Make Great Improvements in Store.

The Solomon brothers, who own the Wonder Millinery store at the southwest corner of Morrison and First streets, have re-leased their old location for a new business. A considerable amount of money has been spent in the recent past on improvements more changes are scheduled for the very near future. All the available space of two floors is taxed at present to accommodate the fall stock of millinery.

"The Solomon brothers have greatly enlarged the stock of millinery for the 'Wonder,'" said the sales manager this morning. "This addition to the stock is especially noticeable in the finer classes of goods. The Wonder is by far the largest and best stocked millinery establishment in Portland today."

COUNTY CLERK FIELDS ATTENDS CIRCUS AND LATER MISSES $110

County Clerk Fields, having returned from the beach and regaled his friends with many tales of the wondrous fish caught, has turned his attention to the pickpockets that mingle with circus crowds. Mr. Fields tells of pickpockets with almost as telling effect as he describes deep-sea fish.

To a credulous reporter Mr. Fields this morning told a marvelous tale of the excellence of his health, then began praising the circus.

"But did you hear of my luck?" he asked, with sorrowful mien. "No, what was it?"

ARRANGEMENTS FOR SPOKANE'S BRIDGES

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Spokane, Wash., Aug. 27.—Commissioner W. R. Roy of the city board of public works has returned from Chicago, where he went three weeks ago with the mayor to secure an engineer to build the city's three new bridges, which are to cost $400,000. Mayor Moore is now in Chicago attending to the sale of the bonds and will be home the latter part of the week.

Chicago is an engineer of much experience and who is now in Portland, has been engaged as supervising engineer. The Wallace-Choate Engineering company of Chicago has the contract for the bridges, three of which will be reinforced concrete. The large Monroe street bridge will be steel.

EFFECT OF RAINS ON WHEAT OF PALOUSE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Spokane, Wash., Aug. 27.—The heavy rains here have put a stop to harvest work and it is beginning to look as if this year's large wheat crop were in danger. Help has not been any too plentiful lately and since the rains many of the men have gone to the towns and the farmers are very uneasy lest they fail to return. All realize that the grain must be harvested as speedily as possible, for rains can be expected now at any time.

Two large cloudbursts, one at Hutton, Washington, and the other at Rathdrum, Idaho, have damaged much grain. Buyers estimate the damage done the wheat in the Palouse country at $25,000.

ALBANY HOODLUMS DISTURBED MEETING

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Albany, Or., Aug. 27.—The annual camp meeting of the Free Methodists closed yesterday and the tented city in Hubville is now rapidly disappearing. The meetings have been in progress for the past 10 days and large audiences have listened to the various speakers on the program. The presiding elder of the Salem district had charge of the meetings. The only possible complaint that could be made by those in attendance was the disturbances caused by the rowdy element in the city. Several of the leaders of this element were so obnoxious as to merit more drastic treatment than was accorded them. The officers of the law were obliged to clear the grounds and take the place in charge of robbing J. Moore of a watch and $100. They were bound over to the circuit court on $500 bonds.
