Another Mercantile Sensation!

Disagreement of Partners Causes Dissolution of Partnership of

The Shafer-Whittier Mercantile Company!

THE GOLDEN EAGLE CAPTURES THEIR MERCHANDISE STOCKS AT 50 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR!

For some time past rumors have been rife of troubles of one sort and another among the partners composing the well known Special Sales Mercantile House of "The Shafer-Whittier Co." With customary vigilance and foresight our home buyers have watched the trend of events, ready to scoop the stocks of the above named firm if they were put upon the market at a marked sacrifice. On August 1 last, Harry C. Whittier of that firm became identified with the reorganized "Golden Eagle" and retired from the Shafer-Whittier Co., selling out his interest in that business to N. L. Shafer. Through Mr. Whittier's influence we have been enabled to secure the combined stocks of the Shafer-Whittier concern, which were sought for by a number of local merchants, paying about 50c on the dollar of manufacturer's cost for them. These stocks embrace thousands of dollars' worth of Shoes, Dress Goods and Silks, Women's Suits and Coats, Millinery, Underwear, Hosiery, Ribbons, etc. Of the latter lines we shall speak later when we've had a chance to arrange them for a big special sale. Today we're ready with the Shoes. Hundreds of pairs of elegant shoes, splendid footwear for men, women and children, at about HALF PRICE! Too many to tell about in detail, but we mention a very special bargain in Portland, Or., July 29, 1907.

For one dollar and other valuable considerations, I hereby sell, transfer and assign to N. L. Shafer all of my interest, entire, consisting of merchandise, office fixtures, advertising matter, etc., in the firm of the Shafer-Whittier Co., to be held by him, his heirs and assigns forever. Said N. L. Shafer to assume all liabilities and obligations of the Shafer-Whittier Co., releasing me from same, and to have all benefits accruing from the partnership heretofore existing under the name of the Shafer-Whittier Co. (Signed.) HARRY C. WHITTIER.
I hereby agree to above and shall continue the business of the Shafer-Whittier Co. (Signed.) N. L. SHAFER.
