DURING LABOR PARADE

(Pacific Coast Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Sept. 3 .- Riots between mion sympathizers and strikebreakers of the United Railroad Carmen broke out shortly after 12 o'clock yesterday among congested throngs of people witnessing Labor day parade on the lower part of Market street. As a result, two men were badly hurt by bullets fired by a United Railroad inspector and several persons were injured by flying mis-

Trouble occurred at Sutter and Market streets while the parade was in progress. An east bound Sutter street car standing at the junction of Sutter and Market streets, was surrounded by a crowd of onlookers. The carmen became impatient at not being able to move the car and began denouncing persons in the crowd. An ansity disputes arose which soon grew into the menacing murmur of anser. Missiles began to fly in the direction of the car and inside of three minutes the car was also most completely wrecked. The motor man was dragged from his place and beaten senseless, and as impostor who came to his rescue drew a pintol and fired sensel about motor in man.
