ington county, Oregon, near Gaston, in 1861, and was married to F. M. Lewis of Lewisville, Oregon, May 30, 1869, and with him settled on his farm at that place, where they spent the intervening years in peace, prosperity and usefulness. About the time of her marriage she professed Christianity and was faithful to her death. Funeral services were held at the church at Lewisville and interment was in the cemetery east of that place, Rev. J. A. Campbell conducting the service in the presence of the entire community. Her husband, a daughter, two brothers and a sister survive her.

AUTHORS OF RENOWN FISHING IN IDAHO

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Spokane, Wash., Sept. 4.—R. C. Outcault, caricaturist, and Opie Reed, author, are now camping on the Coeur d'Alene river in Idaho. C. N. Crewson, another well-known author, who was with them for two weeks, has arrived here and told of the whereabouts of the others. He is on his way east. Mr. Outcault is the originator of Buster Brown. He has been traveling incognito as Richard Felton. Mr. Reed is fishing under the name of Jim Reed.

PORTLAND WOMAN IN AUTO RUNS MAN DOWN

Mrs. Baumgartner Hits Seattle Western Union Employee With Machine.

(Pacific Coast Press Leased Wire.)

Seattle, Sept. 4.—Mrs. F. P. Baumgartner, of Portland, Oregon, ran down and seriously injured E. H. Evans, an employe of the Western Union Telegraph company, at First avenue and Cherry street, with her automobile shortly before 8 o'clock last night. Mrs. Baumgartner was arrested and sent to the police station where she was held for a time pending the filing of a $1,500 bond for her appearance whenever she is wanted to face a charge that may be placed against her.

Evans, who is 35 years old, was taken to the Wayside Emergency hospital in an ambulance. Until his condition is known no charge will be filed against Mrs. Baumgartner. On account of his age the shock of the accident may result very seriously for him.

Mrs. J. L. Adams, 1120 Howell street, who is Baumgartner's hostess, while she is in Seattle, was riding in the car with some children. Evans, who has charge of the private patrol signals in the office of the Western Union, had started out on a bicycle from the Cherry street office of the company to deliver an important message. He was in the office at the time and as his shift had not yet begun he took the telegram. Just as he was rounding the corner of First avenue and Cherry street to go north he met the swiftly moving automobile. He could not control his wheel and struck the automobile head on. Mrs. Baumgartner says she did not see the man on the bicycle until he had struck her machine. The car was stopped within half a length, but not before Evans had been thrown to the pavement and his bicycle wrecked. Just when Mrs. Baumgartner was on the verge of a nervous breakdown from the excitement of the accident and the arrest, she was informed that her husband, who is an officer in the Oregon & California Steamship company, is critically ill at Portland. The woman nearly collapsed. As quickly as possible she was sent to the depot and took a train for Portland.

Mrs. Baumgartner came to Seattle a few days ago to visit Mrs. J. L. Adams. She brought her automobile with her and expected to stay several days. She has driven the car for some time and says she is fully capable of handling it.

SINGER FRED BUTLER MAKES FRIENDS HERE

Fred Butler, the well known singer, has won for himself hosts of friends in Portland. He has been singing at the White Temple during the months of July and August and has been one of the chief attractions in filling that large auditorium to the doors every Sunday. It is seldom that a voice of more splendid power and beauty is ever heard in Portland. His voice is just as big and strong as Butler himself. Clear as a bell, it fills the White Temple auditorium to the farthest corner and his enunciation is so distinct that every one in the audience can understand his words, even in his lowest tones. Mr. Butler gives a farewell concert at the White Temple tonight and no doubt will be greeted by a large audience. His many friends will take advantage of this last opportunity to hear him. He will be assisted by the well known violinist, Waldemar Lind, and the popular reader, Mrs. Sylvia W. McGuire.

NOISY WORSHIPPERS DRIVEN FROM CHURCH

Police Refuse to Allow New Apostles to Hold Service in Seattle.

(Pacific Coast Press Leased Wire.)

Seattle, Sept. 4.—Just as they were in the midst of a noisy service last night, the members of a peculiar religious sect, known as the Church of the Apostolic Faith, were driven from their house of worship at Third avenue north and Harrison street by a squad of police.

The raid on the church was made as a result of a petition signed by almost every resident within a couple of blocks of the place, asking the police to at least limit the nuisance which they consider the meetings constitute. The noise in the church at 10 o'clock last night could be heard half a mile.

The members of the sect threatened to return to the church after the police had ejected them, but the officers told them that if they did so and created more disturbance they would be sent to jail and locked up on charges of maintaining a nuisance.

The persons in the church cry out, roll about on the floor and have trances at almost every meeting, and these are held every night.

SKIDMORE PHARMACY.

Prescription Department Has Been More Than Doubled in Size.

"The increase of patronage in the prescription department of this establishment has obliged me to give it more room from time to time during the past ten years, but the phenomenal growth the past year has obliged me to more than double the former capacity of this department," said Ralph Crayler, proprietor of the Skidmore Drug store, this morning. "Those who have traveled and noted the arrangements of pharmacies will recognize in the Skidmore prescription department every modern convenience. The facilities and arrangement is now such as to expedite the filling of prescriptions, and many little features have been provided that will add to the comfort of patrons, such as settees, telephones, etc. It is our aim to spare neither money nor space in accommodating the public which has shown this drug emporium an increasing favor each season."

The Skidmore prescription department is said to be the oldest in the city and embraces in its files thousands of the valuable prescriptions of Portland's most prominent physicians.

AN OUNCE OF PREVENTION

is worth a pound of cure. There are many poor sufferers, consumptives who are hopeless of getting well—who, if they had taken care of themselves, would now be well. A cough in the foundation of consumption. Ballard's Horehound Syrup will cure that cough. Mrs. S. "I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup in my family for years—my children never suffer with coughs." Sold by all druggists.

If any of the other furniture and carpet stores about town have cultivated the impression that they can sell furniture with Gevurtz, either in quantity, quality or in line of price saving, they are flirting with the wrong "hunch." Their aspirations are admirable, but their furniture lacks the class and the price to ever boost ambition to a very startling degree. The man who said, "You can lead a horse to water but you can't make him drink," might well have said, "You can draw a person to your store but you can't make him buy." The "Gevurtz" salesmen don't encourage buying. They exert every grain of sand and tact in their system that the furniture may be displayed to its best advantage. It's the class that sells the furniture. The high class, the class of merit, the individual class, the ruling class in furniture town that governs the house of "Gevurtz."

The Price of Winter Fuel and the "ECLIPSE"

It isn't what you spend, but what you save. If you knew of a heater that would save you the cost of a cord of wood or a ton of coal, would you think it worth while? The "Eclipse" will save you this much and more. It will heat more room and consume less fuel than any other stove of like size. The "Eclipse," the "little giant" in stove circles, is the longest lived heater on earth. In appearance the "Eclipse" is the stove beauty. It is the running mate of the great "Eclipse" Range and is made along the same high standard lines. "Eclipse" prices from $10.00 up (according to size).

COPY OF LETTER FROM MR. BURGUYNE TO J. H. CLARK

Bluff, Utah, July 18, 1907.

Mr. J. H. Clark, Portland, Oregon.

Dear Sir:—I take pleasure in answering your welcome letter, which I received the tenth of the month. I am at present in Bluff, but intend returning tomorrow morning to the grounds below.

Well, Mr. Clark, relative to the placers—all our ground is rich in gold—all kinds of it. It must run from $2 to $5 per yard. It beats all, the amount of ground that is here for dredging; thousands of acres. We have one of the best properties under the stars today. If the machinery were installed to work the property it would soon be one of the best payers on earth; the sand and gravel is lined with gold. I am surprised that the ground having been so rich some one did not commence working these deposits long, long ago.

I don't see why people don't buy all kinds of stock on such a proposition as this. Any one can see the gold here easily. It is so rich that a blind man could see it. I wish I had about $100,000 to put in our property, for I know in one year I would preble my money. Just the water that is passing in the river is filled with very fine gold; I can prove that to any one that comes here. Wishing you success, I will draw to a close for this time. I remain, yours truly,

A. D. BURGUYNE.

You have a splendid opportunity here if you will investigate and procure stock at once.
