The Siskiyou County News, published at Yreka, California, comes to hand with a piece of news that will rejoice the hearts of a large number of persons owning shares in the Champion Group Mining company, 206-207-208 Couch building, Fourth and Washington streets: "O. H. Poor, agent for The Champion Group Mining company of Portland, who own and are developing a group of 12 promising gold quarts claims on Humbug creek, has bonded from W. D. Doggett and others, the Beaver creek copper group, consisting r creek copper group, consisting claims in Oak Bar district, about seven miles southeast of the famous Blue Ledge copper mine. The property covers about three miles of a copper ledge and is in the same mineral belt as the Blue Ledge. These claims have one of the finest surface showings of any copper body in the county. The cropping of the ledge shows from 50 to 200 feet in width. The group contains 280 acres and is surrounded by a large body of timber as fine as there is in the county. Garretson springs are only half a mile from Beaver creek and fine waterpower can be had." Though the Champion people had never Though the Champion people had never promised it, the management has added this copper buy to its producing gold mines, without any extra cost to its shareholders. But the company announces an advance to 75 cents per share, to take place within a few days, so that it will be well for the people to get held of some of this mining stock before the popup takes place. It surely is an excellent bargain at its present price of 50 cents.

A special meeting of the East Twenty-eighth Street Improvement association will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the Mission house on hast Twenty-eighth street, near Hoyt, for the purpose of taking definite action respecting the building of a concrete bridge over Sullivan's guich. This and some other matters that will be brought up at the meeting is of the brought up at the meeting is of the greatest interest to every property owner in the vicinity, and there is expected to be a large and enthusiastic meeting. Property owners on several of the cross streets in the vicinity have expressed their desire to have the streets improved in the near future, and this matter will also be taken up.

John P. Neehan, a well-known resident of Portland, died at St. Vincent's hospital yesterday morning, after a two weeks' illness. Apoplexy was the immediate cause of his death. Mr. Neehan was born at Port Ma Gee, County Kerry, Ireland, 38 years ago, and had been a resident of Portland for the past 25 years. He was an active member of the Catholic Order of Foresters and of the Ancient Order of The Catholic Order of The Foresters and of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. He leaves a wife, mother and two sisters, all of whom are now in Portland. The funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at St. Patrick's church.

tA the Art Museum a choice collection of paintings is on exhibition. R. Alexander Bernstein has brought a porof the Louis Enrich collection of old masters, which are of great inter-ist and educational value. There are also some paintings by contemporary American artists. Among these the Couse sheep picture, the Grand Canyon by Louis Akin, the sunny landscapes of Elmer Wachtel, the poetic and beautiful landscapes by Leon Dabo are attracting much attention. The exhibition will remain open until September 21. The basketry display is still in place in the upper galleries.

CERTIFICATÉS OF DEPOSIT

A certificate of deposit is an interest bearing order on the bank for money. This order is made to mature at a stated time and affords an excellent opportunity to invest idle money for a short time. You can sell a certificate of deposit but you cannot lose the money it represents. When it is issued, a record is made and carried in the bank, so that no one except the proper owner can draw its equivalent in cash. If the certificate is lost or stolen a duplicate will be furnished upon proper proof of loss. This bank issues certificates of deposit upon which we pay 4 per cent interest. Our tificates of deposit upon which we pay 4 per cent interest. Our certificate of deposit is as good as a government bond and it makes it possible to make your money work for you.

City Attorney Kavanaugh recom-mended to the committee yesterday that assessments for street improvement be apportioned in relation to the benefits received. At present the assessments are levied against the abutting prop-erly owners who think they are un-justly assessed. The city attorney of-fered his views when a protest from Denver avenue property owners was heard. On this street some of the prop-erty owners were taxed less than a doilar while others were required to pay as high as $187. The great difference was explained as being due to cuts and fills. Owing to the fact that the holders of franchises revoked by the council were unable to prepare substitute meas-ures in time for yesterday's meeting, the matter will go over until the next meet-
