PENDLETON DEMOCRAT RUSHES TO GREET TAFT

Former County Judge Hartman of Umatilla County Will Have to "Square Himself" With Bunchgrass County Admirers for Attending the Taft Reception.

If George A. Hartman, former county, ing to the statement of ex-Treasurer E. judge of Umatilla county and well- J Sommerville, Henry Lastz, Joe Basler known citizen of Pendleton, ever returns and a number of other Pendletonians to his erstwhile home in the Bunchgrass county he will certainly have to explain a few things to his old-time political friends in that vicinity. This is accord-rock-ribbed, copper-belted and bulletproof Democrat. Up in his county he was always pointed to as the real orig.

who came from Missouri in the early days. Judge Hartman is positive in his Democracy, and nearly always in his comparison of Republicans likened them to some one not belonging to the Republican belief. The judge, however, has changed. Friday night he sat on the platform at the Armory with the big Republicans of the city and state, and listened with all the rest to Secretary Taft's Republican speech.

What gets the Pendletonians, however, is that Judge Hartman was the second man to shake hands with the speaker of the evening, and was only second because he gave way to a gentlemen older than himself. Worst of all
