FARMS

In the Land Where Rolls the Oregon

Where picturesque valleys are bordered by snow-capped mountains, the landscape of which is a picture of magnificence in the midst whereof is Portland, the commercial center of the northwest; from the port whereof floats upon the crystal bosom of the magnificent Columbia a commerce to the markets of the world, thus yielding wealth to a growing populace superior to any place on earth.
This speaks for the soil we offer: 27 sections grain land, at prices

From $10 to $15
Per Acre

33,000 acres of sagebrush land, subject to irrigation, $5 per acre.
1,380-acre valley farm, rich in nature could ever make it, all improved, well fenced, fine buildings, living water, choice fruit, $24 per acre. The improvements are worth $7,000.
850 acres, highly improved, all in cultivation, 1 mile river front, railway station on place, ideal townsite, bon or fruit growing colony. $50 per acre.
Long list of farms, fruit land

ST. JOHNS

The most prosperous and rapidly growing city in the Pacific northwest. With its miles of deep water frontage—its transcontinental railroads, its great mills, factories, drydocks and numerous small manufacturing concerns, and with the coming of the great Swift Packing Co.'s plant, work on which is now under way, ST. JOHNS is destined to become the greatest city in Oregon outside of Portland.

ST. JOHNS, OREGON

Holladay's Addition

The geographical CENTER of Portland.

The most DESIRABLE and only exclusive residence district in the city.

A level plateau well drained, 150 feet above the river.

Commands a fine view of the city, the river, Mount Hood, Mount St. Helens, Mount Adams and surrounding country.

Is very accessible and within easy walking distance of the business district.

Has one hour more SUN-LIGHT than over the river.

Has improved streets, gas, electric lights, water mains, trolley lines and sewers.

Lots sold on advantageous terms to home-builders.

Seeing is believing. Locate your home where it will be a comfort and a joy and an investment that is certain to enhance in value.
