

DELAY IN ENTERING EXCITES THE CROWD

DEATH RATE IN SAN FRANCISCO SHOWS THAT FIGHT AGAINST DISEASE IS SUCCESSFULLY CARRIED ON — MANY MORE SAVED THAN IS USUAL.

(Pacific Coast Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Sept. 9.—Two more deaths from bubonic plague occurred today and three additional cases were verified. Following are the totals of the disease in date:
Number of cases, 21.
Number of deaths, 10.
These are exclusive of the case in Berkeley, which proved fatal. Attention is called to the fact that so far the death percentage is very low, less than one half. The standard death rate for plague is about 90 per cent.

SENTENCE SHORTENED BY RETURN OF LAND

Washington, D. C., Sept. 9.—Aged Judge James L. Bradford of New Orleans, who was convicted of land frauds, had his sentence commuted to two years by President Roosevelt on condition that he return to the government the thousand acres of valuable land in Louisiana which he obtained by fraud. Bradford was a former resident of the District of Columbia. He is one of the state's richest and most prominent attorneys.

JUDGE PUTS LIMIT ON STATE TESTIMONY

Prosecution in Conrad Case Restricted to Day Named in Indictment.
Limiting the prosecution to the day named in the indictment, August 11, 1906, a ruling by Judge Gantenbein in the circuit court this morning at the trial of John Conrad restricted considerably the extent of the testimony the state can offer. Conrad is charged with placing his wife, Essie Watkins, or Onoma Conrad, in a disorderly house on August 11.

STEVE ADAMS WILL BE TRIED THIS TERM

Shoshone Court Begins Session at Which Case Will Be Called.
Wallace, Ida., Sept. 9.—Steve Adams, a member of the Western Federation of Miners, charged with the murder of a claim jumper, will be placed on trial for the second time during the term of the Shoshone county court which opened today. It is expected that an early date will be set for the trial. Clarence E. Darrow, the Chicago attorney, who defended Haywood at Boise, will conduct the defense.

CHICAGO REALTY MEN TO SEE NORTHWEST

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Chicago, Ill., Sept. 9.—The Chicago real estate board has decided to give up its next annual banquet and donate the money that would be spent in that toward the expenses of a trip to the Pacific northwest. It is estimated that the board has just returned from a trip to Duluth, St. Paul and Minneapolis, and is enthusiastically in favor of the Pacific coast trip.

STATE REUNION DAY AT LEWISTON FAIR

Lewiston, Idaho, Sept. 9.—Plans are being made by the Lewiston-Clarkston Fair association to inaugurate a "Lower Minnesota day" at the fair this fall. It has been suggested that, as a large part of the residents of the inland empire are natives of these two states, a day should be set aside for their reunion. The plan may be enlarged and other state reunions may set apart.

ORCHARD THEFT BEATS OWNER

Old Resident of Montavilla Brutally Assaulted by Longshoreman.
T. J. Spauer, a longshoreman weighing over 200 pounds, was arrested yesterday morning by Detective Hellyer for a vicious and unprovoked attack on Dennis Sullivan, a 72-year-old resident of Montavilla.

During Absence His Brother Clinton Died, But Mexican Trip To Be Made.
New York, Sept. 9.—Secretary Root arrived here today from Muldoon's farm, where he has been spending his summer vacation. He is looking very well and seems greatly benefited by his outing. During the absence of Secretary Root his brother Clinton died.

FATHER JOHNSON GIVES BLESSING

Cupid still retains the championship of the world at all weights by securing a decisive knockout in the case of pretty Cynthia Johnson, the 17-year-old daughter of C. R. Johnson of Castle Rock, and Harry Jackson, who determined to brave parental wrath last Friday morning by eloping to this city to plight their troths.

NO TRAIN ARRIVED ON TIME DURING DAY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
The Dalles, Or., Sept. 9.—The hardware store of Lane & Sexton was broken into last night by tearing out the panels of a side door with a crowbar. The robbers became alarmed and left a sack containing several hundred dollars in cash and escaped. Nothing else has been missed.

J. J. HILL GATHERS IN COAL COMPANY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 9.—J. J. Hill of the Great Northern railway has secured a controlling interest in the Crow's Nest coal company. The deal was closed within the last fortnight. It is stated on good authority that the increased holding in the stock of the great corporation secured from the Toronto shareholders, cost him at the enhanced prices paid for the shares, $2,400,000. The shares are held in trust by "interests friendly to Mr. Hill" but Hill himself is figured in the big transaction.

ENGINE BOLTS THROUGH WALLS OF ROUNDHOUSE AT MORNING FIRE

Exterior fire has terrors not alone for man but for the big Pacific Coast type of passenger engines recently brought by the Harriman lines for service on the O. R. & N. over the mountains and up the Columbia. Engineers have long suspected that the big engine bolts would be the first to give out after they were brought to the O. R. & N. the round house burned at The Dalles, dismantling practically every new engine in the service.

CHARGING THAT HIS WIFE, ANNA C. BRADEN, BROKE OPEN HIS DESK AND RIFLED HIS MAIL, WALTER B. BRADEN THIS MORNING FILED SUIT IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR A DIVORCE.

Two county schools opened for the year's work this morning, and with two or three exceptions the remainder will begin next Monday morning. The Russellville school started with four teachers, and district No. 1, between Gresham and Troutdale, commenced with one teacher, Miss Minnie Frantz. Outside of Portland 110 teachers will impart training in 55 districts. There are 68 school buildings in the county outside of Portland.

FLAME FIGHTER WOULD HAVE HAD EXCELLENT CHANCE TO SHOW WORTH.

Much censure is directed at the fireboat for not assisting in extinguishing the flames that practically destroyed the new Hazelwood creamery building at Third and Hoyt streets this morning. Captain W. H. Whitcomb and his sailor fire ladders say they stood ready to respond but were not called. The question now arising is who is to blame for the absence of the fireboat.

COVE SCHOOLS OPEN TODAY.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Cove, Or., Sept. 9.—Public schools of Cove opened today by the new term, with the following instructors: Roy Conklin, principal; Royal Allen, Russ Muihville, Estella Severs, Eva Wilson, Miss Hardwick. Many improvements have been made in the schools here in the last year, and more will be made this year.

TWO MEN WHILE IN DRESSING ROOMS SHOW FINE FORM AND APPEAR TO BE IN THE VERY PINK OF CONDITION

The following ringside dispatch is supplementary to the story on pages one and two. There was delay in the champion's entry into the ring.
San Francisco (ringside), Sept. 9.—As the hour of 2 approached there seemed to be little prospect of the fight starting on schedule time. The crowd was blocks long and were filling in slowly. It was a remarkable sight: Thousands who had no intention whatever of seeing the mill perched themselves on fences and nearby doorsteps, hoping to catch some word of what was happening inside. The usual crowds of wise ones discussed this and former fights and rendered opinions that brought forth loud talk and much wrangling among certain of the onlookers. However, the crowd behaved well generally

ARREST GROGGER FOR SELLING ON SUNDAY

T. E. Beebler First to Feel Result of District Attorney's Order.
For the first time since District Attorney Manning at the behest of the Retail Grocers' association issued an order to all keepers of grocery stores throughout the county to refrain from selling their wares on Sunday, an arrest is to be made for a violation of the law. Patrolman Crawford this morning secured a warrant for T. E. Beebler of 251 Holladay avenue for keeping his establishment open for business on the Sabbath and the arrest was made this afternoon. Beebler was released on deposit of $25 cash bail.

KEPT BARROOM IN HIP POCKET

Saloon-keeper Willing to Sell Booze From Flask He Carried.
In strange contrast to the two preceding Sundays, only one saloonkeeper was detected violating the law prohibiting the sale of intoxicants on the Sabbath. The fines imposed in former cases are believed to have had a salutary effect on the liquor dealers.

GOVERNOR RETURNS FROM THE SOUTH

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Salem, Or., Sept. 9.—Governor Chamberlain returned from Sacramento this morning on the overland. The train was here shortly before 10 o'clock. The governor reports an enjoyable trip, though a strenuous one. He was pleased with the attendance and work accomplished at the congress.
