Breaks Into Cigar Store and Was Preparing to Remove Goods.

(Pacific Coast Press Leased Wire.) Seattle, Sept. 10 .- Teddy Poinier, years old. was arrested as a burglar yesterday. Huddled in a chair in a back room at the police station the back room at the police station the tearful little urchin did not look like the ordinary burglar. The tears formed rivulets down his dirty little face. Teddy was the most unhappy person in Seattle about that time. The cigar stand which was broken into by the bey is situated at 2416 First avenue. Yesterday when the pro-pristor went to the store he met Teddy coming out of the rear entrance loaded down with goods. At police headquar-ters Teddy admitted all he had done and said he was sorry. When ques-tioned as to what he intended to do with the plunder the lad was unable to say. the plunder the lad was unable to do with It appears he simply had an idea that he wanted to steal something and took the first opportunity to do so.

COLUMBIA TAILORING MORE THAN SATISFIES.

There is decided satisfaction in wearing garments that are made for you-to your own individual meas-ure-made with the greatest care in every particular, that not only show at a glance that they were made in a superior manner, but that prove their superior worth by giving longer service than is to be obtained from the average class of men's attire.

But that is not the only consideration in favor of Columbia Tailoring-there's another, equally important, and with most men, a factor that goes right to the vital question-the matter of cost. Columbia Tailoring represents an absolute economy. It costs a full third less than the productions of other high-class tailors, and practically little if any more than the much advertised but undeniably inferior ready-made sorts. It represents better value from either standpoint. Investi-gation will convince you. Look into it today.

A MUSICAL EQUCATION Within Reach of All

Five More Days Left in Which to Secure a $15 Osborn Mandolin Free --There will not be one instrument given away after Sept. 14, at 5 p.m.

This is an opportunity of a lifetime to build the foundation for a musical education, by starting on the right instrument, the mandolin. WE ARE GOING TO GIVE AWAY A FEW MORE OF THESE 17-RIB, SOLID ROSEWOOD OSBORN MANDOLINS ABSOLUTELY FREE OF CHARGE TO PUPILS TAKING OUT TUITION WITH

The Osborn Conservatory of Music

Remember, our absolute guarantee goes with this course of lesson and 50 cents a week until you have paid $20. WE GUARANTEE TO GIVE YOU 40 LESSONS or more. If you do not thoroughly understand the mandolin at the end of 40 lessons, WE WILL GIVE YOU LESSONS UNTIL YOU DO, without extra charge. There is no limit; and OUR FINANCIAL STANDING and past reputation is a GUARANTEE that every word we say is true. You get the benefit of instruction that would cost you from $2 to $5 a lesson, were you taking private lessons. We got our education in public school in classes. HAVE WE HAD EXPERIENCE? Stop and figure, We HAVE GIVEN an average of 45 lessons each to 55,750 pupils in the past seven years. Or in other words, about 2,508,750 mandolin lessons in class. We feel as though we had profited a great deal with that experience in our different conservatories. The fact that we are steadily increasing in our business is the best proof. On July 31, 1900, we had 6,000 pupils total enrollment. On July 31, 1907, 55,750 was the total enrollment. The music stores and the conservatories are still figuring out HOW IT ALL happens. How IS IT possible for the Osborn Conservatory to give away these high-grade mandolins with a course of lessons? One of the other conservatories advertised in the paper claiming it was the best proof of their success that they had a total enrollment of 175 pupils. Does it surprise you when we tell you that our total enrollment on last Saturday night, the 7th, was 1.500 pupils on the mandolin ALONE in the city of Portland? A word in explanation of how we can do this. We STARTED, like many others, in a small way, but our policy was to give everything possible to our pupils, and still leave ourselves a small margin of profit. Our business has been conducted on a cash basis. That is, on everything we purchase we discount our bills. If it is a 1 per sent discount we take it, and if we were offered $50,000 worth of goods tomorrow and could save

1 per cent or 2 per cent on that quantity of goods we would buy them. We have always believed that the greatest advertisement for our concern was pleased customers. Not only that, but we pay the highest salaries to our employes of any concern in Portland, or any city in which we operate, considering the class of work they do. SHOULD ONE OF OUR SOLICITORS CALL UPON YOU, TAKE AD-VANTAGE OF THIS OFFER WHILE YOU MAY. HE WILL NOT CALL A SECOND TIME. There will be no goods placed out at the conservatory. However, you can send us your name address and the solicitor will call upon you, providing that district is not already filled up with the number of instruments that we intend to place there. After Saturday, the 14th, at 5:30 p. m., the man will be on sale at $15, and the course of lessons at $20. Classes from 2:30 until 9:30 p. m.
