

LENTS GETS FIVE YEARS

"Beau Brummel" Burglar Sentenced for Stealing Silverware From Levy Home—Had Bad Criminal Record in East.

Harry Lents, known as the "Beau Brummel burglar," was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary by Presiding Judge Cleland in the circuit court this morning for stealing a large quantity of silverware from the residence of B. B. Levy on Lovejoy street. Lents had nothing to say why he should not be sentenced, but his attorney made a motion to the court for leniency.

In response to a question from the judge, Lents admitted that he had been convicted twice before, and had served time for each conviction.

Has Bad Past Record. Through the enterprise of Detective Hellyer, who arrested Lents, the contents of his criminal record in the east was obtained and submitted to the trial judge to assist him in determining the punishment for the burglar.

That Lents is not a novice in the housebreaking business is evidenced by a communication received from William B. Waite, chief inspector of the Boston police department. According to this letter, Lents' true name is Charles B. Borden, and his aliases in Massachusetts were Harry H. Wayne and Charles L. Lane. Under the name of Lane he was sentenced to 14 months in the Massachusetts reformatory from Bristol, on June 22, 1900, for burglary. He was also convicted in the superior court of Springfield of larceny from a dwelling and sentenced to the state penitentiary for five years on September 1, 1902.

Believe Woman Was Knew. The crime for which he was committed to the state prison was the looting of the home of A. M. Stone, 204 Sumner avenue, Springfield. At the time of his arrest Lents was in the company of Laura Colville, alias Snell, alias Etta Daveport. Upon being searched a number of pawn tickets for property stolen from dwellings and pawned by himself and the woman were found in his possession. It was also learned that he had disposed of a large quantity of plunder to True Brothers in Springfield.

Lents operated in Denver, Colorado, under the name of Harry Sanford, according to Chief of Police M. A. Delaney of that city, and stole a typewriter from the home of Rev. Risner, which he afterward sold to a second-hand dealer. It is the opinion of Detective Hellyer that the Denver woman was in this city at the time of the looting of the residence of H. H. Levy and M. Baruh on Lovejoy street and escaped with the silverware taken from the latter home.

From Lents' methods of operation in Portland and the character of plunder he secured it is thought that he is the burglar who committed a number of crimes in Los Angeles. A woman answering the description of his former consort is understood to have endeavored to sell a number of furs to a local dealer and the articles correspond to those carried away in the southern California city. A crime set and seal skin muffs stolen from M. Baruh were turned over to the police by Attorney Moon, who represented Lents, but absolutely no clue has been discovered to the whereabouts of the missing silverware. Detective Hellyer is still working on the case and it is believed he has received information as to the hiding place of the plunder.

These are a few of the things you can do with

THE METROSTYLE PIANOLA

YOU CAN PLAY some of the compositions for which Paderewski is famed in concert, according to Paderewski's own interpretation, and so certified over his own signature.

YOU CAN PLAY Moszkowski's Valse, just as the clever and versatile composer intended them to be played.

YOU CAN RENDER Richard Strauss' "Traumerlei," with all of the delicate tempo shadings which Dr. Strauss himself has embodied in the Metrostyle line.

YOU CAN STUDY the music-drama "Parsifal," under the tuition of Alfred Hertz, for this famous Wagnerian conductor has metrostyled his interpretations for the Pianola.

YOU CAN ENJOY Chaminade's dainty salon music, giving the different compositions with the subtle effects which the composer herself has decreed essential to a proper rendition.

YOU CAN PLAY Beethoven's great "Fidelio" overture with the aid of the authorized interpretation made specially for the Metrostyle Pianola by Emil Paur, the eminent Beethoven authority and former director of the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

YOU CAN PLAY Chopin's "Black Key Etude" and many others of the master's compositions, with all the ritardandos, accelerandos, etc., which distinguished the public performances of Harold Bauer, the eminent virtuoso.

YOU CAN PLAY Sousa's favorite march, "The Stars and Stripes Forever" with the characteristics and mannerisms which have made America's foremost bandmaster famous the world over.

All these things and other similar pleasures unlimited are possible to owners of the Metrostyle Pianola, and are not possible with any other make of piano-player.

Investigate the player-piano matter thoroughly—hear them all—give each its full share of credit for such ability as it may impress you with—and then hear the Pianola. It will prove a revelation to you. Visit our store and hear this marvelous player today—or any time at your convenience.

There is only one make of genuine Pianola, sold only throughout the Pacific northwest by followed to the ground. It burned and blackened the woodwork of the building with which it came in contact to such an extent that the structure appeared to be on fire and the janitor turned in a fire alarm. It was during the noon hour and the few people who were in the building were panic stricken. J. E. Hall, a meter reader, was stunned in the city hall building by the lightning running down through the structure. He was sitting in a chair telephoning at the time and the force of the shock knocked him from the chair.

PRESIDENT INSISTS UPON GOOD HUNTING

Teddy Appreciates Would-Be Hosts by Doubting Their Word.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Oyster Bay, Sept. 12.—President Roosevelt will accept an invitation to wind up his southwest trip with a hunt in Louisiana, if he can be convinced that there is any game there worth hunting, early in October. The president says he has been guaranteed good hunting, but he does not care to duplicate his Mississippi hunting experience.

MOST SEVERE STORM VISITS THE SOUND

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Tacoma, Sept. 12.—During one of the heaviest storms of rain, thunder, wind and hail that has ever visited this vicinity the city hall and the county courthouse towers were each struck by bolts of lightning yesterday. The courthouse is surrounded by a granite tower, which is the pride of the city and is one of the most slightly architectural columns in the northwest. The lightning hit the top of the tower, ran down to the interior of the building and then jumped to the iron framework of the elevator shaft, down which it
