"The Flower of Flours"

That should be planted in every economical household is the fine brand of Flour we are now offering to our customers. It is the kind that goes farthest, because it is especially milled from the choicest grain—hard winter wheat. It yields the best Bread, Rolls and Biscuit, and requires less care and trouble in the baking than other Flours.

Saturday at Dresser's

Such comments as "that roast was lovely," "that steak was delicious," and other nice things about our Sausage, Baked Goods, Home-Made Candies, etc., can be heard almost any moment at our counters. Our Veal Sausage, in which we offer another special tomorrow, has proved one of the most popular little lines we have ever put on. Quality and scrupulous cleanliness are the first considerations at DRESSER'S, everything else is secondary, and our Saturday special lists are productive of no little economy—once patronized they'll not be forgotten.

- DRESSER'S Pot Roasts, Saturday, lb. .6¢ to 8¢
- DRESSER'S Shoulders of Lamb, Saturday, lb., 8¢
- DRESSER'S Select Veal Sausage, Saturday, 2 pounds 25¢
- DRESSER'S Nut Loaf, regularly 25c, Saturday, each 20¢
- DRESSER'S Layer Cakes, regularly 25c, Saturday, each 20¢
- DRESSER'S Chocolate Creams, regularly 50c, Saturday, pound 40¢

Full stocks of Fish, Fruit, Game, Poultry, etc. Our Hams are cured and cooked by our own men, our Sausages from our own factory—we can guarantee quality in all things.

MEATS

The very good reason that we have for expecting your full patronage in Our Meat Department is the fact that we don't make selections of beef because of cheap price, etc., but go strong to the opposite idea of obtaining the very highest corn-fed quality for you, no matter what it costs. This caution on our part, combined with the highest type of sanitary conditions in meat handling, rather persuades one to gladly pay the slight price difference that our prices may indicate. You always know its always good and no amount of money could make it better.

WHY?
Simply because we buy right and do not pay delivery men or high prices for horses or horse feed. All these expenses would have to be tacked onto our meats if we made delivery. Our patrons get the BEST MEAT that gold can buy—meat that is always pure and fresh, and our legion of customers carry away their own meat with the full knowledge that it is free from the contamination of infectious wagons and from the flying microbe dust of the streets.
