Realty Dealers Attention

The Journal is becoming more famous every day as the leading real estate medium, and is now recognized as the great connecting link between the dealers and the buyers of real estate. This fact is not difficult to understand, seeing that The Journal is fully alive to the future of Portland, and giving as it does the most reliable information about realty transactions and the progress of the city. Portland is destined to be the great metropolis of the Rose City. Strangers are pouring into the city seeking homes. The wide-awake, progressive real estate dealers are reaping and will reap rich harvests by making their announcements in The Journal-the newspaper with the greatest circulation. The eastern spirit is manifesting itself, as is evidenced in the enormous circulation of The Journal, which puts its contemporaries in the shade.

The popular price paper is the popular paper with the Wednesdays and Fridays are the big real estate and financial editions of The Journal. Real estate dealers should not be out of either issues. Remember, "Out of sight, out of mind." When you are not in The Journal you are out of the sight of thousands of people who read no other paper but The Journal.
