The dedication of the new Vernon Presbyterian church on East Twentieth and Wygant streets of which Rev. G. A. Blair is the pastor, will be celebrated Sunday afternoon, September 22, at 3 p. m. Pastors of other Presbyterian churches in the city will be present and will take part in the services and special music has been prepared. To reach the church take the Albion car at Second and Washington streets to East Twentieth, then walk one block south.

Objections to the final account of the executor of the estate of J. M. Gilliland have been filed in the county court by Jane Anne Gardner, a daughter of the deceased. It is alleged that the estate has been improperly charged with $11,977 for farm labor, $300 for household expenses and $421 for miscellaneous charges. It is charged also that 150 tons of hay, valued at about $3,000, are not credited to the estate.

An effort will be made by the Mothers and Teachers' club of Brooklyn to reopen the kindergarten department in the Brooklyn school that was so successfully undertaken last year. The work done was very satisfactory, but was not accomplished without some difficulty. There is a desire that the kindergarten be continued should the responsibility not be too much of a burden.

A sealed verdict awarding W. C. Fischer $680 from the G. W. Cone Lumber company was read in Judge Frazer's department of the circuit court this morning. It was charged the lumber company sawed up a raft of logs on which there were Jews, rendering identification difficult, so the Jews could not be foreclosed.

Albert Berni, the druggist, 233 Washington street, makes a specialty of the compounding of physicians' prescriptions and domestic receipts. Purity and reliability, combined with many years of practical experience, has given Berni's pharmacy the reputation of being the ideal prescription drug store.

Water through hose for sprinkling yards or sidewalks on washing porches and windows must be paid for in advance and used only between the hours of 8 and 8 a. m. and 5 and 9 p. m. It must not be used for sprinkling streets. If, on contrary to these rules, or wastefully, it will be shut off.

A jury in Judge Frazer's department of the circuit court today is hearing the suit of Adam Grandia for $20,000 damages from the North Pacific Lumber company for the loss of his right arm. Grandia alleges the company was negligent in failing to provide a suitable guard over a gear.

The jury in Judge O'Day's department of the circuit court in the case of E. R. Allison against the Doernbecher Manufacturing company for $15,000 damages for the loss of a thumb yesterday afternoon agreed upon a verdict for the company, refusing to give damages to Allison.

R. J. Smith, general agent for the Southern Pacific at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, is a Portland visitor. He is looking over the country with a view to familiarizing himself with conditions and to be better able to talk to the eastern homeseeker about the Pacific coast opportunities.

It is in everybody's mouth. Children love it. It is the talk of the town. It makes the weak strong. Everybody is talking about it. It is for the little ones. What? Of course, "Golden Grain Granules," the 100 per cent pure cereal food.

School children will grow strong if they drink "Golden Grain Granules." A big package costs only 25c. It goes as far as $2 worth of milk. All grocers sell this system-building cereal health food. Everybody is talking about it.

OIL SEEPS FROM ROCKS NEAR VALE

Surface Indications Brought Many People From Eastern Oregon Sections.

E. L. Clark of the First Bank of Vale is at the Lenox and said today that Vale is off crazy. Easterners and residents from all sections of eastern Oregon, he says, are rushing into the oil fields around Vale ready to engage in the oil business.

"One company," said Mr. Clark, "has already drilled to a depth of 400 feet, and several of the best California oil experts state that oil is sure to be found at 800 feet."

"That oil will be found in paying quantities is certain. It seeps out of the rocks and comes down Bully creek half an inch thick on the surface of the water. One cannot pick up a stone without getting oil on his hands."

"Oil will not wash." "The Malheur Gas and Oil company has already expended $65,000 for machinery and equipment with which to bring the oil to the surface. This company found oil at a depth of 280 feet, but it would not flow to the surface. The company has a 14-inch hole down to a depth of 400 feet and expects to secure oil at 800. Other companies are being formed and people are rushing into the field in great numbers to take up the land which lies about six miles west of Vale."

"Vale is prospering and the irrigation company which was formed several months ago is spending about $500,000 in constructing a dam and reservoir on Bully creek which will supply 65,000 acres of land. Once water is put on this land it becomes very productive, especially in growing alfalfa. With 65,000 acres of new land put to the growing of alfalfa, a great revenue will be added to the coffers of the county."

ALBANY COLLEGE IS TO HAVE BUSY YEAR

Attendance Large and Spirit High—Something New in Self-Help—Opens September 26.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal. Albany, Or., Sept. 17.—Albany college will open for recitations September 26, the first chapel service being arranged for the morning of September 25. Monday and Tuesday are registration days.

President H. M. Crooks reports prospects excellent for good attendance. Parts of the state not formerly reached are furnishing new students, young people from Baker City to Astoria having made arrangements to enter. A large delegation is booked from Coos and Curry counties, in which part of the state the college has many friends. Almost every one asking for opportunity to work for a part of his or her expenses has been found a satisfactory place. Among the boys a wood-choppers' camp is to be organized. Cordwood is bought for $1 a cord on the stump, and as hauling costs but little it is figured that any strong lad can earn from $2 to $4 a day at the present price of wood.

The girls' dormitory, Tremont Hall, has but two vacant rooms. These will probably be arranged for by the close of the week. Miss Elizabeth Irvine continues as matron. On the opening day the president will be heard in a formal address. There will also be a good program of music. Announcements and introductions of new professors will follow. Work in all departments will begin promptly on September 26.

DAY OF FASTING BEGINS FOR JEWS

Observance of Yom Kippur Begins Tonight at Sundown.

Yom Kippur, the most solemn of all Jewish days, will begin at sundown this evening and last through tomorrow till sundown. During those 24 hours no Hebrew who has any reverence left for the religion of his fathers will lift his hand to work or will take any food, for this is the day prescribed by the old Hebrew ritual to be one of fasting and prayer for forgiveness of sin, and for atonement of the sins of the year.

Solemn services are held at all the synagogues beginning this evening when the Kol Nidre is sung, a grave dramatic ritual song embodying the spirit of the day. All day tomorrow services will be held. In the afternoon memorial services will be held for the dead and the day's devotions will cease with the Neilah service, the climax of the day's prayers, which is finished with the shofar, or the blowing of the trumpet. Neilah means the closing of the gates of the sun and is the last portion of the service before sundown tomorrow.

Day of Reconciliation. This is the day of reconciliation as well as of atonement and the worshippers expect forgiveness themselves as much as they forgive their enemies and many touching services will be held. The day of atonement originated among the devout Jews after the destruction of the temple at Jerusalem. It was a day of reconciliation and forgiveness had its origin when Moses came down from Mount Sinai with the tables of law and with forgiveness for the Hebrew sin of worshipping the golden calf and all the Jewish people fasted in token of repentance. These two days have been united to form the one great holy day of the Jewish people and all stores are closed and business suspended on that day and certain sacred customs are observed at home by the orthodox Jews in copy of the customs of the Biblical Jews.

Services Will Be Held.

At Temple Beth Israel, Dr. Jonah Wise will preach at the services beginning this evening at 8 o'clock on "What Meantest Thou, Oh Sleeper?" Tomorrow morning services will open at 9:30 and memorial services will be held at 3 o'clock. The morning sermon will be on "The Unmoral Virtues."

At Congregational Ahava Shalom, services will begin at 7:30 this evening. Rev. R. Abrahamson will officiate with W. H. Boyer conducting the choir. At the Hall street synagogue Rev. N. H. Heller will officiate with a male choir of 14 voices, under his own direction. At the Neighborhood House Rev. J. Seidel will chant the service and Dr. N. Mossesohn will preach before the Neilah service on "Man's Life and the Day of Atonement." At the First street synagogue Rev. A. Osovovitz will preach.

WATER THE EQUAL OF PURE BULL RUN

Mountain Streams Are to Supply the New Resort at Tillamook Bay.

Water equal in purity to that of Bull Run will be piped into Bayoccean Park before the hotel is opened in the early summer of 1908. The rights to two mountain streams in the hills south of the peninsula have been acquired by the Potter-Chapin Realty company, owner of Bayoccean Park, and an ample reservoir will be constructed at a point high enough to insure good pressure. Plans for an electric lighting plant are being prepared by the West Coast Engineering company. This plant will supply Bayoccean Park with 50,000 incandescent lights. Good water and abundant lights will go a long way toward utilizing the natural attractions of this peninsula at Tillamook bay, and converting it into the greatest summer resort on the Pacific coast.

Made for you to satisfy and save you money

Columbia Tailoring

Is a genuine revelation—and an agreeable surprise

To men who have been paying the fancy prices exacted by the "exclusive" tailors.

It's not in the leaving undone of anything that the high-price tailor does, or in giving any less in the quality of fabrics, that we effect a saving in cost to our patrons.

We are able to give better value because we have a better equipment and more complete facilities—the finest workshop in town, for one thing (and right on our own premises), and with a larger trade than other tailors, we buy at more favorable prices.

"Seeing is believing"—so come and see for yourself—we're ready to prove every word—to give you the best garment value in town—to save you money.

Suits $20 to $40
Trousers $4 to $10
