Everest's Orchestra

Has been engaged for the grand opening of our new store and will render the program—mentioned below—tomorrow evening from 7:30 to 10 o'clock. You are invited to attend; you are requested to bring your friends. Every adult visitor receives a souvenir worthy of the name to commemorate the seventeenth birthday of the popular and foremost department store of the east side and to more eloquently voice our sentiments of appreciation of the cooperation already offered by many new customers. Stroll about the store, visit every department and note that several new ones have been added, while many have been enlarged to meet every requirement of modern merchandising. The millinery department is new and makes a showing of fall styles surpassed by none. Mrs. A. R. Rafferty, whose ability is well known to local and eastern milliners, has just returned from the east, where she made her selections from the very latest in Street and Dress Hats—exclusive imported creations from world-renowned designers and beautiful specimens from our own workrooms will merit your attention.

But proudest of all are we—and justly so—of the faithful customers who have had a large share in the upbuilding of this—the Leading East Side Department Store—an establishment in every way fit to serve the people, one and all. Here you will find an immense variety to choose from, prices to make your money go further, courteous salespeople and prompt service; a consistently honest management and a consistently faithful patronage.

YES WITH BROKEN NECK

Completely Paralyzed Youth With Dislocated Spine Despairs Not.

(Pacific Coast Press Lead Wire.)
Seattle, Wash., Sept. 19.—Lawrence M. Lawrence, who dislocated his neck while diving at the Natatorium, Alki Point, May 28, died at the Pacific hospital yesterday, after one of the most remarkable struggles against death which has been recorded in this city. Paralyzed from the neck down and unable to move any part of his body, this young man never despaired of recovery. His plucky fight was the marvel of the attending physicians and nurses. The injury occurred when the young man dived from a 22-foot plank into four feet of water. He was taken to the hospital and two days later was operated upon. Dr. J. A. Ghent, who performed the operation, said last night that the seventh vertebra was broken. This injury was set but the cord of the spine had been severely pinched and apparently there had been no regeneration. The body was paralyzed from the seat of the injury down, but above the injury there was no paralysis. "I believe there is no case on record," said Dr. Ghent, "where a human being has suffered a broken neck of such serious nature and lived as long after the accident as did this young man. While his life was from the first despaired of by the physicians he never gave up and until the last was confident that he would eventually recover."

Another Excursion.
Another excursion will be given by the Southern Pacific to the Oregon State fair at Salem tomorrow (Friday) at the same rate as today, $1.00 for round trip. Same schedule also. Leave Union depot at 9 a. m. Fine program at the fair.

SAYS OFFICIALS HELD WHIP HAND

Delegate to Irrigation Congress Says "Small Interests" Were Throttled.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Boise, Ida., Sept. 19.—Dominated by the government reclamation officials, academic and exclusive, are the words with which Alexander McPherson of Twin Falls sums up the recent National Irrigation congress held at Sacramento. Mr. McPherson represented the Twin Falls irrigation tract at the congress and he returns to Idaho but little satisfied with the results of the congress and the development of irrigation as he found it in California. "The congress was controlled by the reclamation officials," asserts Mr. McPherson, "and any attempt to carry out the widely advertised purpose of the policy of the reclamation service was promptly throttled. Representatives of private corporations interested in irrigation were squelched whenever they made a move. In my estimation the irrigation congress was a convulsion of government officials and employees. The papers read were interesting, but of little practical value. It was plainly indicated that the government was not in a position to do more than complete the present projects. Not a single representative of Idaho was given a place on the printed program, says Governor Gooding and he was absent. After a protest Mr. Brady of Pocatello and myself were included in the program. I found that California capitalists were very much dissatisfied with labor conditions there and looking elsewhere for fields of investment. I found that many of the rivers and ditches in California were dry and water is not available when most needed. We waste more water yearly at Twin Falls than is available at present in the whole state of California."

JAPS LANDED AT AN EARLY HOUR

Steerage Passengers of the Steamer Indiana Avoid Clash With Leaguers.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 19.—The steamer Indiana from Honolulu with 278 Japanese for this port arrived at daylight yesterday morning. She came at that early hour in order to land her passengers before the people were around, thus avoiding any trouble with the Asiatic exclusivists. When the steamer reached Victoria many of the Japanese, alarmed at reports of recent riots here, wanted to land but the shipping company refused to allow them ashore. Ouyang King, Chinese vice consul at San Francisco, is in the city, having been directed by his government to make personal investigation into the recent local occurrences in which Chinese merchants of the kind had considerable damage done to their property. He interviewed Mayor Botune and appears much disturbed in mind as to possibility of a renewal of hostilities. Mr. King will have all damage claims properly made out during his stay in the city and intends looking to the Dominion government for reimbursement.

FOUND OUT.

A Trained Nurse Made Discovery.
No one is in better position to know the value of food and drink than a trained nurse. Speaking of coffee, a nurse of Wilkes Barre, Pa., writes: "I used to drink strong coffee myself, and suffered greatly from headaches and indigestion. While on a visit to my brother I had a good chance to try Postum Food Coffee. For they drank it altogether in place of ordinary coffee. In two weeks after using Postum I found I was much benefited and finally my headaches disappeared and also the indigestion. "Naturally I have since used Postum among my patients, and have noticed a marked benefit where coffee has been left off and Postum used. "I observed a curious fact about Postum when used by mothers. It greatly helps the flow of milk in cases where coffee is inclined to dry it up, and where tea causes nervousness. "I find trouble in getting servants to make Postum properly. They must always serve it before it has been boiled long enough. It should be boiled 15 to 20 minutes after boiling begins and served with cream, when it is certainly a delicious beverage. Read 'The Road to Wellville' in plugs. There's a Reason."

NO MORE CATARRH.

Woodard, Clarke Will Not Allow It to Exist in Portland.

"There will be no more catarrh in Portland," say Woodard, Clarke & Co., "unless people fail to follow the law of common sense." Woodard, Clarke & Co. make this statement because of the great success that has followed the use of Hyomel in the treatment of catarrhal troubles. So positive is this treatment in quick relief and permanent cure that they sell it under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it does not do all that is claimed for it. There is no other treatment or medicine for catarrhal troubles that is as all like Hyomel. It follows nature's plan in curing diseases of the throat and lungs by bringing healing medication right to the very spot where the disease germs exist. With this treatment, health-giving oils and balsams are brought through a most perfect inhaler that comes with every outfit, so that every breath you take while using Hyomel is a breath of healing air. It kills all catarrhal germs and prevents their growth, so that the cure is thorough and permanent. Remember that Hyomel is sold under a guarantee to cost nothing unless it cures. If you have any catarrhal trouble, you should take advantage of Woodard, Clarke & Co.'s liberal offer.

AIMS TO KILL THE PARCEL LAW

National Grocers' Association Will Put Up Strong Fight for Repeal.

(Pacific Coast Press Lead Wire.)
Seattle, Sept. 19.—The National Grocers' association will put up a strong fight to defeat the proposed parcel post law, according to John A. Green, national secretary of the grocers, who spoke last night at the meeting of the Washington State Grocers' association. Mr. Green stated that if the parcel post law is passed it will ruin the retail business in the United States. He said that one of the first effects would be that the mail order business of the large eastern stores would considerably decrease the retail business in the smaller towns. Mr. Green also urged the repeal of the present bankruptcy law, unless it can be amended in such a way as to refuse exemption of any bills for the necessities of life below $500. In all probability the national convention of the grocers in 1909 will be held in Seattle, the delegates yesterday favoring such a plan.

BAKER WOMAN IS TRIED

Hambledon was repairing the fence which had been blown down by a storm, when Mrs. Hambledon passed down the road. He called to her, saying that he would like to speak to her. She went over where he was working and he asked her why she had torn his fence down, prefaceing his question with an oath. She replied that she had not, but that the wind had blown it down. After a little conversation Mrs. Hambledon started on down the road to one of the neighbors and he accompanied her. While walking along he asked her when she was going to get off of the place, and she replied when she had secured what belonged to her. With an oath he said that if she did not leave by a certain date he would drag her off. She retorted that when he got ready to drag her off for him to begin. He then struck her and she faced him, warning him not to touch her again. He attempted to hit her the second time when she drew a revolver and shot him in the head, the bullet entering just over the left eye. Hambledon fell forward in the road without moving from his tracks. Mrs. Hambledon notified a neighbor of what had happened and that afternoon was taken in charge by the sheriff and has been in custody ever since. Attorneys Charles F. Hyde and John L. Rand, who will defend Mrs. Hambledon, have been in the neighborhood where the shooting occurred securing testimony to show that Hambledon had abused, maltreated and threatened his wife at various times in the past, and had at one time inflicted bodily punishment upon her. The conjugal life of the unfortunate woman has been anything but harmonious. About 14 years ago she and her husband separated and remained apart for about six years when he came to her and desired her to return to the ranch with him to take care of the children, a boy and a girl. After the reconciliation another wife was born to them and was at home at the time the tragedy occurred. The second trial of domestic life did not prove any more peaceful than the first and Mrs. Hambledon began divorce proceedings the first of the year. The court issued a decree giving her charge of the minor children and a stipulated income. Hambledon was to have the real estate. When starting from the house Mrs. Hambledon did not take the gun with her, but her daughter called her back and told her to take it as she was going away and did not want to leave it where the young child could get his hands on it. Mrs. Hambledon took it with her and claims that she used it in self defense. The sentiment of the people in the neighborhood is in favor of the woman and it is the general expectation that she will be acquitted.

FIFTY CENTS ON DOLLAR

duced its depositors' claims by that amount. The receiver is said to have favored the proposition, but his attorney, Joseph Simon, made objections and the California men dropped a plan that would have proved to be one of the most unique in department store advertising. Their plan was to advertise that they would accept the accounts of all depositors for sums not exceeding $25 as cash at the store, and deliver goods to that amount. In this manner they would have reaped an immense advertisement at a cost of only a few thousand dollars, and disposed of a considerable part of the stock at normal prices, while the deposit accounts would have been made good upon reorganization of the bank. Money Was Free. There have been many explanations of the bank's extraordinary loans to the Golden Eagle store, and it is freely asserted that Morris was personally interested in the transactions or in the business of the store. An officer of the bank said this morning that several months ago Morris attempted to secure an interest in the store, but was unsuccessful. It is asserted also that Lewis, the manager of the store, had loaned money to Morris, presumably from the money advanced by the bank to the store. One of the many rumors current is that Morris was personally interested in the City Messenger company, which borrowed $40,000 from the bank. This is denied, however, by W. H. Moore, and the loan appears to have been secured by sufficient collateral. Another rumor in which Morris is reputed to hold an interest is the Pioneer Auto company, which appears in the receiver's statement as a borrower from the bank to the tune of $2,500, no collateral having been required. Morris was formerly secretary and afterwards manager of the Oregon Bank of Washington, which owes the bank over $22,000. According to Receiver Devin the loans are unsecured, though the officers of the concern. It is asserted that collateral was given for a part of the indebtedness.

Goos quickly to the very core of the disease and stops the most deep-seated, excruciating pains almost instantly.

Mexican Mustang Liniment

Cures every ailment of Man or Beast that a good, honest Liniment can cure. None better, None so good.

Ellen A. Fairchild, who formerly kept a lodging house on Sixth street between Yamhill and Taylor, borrowed $1,000 from the bank last December for one year, Morris indorsing the note. The house which Mrs. Fairchild formerly occupied has since been torn down. Morris was himself a borrower from the bank, apparently without security, for his personal account was overdrawn $1,628.35 when the bank failed.

PENDLETON MUSICIANS ORGANIZE NEW BAND

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Pendleton, Or., Sept. 19.—At a meeting of the local bandmen, the Pendleton Citizens' band was formed, with Ralph Folsom as director and manager. There will be a membership of 20. Most of those in the new band were former members of the Eagles band. The present organization will be entirely separate from that order.
