

ROGERS' HEALTH IS MUCH IMPROVED

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) New Bedford, Mass., Sept. 20.—Dr. A. C. Pratt has given out the following statement regarding Vice-President of the Standard Oil Company H. H. Rogers' health:

Georgia's Dry Counties. From the Augusta Chronicle. There are 82 dry counties in Georgia—counties in which no state, county or municipal licenses are issued—where the sale is supposed to be estopped by law.

FOR THE CHOICEST MEAT IN THE CITY

COME TO THE

Harry Wood Market Co.

Our Prices Are the Lowest. Why?

Because you carry your own meat away. We can afford to sell at the LOWEST POSSIBLE MARGIN because unlike others we do not hire delivery men, and do not have to pay for horse feed, etc., consequently our patrons enjoy the best of meats at nominal charges. Pure, wholesome meat, free from the contamination of street dust and unclean wagons.
