Profits will be curtailed, or entirely relinquished in the interest of store crowding. We want one thousand men to come expecting more—considerably more—for the money than can be obtained in any other store in Portland, and we promise all will leave with even more than expected.

BRANDEGEE, KINCAID & WOOD CLOTHES

It is difficult to tell whether the fashion regulates the Brandegee, Kincaid & Wood concern, or whether B., K. & W. company dictates the fashion.

There isn't a merchant tailor in the land that pronounces the styles ready for selection until the B., K. & W. Co. has shown its models for the season.

$20.00 to $25.00 is a low price indeed, when compared with all other clothing offered in competition.

LOOK WHERE YOU WILL, YOU'LL FIND NO VALUES TO EQUAL THESE

Count them—the people in this store at any time. Count them—More customers than any two stores combined, not all carriage trade, not all laboring class; but millionaires and mechanics rubbing elbows. Truly this is the store that serves the masses best. Not the best fixtures, perhaps, but the best bargains, sure. Not the best terms, but goods exchanged, money back and no argument. No importuning to buy. Just the best showing, that none can dispute. Always the same for less money or better for the same money—that no one can deny, and always the greatest attendance, which tells the tale of values and satisfaction, better by far than we can write it, or cold type express it.

PRELIMINARY HEARING IN PHILLIPS CASE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 20.—It is hoped that some further light may be shed on the mystery in the death of the wealthy operator, John J. Phillips, who was found shot to death in his home early on the morning of September 3, at the preliminary hearing in the case today. Mrs. Charlotte Phillips, wife of the dead man, is under arrest on the charge of killing her husband.

DELMAS MAY AID IN THAW'S DEFENSE

(Pacific Coast Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Sept. 20.—It is believed here that Delphin M. Delmas, who has just started for the east, will aid in the defense of Harry Thaw. It is said that it all depends upon what liberties Martin W. Littleton, chief counsel for the defense, will allow the witness.

AT THE THEATRES

"The Little Prospector" at Empire.
Theatre-goers have found a real gem in the mining play, "The Little Prospector," at the Empire this week. Tonight, tomorrow matinee and night closes the engagement. There is an indescribable charm about "The Little Prospector," as interpreted by "Chic" Perkins, that makes the play a success.

"Love Route" Ends Tomorrow Night
The end of the delightful "Love Route" will be reached by the Baker company tomorrow night, and this much-talked-about play will then be obliged to give place to its successor. It has crowded the Baker to the doors at every performance this week.

Hoyt's "A Stranger in New York."
Maribel Seymour, Dorothy Bernard and all the other petite members of the Baker company will be seen in clever specialties next week during the performance of Hoyt's great musical farce, "A Stranger in New York."

Star Matinee Tomorrow.
"The Queen of the Highway" will be given at the Star matinee tomorrow by the French stock company. This melodrama has met with success all week. There are strong dramatic scenes, and the air of romance pervades the play. The last performance will be Saturday night.

"Blinky the Jailbird."
There is nothing attractive about the jailbird in real life, but that does not make "Blinky the Jailbird," at the Grand, any the less interesting. Budd Ross, a natural comedian, presents this sketch as the headline attraction on the vaudeville program, assisted by a couple of capable players.

"For Mother's Sake" Next Week.
Empire patrons will be delighted all next week with the return of the favorite New England rural melodrama, "For Mother's Sake," which opens at that theatre Sunday matinee. The plot is logical, the scenery beautiful and every actor an artist.

"Geisha" Matinee.
The matinee performance of "The Geisha" at the Marquand tomorrow afternoon will be an opportunity for those who cannot attend theatres at night to see the Californians in one of their best operas. It will also introduce to the matinee population Miss Cecilia Rhoda, the beautiful and talented prima donna of the Californians.

"Fatinitza" Next.
Military music pervades "Fatinitza," which will be the next opera sung by the Californians at the Marquand during the season. The first performance will be next Monday evening. "Fatinitza" is written by Von Suppe, the opera which will live forever. It has plot and composition, two things not found in the more modern.

"King of the Desert."
An oriental comedy-drama is announced by Manager R. E. French for the coming week at the Star theatre. This is "The King of the Desert" and will commence with the matinee Sunday. Never before has "The King of the Desert" been played at popular prices. Seats for all performances are now on sale at the Star box-office.

GROWING ACHES AND PAINS.
Mrs. Jostie Sumner, Bremond, Texas, writes, April 15, 1902: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family for three years. I would not be without it in the house. I have used it on my little girl for growing pains and aches in her knees. It cured her right away. I have also used it for frost bitten feet, with good success. It is the best liniment I ever used." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by all Druggists.
