Hammer Hartman Unmercifully and Defeat Beavers by 14 to 3 Score.

SEVEN RUNS AND HITS IN SEVENTH INNING

Locals Lead at 3 to 1 Until Mott Throws Ball Away and Starts Pitcher on Toboggan Slide—Both Teams Change Lineup.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS. San Francisco, 14; Portland, 3. Oakland, 10; Los Angeles, 9.

Team	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Los Angeles	85	67	.567
San Francisco	82	71	.535
Oakland	79	75	.512
Portland	55	95	.369

It was a shame how the San Francisco pennant-chasers walloped the Beavers yesterday. And after our boys had made such a nice start, too. Charley Hartman, after he had once begun to go up in the air, took the highest flight evaded this year by a Portland pitcher. But after all, Charley was not so much to blame. He twirled in fine style until the miserable support he got took the heart out of him.

A wild throw by Mott, the craziest in the local third baseman's history, started the lob-tog-an down—or the balloon up, which ever way you wish to travel.

Then when McCredie let a ball bound through his legs for another run, Hartman forgot everything he knew about the art of hypnotizing the batter. Seven base hits in one inning and seven runs turned the dawn into a howling farce.

Worst Beat of Year. It was about the worst beat of the year in the coast league, even the worst for the Beavers, for the visitors killed up 14 tally rocks to a measly 3 for the home team.

The Seals made one run in the first inning on a fielder's choice, a stolen base and Irwin's single. Portland went down one better in the second by scoring Kennedy and Byrnes on a couple of walks, a soaking, a hit by Kennedy, a double steal and a bum throw by Charley Street.

The locals took another hit in the fourth and the fans were betting three to one that it was Portland's game. Everything went along nicely until the fifth, when Nick Williams came out and after Willis had grounded out, Hildebrand filled the sacks by getting a hit on balls. It was then that Piper busted one down the left foul line.

Mott Throws at Clubhouse. Mott ran up and grabbed it with one hand. It looked as if he were too late to catch Williams at the plate. Perhaps even he was too late to catch Piper at first. Whatever the fact, there was no excuse for shutting his eyes and taking a shot at the clubhouse. This he did. His throw missed the first baseman by 20 feet, and when McCredie had fished it from the corner past the right bleachers the bases were empty and San Francisco had scored four times.

Melchior hit safe in the sixth and Williams followed with a single which McCredie let slip by him, allowing Melchior to go third. The right fielder scored a moment later on Zelder's high fly.

Everybody hit Hartman in the seventh. He was all in. Moreover, luck was against him, for a couple of the hits were of the scratch variety. Seven runs and seven hits in the seventh and a three-bagger by Hildebrand and run in the eighth ended the scoring. Pitcher Willis was very effective, and the Beavers never threatened the plate after the fourth.

The official score: SAN FRANCISCO. Hildebrand, lf, 4; AB, R, H, PO, A, E. Piper, cf, 4; 0, 1, 3, 0, 0, 0. Wheeler, 2b, 5; 2, 1, 1, 1, 1, 0. Irwin, 3b, 5; 1, 1, 1, 1, 1, 0. GANS AND MEMSIC READY FOR BATTLE

Both in Fine Shape for 20-Round Go at Los Angeles Friday Night.

(Pacific Coast Press Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, Sept. 25.—Having finished their heavy training stunts, both Joe Gans and George Memsic, who will clash Friday night in a 20-round affair for the lightweight championship, are taking life easy today. Gans, who is under weight and in magnificent condition, taboored all hard work, with the exception of taking an easy jog on the road in the morning.

Just watch me Friday night, and you will see me at my best," said Joe today, "and I'll sure carry away the bacon." He added with a grin. Memsic is down to weight, and is waiting quietly for the clang of the bell. He will indulge only in light road work today and tomorrow, unless his weight should begin to creep up, in which event he will resume the regular training grind.

"I'll look him," is the summing up of his ideas as to the result of the battle. Indications are that a $25,000 house will greet the fighters Friday night.

ers never threatened the plate after the fourth. The official score: SAN FRANCISCO. Hildebrand, lf, 4; AB, R, H, PO, A, E. Piper, cf, 4; 0, 1, 3, 0, 0, 0. Wheeler, 2b, 5; 2, 1, 1, 1, 1, 0. NOTES OF THE GAME. San Francisco's chances for the pennant are not slim. Should the Seals beat Portland this week and the Oaks beat the Angels it would be a very merry race in the stretch.

Casey was out of the game yesterday on account of a stone bruise. Donahue played second.

McCredie introduced another new player yesterday. His name is Kennedy and he has played on the Huntington team of the Iowa State league. His home is in Bellingham. Kennedy is a husky fellow and swings heavily with the bat. He is a good runner, too, and will surely do much better than Atherton, Pokony or Carson at first base. Kennedy hit the ball out every time he came to bat and secured one of Portland's five safeties.

The San Francisco team came north minus the services of Captain Mohler, Barney Joy, Spencer, Esola and Sawyer, the new pitcher. The team introduces three new players, Piper, Zelder and Melchior. Joy was left behind because Mohler thinks he has gone stale.

Early in the season Mott used to make a crazy heave about every other game. Then he became more careful and has been doing much better.

Penalty on the condition of the team at the end of the long eastern engagement. Washington has taken exception to rowing in the past five years and it is believed the football challenge will result in an invitation to Washington to the annual regatta at Fough-lesse next spring.

STRONG TRIO TO LEAD WHITMAN

Baird, Dimick and Schmidt Well Qualified to Turn Out Champion Eleven.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Whitman College, Walla Walla, Wash., Sept. 25.—J. Arthur Baird, who coached the Whitman football team so successfully last year, has returned again for his second season with the local team. Mr. Baird is extremely popular with the team as well as with everyone in the college, and with the benefit of the experience with the squad last year, is better qualified than ever to act as coach.

Coach Baird is a native of Illinois, graduating at Carthage college in 1900, where he was a prominent figure in athletic life, especially in football. He later graduated from Northwestern university law school, and only coaches football for recreation from his practice of law. For three successive years he coached the Carleton college team with the best of success.

Last year he came to Whitman, where the conditions were new, new people all about him to deal with, and new football rules to go by. He satisfied the college authorities and the football team, all of whom were eager to have him return this year.

During the year he has made a special study of the new game and has returned better qualified than ever to turn out a winning team, and with the avowed intention of winning the championship of the northwest.

Ralph Dimick, one of the best-known football figures in the northwest, is captain of the Whitman eleven this year. He hails from Hubbard, Oregon. For two years he has played the position of right tackle at Whitman and has been the star member of the aggregation. Weighing 200 stripped, and in every and activity eager for an outlet in every pound, he is a figure to be reckoned with. For two years he has been chosen as a member of the All-Northwest team. Dimick is also a prominent tackle. Dimick is very enthusiastic and believes that the prospects for a championship team were never brighter than this year.

Ernest A. Schmidt, manager of the Whitman college football team for the season of 1906, is a member of the junior class and comes from Spokane. For two years since entering college he has played on the Whitman team, both years at quarter, and has made an excellent reputation as a quarter for the team. Last year he was vice-president of the Associated Students.

Whitman's football team for the season of 1907 is made up of the following: quarterback, W. J. Adams; fullback, P. J. Adams; halfback, P. J. Adams; left halfback, P. J. Adams; right halfback, P. J. Adams; left end, P. J. Adams; right end, P. J. Adams; left tackle, P. J. Adams; right tackle, P. J. Adams; left guard, P. J. Adams; right guard, P. J. Adams; center, P. J. Adams; punter, P. J. Adams; kicker, P. J. Adams; long snapper, P. J. Adams; line backer, P. J. Adams; defensive back, P. J. Adams; safety, P. J. Adams; free safety, P. J. Adams; quarterback, P. J. Adams; fullback, P. J. Adams; halfback, P. J. Adams; left halfback, P. J. Adams; right halfback, P. J. Adams; left end, P. J. Adams; right end, P. J. Adams; left tackle, P. J. Adams; right tackle, P. J. Adams; left guard, P. J. Adams; right guard, P. J. Adams; center, P. J. Adams; punter, P. J. Adams; kicker, P. J. Adams; long snapper, P. J. Adams; line backer, P. J. Adams; defensive back, P. J. Adams; safety, P. J. Adams; free safety, P. J. Adams.

OUR NATIONAL DANGER. Time to Cry a Halt Before a Panic Comes. The business spirit is crushing out the weaker elements of home life. We are in danger of a great commercial decline, because men, as a whole, think only of getting wealth.

They rush through life, and as a result we have an age of indigestion, nervousness, irritability, sleepless nights, and morose disposition. There is not much difference between down-trodden suicide and the way some people disregard unmistakable signs of stomach trouble.

With the great advance in the knowledge of digestion and nutrition, resulting in the discovery of Mi-o-n tablets, there is no longer any excuse for one to have ill health from stomach weakness.

Mi-o-n strengthens the walls of the stomach, stimulates secretion of the digestive juices, regulates the liver and restores muscular contraction to the intestines and bowels, so no laxative is needed.

Sick headaches, palpitation, bad taste in the mouth, yellow skin, irritability, coated tongue and melancholy are a few of the many distressing results of indigestion. Mi-o-n never fails to dispel all these troubles. It is a scientific preparation guaranteed under the Pure Food Law by No. 1418.

TIED FOR TOP PLACE IN AMERICAN LEAGUE

Athletics and Tigers Now Even, With White Sox Six Points Behind.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Chicago, Sept. 25.—The race for the American league pennant which has been easily the sensation of the baseball year, is now closer than ever. By trimming Philadelphia yesterday the Chicago White Sox not only pushed themselves up a notch, but also pulled down the leaders to exactly the same level as the Detroit Tigers.

The Tigers did their part in making this possible by defeating Boston, the percentage column stands now Detroit and Philadelphia each have 600 with Chicago right behind with 592 and Cleveland a little farther down with 567.

Little Chance for Gans-Ketchel Fight. (Pacific Coast Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Sept. 25.—Ben Selig, Joe Gans' manager, is now in Los Angeles and has talked over the prospect of a Gans-Ketchel fight with the lightweight champion. Last night Selig wired Jim Coffroth as follows: "Gans wants to retire, but will leave it in my hands. Best I will do for Ketchel is 145 ringside."

WORMS

"I had for years suffered from what medical men called Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach. In August I purchased a box of Castoreo and was surprised to find that I had 'em'—yes—a wiggle, requiring mass left me. Judge our doctor's surprise when I showed him thirty feet, and in another day the remainder about the same length of a tape-worm that had been gnawing my vitality for years. I have enjoyed the best of health ever since. I trust this testimonial will appeal to other sufferers." Chas. Blackstock, 1115 Drury Place, West Philadelphia, Pa.

MIDDIES' FOOTBALL PROSPECTS BETTER. Happily Arranged Schedule Leading Up to Crucial Test December 1.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Annapolis, Md., Sept. 25.—Those who are on the inside in regard to football affairs at the Naval academy at Annapolis are very optimistic over the outlook for the middies' eleven this fall and there is good ground for such confidence, for, with nearly every man of last year's team ready to get into his place and with a bunch of good new material, coupled with a happily arranged schedule leading up to the crucial test, the navy appears to have better prospects this year than it has enjoyed for several years past.

The navy's season will begin in earnest on October 2, with Western Maryland at Annapolis. Games with Maryland Agricultural and St. John's college follow on the two succeeding Wednesdays, and on October 5 Dickinson will be met. The first important game is that with Vanderbilt university, which is scheduled for October 12. This will be the first time that the Commodore have ever played at Annapolis and as they habitually turn out the strongest team in the south, the middies are likely to have their hands full.

On October 19 Harvard will appear for the first time on the academy field and will give the middies the biggest game of their home season. After that game the others will be as follows: October 26, Lafayette; November 2, West Virginia; November 9, Swarthmore; November 16, Pennsylvania State; November 23, Virginia Polytechnic. Then the team will buckle down to preparations for the battle with the army and on December 1 it will be decided whether the Blue and Gold or the Black, Gold and Gray shall triumph.

PENNSYLVANIA FOOTBALL TEAM TO BE BROUGHT TO NORTHWEST

In issuing a challenge to the University of Pennsylvania for a series of two or more football games in Seattle during Christmas week, the University of Washington is entering upon the biggest undertaking ever attempted in northwest football circles. Washington guarantees all of the expenses incident to the trip of the Pennsylvania collegians, expecting that they will be covered by the large attendance the games will draw from all over the northwest.

Whether or not the Quakers will come west depends on the condition of the team at the end of the long eastern engagement. Washington has taken exception to rowing in the past five years and it is believed the football challenge will result in an invitation to Washington to the annual regatta at Fough-lesse next spring.

The last eastern team to play football on the coast was the crack Michigan eleven, which smothered Stanford university at Pasadena in the fall of 1906 by a score of 49 to 0. That year Michigan rolled up a grand total of 550 points without being scored upon. Greater expense will be involved in the Washington enterprise, owing to the continental journey. But Seattle is in the habit of doing big things athletically. Last year the North Division High school team was brought out from Chicago to be defeated on the Seattle gridiron and in the following spring a championship baseball team from the Seattle High school toured the eastern states.

There is a likelihood that in the event the University of Pennsylvania is unable to make the trip westward, an all-eastern eleven will be made up to meet the Washington athletes.
