The report dwells largely upon the work done by the agency in behalf of the American Bankers' association. In the year passed, 88 arrests of professional criminals were made by the Pinkerton men, 60 of whom were convicted. The report also shows the effectiveness of the systematic flight waged against the criminals because 79 banks, non-members of the association, were attacked, against 14 members of the association. The losses to the non-members were $100,449.23, while the members lost only $3,942.87, of which more than $2,000 was recovered.

The fire department reached the scene of the conflagration before much damage had been done and the chief loss will be by water.

"Fatinitza" at the Marquam.

There is only one musical attraction in Portland and that is "Fatinitza." This military comic opera is being staged at the Marquam by the Californians, and Tom Karl's collection of singers has never sung better than in Von Suppe's opera. Romance, comedy and love are combined in the plot and the soldier's chorals, the singing of the sultan's wives, the solos of Vladimir and the other numbers are distinct treats. Seats for the remaining performances of "Fatinitza" are now on sale. There will be a matinee Saturday.

"Little Johnny Jones" Sunday.

George M. Cohan's famous musical play, "Little Johnny Jones," will be the first musical attraction of the season at the Hellig theatre. The engagement begins next Sunday night, September 29, and continues four nights. Seat sale opens next Friday morning at theatre.

The Great Hoyt Play at Baker.

Hoyt's "A Stranger in New York" at the Baker all this week is one of the most amusing and entertaining pieces seen here this season. It is a great novelty to see the Baker company in specialties, and the Gibson Posing song by Miss Barney and Donald Bowles is a decided sensation.

Mysterious Feats.

Zamloch, the magician at the Grand, is some of the strangest tricks ever produced on a local stage. His feat are new and how he accomplishes them keeps the audience puzzled. "King of the Desert."

Comedy and romance are mingled in the spectacular production of "King of the Desert" at the Star theatre this week. Manager French has prepared an elaborate performance and even introduces a life-sized elephant in one act. The costumes are correct to the smallest detail and the electrical and mechanical effects are realistic.

See "Drusa Wayne" Tonight.

One of the most interesting events of the present season is the appearance here of that talented and beautiful leading woman, Maxine Miles, at the Lyric in "Drusa Wayne." She has made a great hit and is already a local favorite.

"For Mother's Sake" at Empire.

That well known and sterling melodrama, "For Mother's Sake," is attracting its usual old time interest at the Empire this week. It is a play of New England rural life in the rural village, and its many lovely pictures and characters appeal directly to the hearts of thousands.

EASTERN OUTFITTING CO.

Tenth and Washington Streets

Last evening thousands of people in autos, carriages and on foot gathered in the streets about the Eastern Outfitting Company's windows to watch the moving pageant of fashionably gowned women. All were delighted with the richly rare display of munificence in woman's toilette.

This afternoon from 3 to 5, and tonight from 8 to 10, Fashion's promenade will resume, and a showing of far more elaborate types of the "style store's" importations will be seen.

Last night was but the foretaste; tonight the moving picture reaches its zenith.
