ducks in the net instead of herring, and his latest is about the saimon that drowned itself. "You see, it was this way," said the truthful Boniface. "When I was in the Yaquina bay country-which, by the way, is the grandest of all countries save that around Portland-I joined a party and went fishing on the bay, and, piece open of it. I later saw that fish fibat-ing out with the tide, perpendicular to the surface of the water, and his jaws by George! there is mighty fine fishing in the bay right at this time of the year. Education." Much interest is being taken in the work and much benefit is being derived from the present session in a great many ways. The teachers are taking up all lines of work in the public and high schools and they are discussing them all in their various methods and deciding upon the best course to follow is their instruction. There is not a full in their instruction. There is not a dull in their instruction. There is not a duit moment in the entire session, as it is interspersed with music and a regular literary program. The institute is under the able direction of County Superintendent F. B. Hamlin.

for nearly $400 for merely grading in front of his property at Pledmont. He suid it was his opinion that those im-proving streets in this city had agreed not to trespass on each other's district so each could charge any amount for the work they thought would be given them.

"In behalf of the connoil I may say," said Mr. Yaughn, "that we are willing to help the people and furnish other and more strict specifications if some one that knows will advise us. This scaroity of material that is thrown up to us is a poor evasion for those of us who live in the suburbs know we are being robbed where no material is re-quired, where our streets are made of mother earth alone."

Mother earth alone." Others agreed with the mayor and resolutions introduced by L. M. Davis from Multhomah, were read and adopted indorsing in spirit, the request of the mayor for action forcing the council to purchase a rock crusher to be owned and operated by the city. Committees were appointed to bring about action necessary to carry out the desire of the chubs.

A preliminary meeting was held yes-terday afternoon at the parlors of the Portland hotel to organize an arts and crafts society. Judge C. H. Carey pre-sided and informal remarks were made by several speakers. Colonel C. E. S. Wood pointed out the necessity for a beginning, even in a small way, of a society which should recognize and en-courage the besutiful in articles of daliy use and in home surroundings. He made an earnest plea for the enlight-comment which shall release us from the "monstrosities with which we are now satisfied" and urged that the culti-vation of the imagination and the abil-liy to recognize what is true and beau-tiful in the world is of far greater value

LICENSE TO WED BOUGHT IN FRISCO FAILED TO DO SERVICE IN OREGON

"Well, the clerk in San Francisco told me I could use it anywhere, and I paid $1.50 for it," said Larson. Clerk Field's deputy was sympathetic, but insisted on having the $3. Larson bought a new license, and, not taking any chances on getting out of the territory where the new license was good, obtained the use of Mr. Field's private office and was married in it hy Rev. B. E. S. Ely before he left the courthouse. Larson returned the old license to his wallet and carried it away with him.
