Beauties From the Tropics Will Reach Portland Next Week.

Nine beautiful Hawaiian girls will arrive in Portland next week to visit the Rose City as a part of their pleasure trip to the Pacific coast. Seven of the maidens were sent to the coast by the Honolulu Bulletin as winners of a beauty contest, while the remaining two are friends who took advantage of the oppertunity to visit America with agreeable companions. The party is being chaperoned by Mrs. Edyth Tozier Weatherred, who accompanied The Journal's party of Oregon girls through Hawaits several years ago.

The girls will be the guests of the Portland Commercial club and other Portland organizations as well as The Journal, while in Portland on a two weeks' visit. They have been royally entertained since their arrival at San Francisco several weeks ago and efforts will be made to give them a rousing good time in Portland.

Mrs. Weatherred expects to arrive in Portland with her proteges next Friday or Saturday. She writes they have been having an excellent time along the coast. A letter from Los Angeles says that the young women have been royally entertained there by the chamber of commerce, the Woman's club and other organizations. Theatre parties, receptions, banquets and automobile rides have been the lot of the young women at Los Angeles and automobile rides have been the lot of the young women at Los Angeles, Sacramento and other California cities.

The young women will make Portland their headquarters for two weeks. Side trips to Salem and other Oregon cities will be part of the diversion offered the tourists.

Not only have the young women account of the course of the diversion offered the tourists. rive in Portland next week to visit the Rose City as a part of their pleasure

Not only have the young women acquired a reputation for great beauty in the places they have visited, but have won many friends by their winning ways. All are expert musicians, playing their own accompaniments while singing native songs.

The specimens were some of the finest moose and carprice paid was $5,000. The specimens were some of the finest mosse and car-ibou in the world. The herds contained, besides white and mountain sheep, ko-diak bears, grizzly bears, etc.

PARKSIDE BRIBERY

OUR NATIONAL DANGER

Time to Cry a Halt Before a Panic Comes.

The business spirit is crushing out the sweeter elements of home life. We are in danger of a great commercial decline, because men, as a whole, think only of getting wealth.

There are thousends, both men and women, who do not take time to eat properly. They rush through life, and as a result we have an age of indigestion, nervousness, irritability, sleepless nights, and morose disposition. There is not much difference between downright suicide and the way some people disregard immistakable signs of stomach trouble.

With the great advance in the knowledge of digestion and nutrition, resulting in the discovery of Mi-o-na tablets, there is no longer any excuse for one to have ill health from stomach weakness.

Mi-o-na strengthens the walls of the stomach, stimulates secretion of the digestive juices, regulates the liver and restores muscular contraction to the intestines and bowels, so no laxative is needed.

Sick headaches, palpitation, bad taste in the mouth, yellow skin, irritability, conted tongue and melancholy are a few of the many distressing results of indigestion. Mi-o-na never fails to dispel all these troubles. It is a scientific preparation guaranteed under the Pure Food Law by No. 1418.

Woodard, Clarke & Co. sell Mi-o-na in 50-cent boxes, and guarantee to refund the money if the remedy does not give complete satisfaction.

AWARDS MADE.

Only Eight Out of Hundreds of Attempts to Give Mames Correctly.

The page announcement on September S of the first fall showing of the "Fullworth" hats at the Chicago Clothing company has attracted attention all over the country. The portraits of 15 prominent men of the city of Portland were reproduced on the page, each wearing a "Fullworth" hat. The names were omitted on the first appearance of the ad, but today the page is reproduced with the names supplied.

A list of awards were offered by Lee Bertilion, manager of the Chicago Clothing company, for the first 10 persons who should send in a correct list of the names. Although it may seem a simple matter to fill out the names, the result was that out of hundreds of attempts only eight were correct. The names of the fortunate individuals are published herewith:

If ever there was a man in Portland who is enthusiastic over his work, that man is S. Zaik, late of the realm of nis majesty, Czar Nicholas, but new official "rat extirminator" of Portland. Zaik is an interesting character, with all the temperament of a virtuoso. Those who have followed in the wake of his kiling exceditions will verify this. No impressario ever paid more attention to technique than does Portland's jolly Pied Piper.

It is said that Zaik has spent years studying the rat moods and methods "Ven I kilt all ze ratz in Odessy, Rus- | and knows their every whim and weak-

Long was dummy trustee were called to the stand on the Borah trial this morning.

According to the testimony of John I. Wells, who figured prominently in securing entrymen to file on the Boise basin or "Palmer" group of lands, he had no connection with the fraudulent entries in township 6-4. The theory of the prosecution is that he dropped out of the alleged conspiracy about the same time and the witnesses testified that Senstor John I. Kinkaid paid them $400 each for their claims.

The testimony of William P. Coleman, R. J. Harbaugh and others who were called was to the effect that Kinkaid furnished them descriptions of the property to be filed upon so that no claims would overlap. Under his instructions they stood in line over Sunday night and filed Monday morning. After receiving final receipts the entrymen testified they had made deeds to George S. Long, whom none of them knew. Long, who is the Tacoma agent of the Weyerhaeuser. Lumber company, will be called to testify regarding the use of his name as a dummy trustee. Attorneys for the government say they will show that J. J. Blake, clark for Borah, got patents for these fraudulent entries from the land office and that Borah filed the deeds with the sected of the state. This will be the first
