

SPORTS OF THE DAY

THOUSANDS LEFT TO HOME CLUB

Had Fair Weather Continued This Week Should Have Been Season's Best.

DESPITE HARD LUCK M'CREIDIE IS AHEAD

Bad Weather, Bank Failure, Bad Bargains in Players and Tall End Position All Offset by Magnificent Support Given by Local Fans.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS. Portland and San Francisco no game; rain.

Table with columns: City, Won, Lost, P.C. Rows: Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, Portland.

Not less than $3,000 will be lost to the Portland baseball club through the present storm, provided the storm continues long enough to prevent the games scheduled for today and tomorrow and the probabilities are that no more coast league games will be played here this year.

Last Sunday the receipts at Recreation park were in the neighborhood of $1,800. The crowd broke the season's record, the number of paid admissions exceeding 5,000. Public interest was increased because of the bolstering up of the team by new players and the better showing that resulted.

Had fair weather continued, this week should have been by all odds, the best of the year for the local management. At least an $1,000 crowd could have been expected Sunday, while the Wednesday and Saturday games would have made up at least $1,200 more. Truly, the local management is having hard luck.

Talk about hard luck for a baseball club. There is that $3,000 of McCreddie's which went up in the smoke of the Oregon Trust & Savings bank. Then the poor players that were handed to us for good ones early in the season, the good ones that never came and the resulting retirement to the far tail of the profession.

But despite all the hard luck of the Portland club, it has one piece of good luck which overshadows all the bad. That is the fact that its franchise happens to be for the city of Portland. In other towns in the west McCreddie would have been in the hole in pocket as well as in percentage of games won, but he's not. Despite all his bad luck he is actually ahead on the year end so far ahead that there's not the slightest danger of his going behind. This from a man who is so close to the financial end of the club that he cannot be mistaken.

New Pitcher Loses Game.

San Francisco, Sept. 28.—Hopkins, Oakland's new pitcher, was wild yesterday and the Angels took the game score.

National League.

At Pittsburgh—Pittsburg, 6; Boston, 5. (11 innings.)

American League.

At Boston—Chicago, 4; Boston, 2. At Washington—Cleveland, 3—4. At New York—St. Louis, 7; New York, 1.

Northwest League.

At Tacoma—Tacoma, 2; Butte, 1. At Seattle—Seattle, 2; Aberdeen, 0.

SPORTING NOTES

Local and Otherwise.

That George Memsic looks like a homer.

Double header at baseball park tomorrow, if weather permits.

Scrimmage practice at Multnomah club tomorrow at 10 o'clock.

Joe Gans says he's fought his last fight. That ought to leave a nice scramble for the championship.

Detroit now leads the American league by two games over Philadelphia. Chicago is one game behind the Athletics.

Dr. Rolier, the Seattle wrestler, defeated Emil Kiank in straight falls yesterday, taking the first in 14 minutes and the second in 13 minutes. The match was held in private for a side bet of $1,000.

If the New York Yacht club will not come to Lipton's terms Lipton will come to the terms of the club. Such is the Englishman's latest resolution.

John Mees, a Philadelphia lightweight, died last night from a blow over the heart administered by Neil Dever in a six round go last Saturday night.

Holladays' Claim Disputed.

The claim of the Holladay baseball club that it is the champion of Multnomah and Clackamas counties, of some 17 years of age and under is disputed by the Stevens club, which claims the championship of Oregon for that season. The Stevens players claim to have defeated the Holladays twice this season and that they have won 26 games and lost but 2. The Stevens line-up for the season was: C. Nelson, catcher; W. Nelson, pitcher; J. Voss, pitcher; H. Martin, first base and left field; L. Harris, second base; F. Schmidt, third base; C. Thurkelsen, shortstop; O. Lovell, center fielder; J. O'Neil, right fielder.

AN OUNCE OF PREVENTION

is worth a pound of cure. There are many poor sufferers, convalescents who are hopeless of getting well—whenever they had taken care of themselves, would now be well. A cough is the foundation of consumption. Ballard's Horehound Syrup will cure that cough. Mrs. S. Great Falls, Montana, writes: "I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup in my family for years—my children suffer with coughs. Sold by all druggists."

MEMSIC STAYS LIMIT WITH JOE

Gans Gets Decision on Points but Given One of Hardest Fights of Career.

(Pacific Coast Press Leased Wire.)

Los Angeles, Sept. 28.—For 20 rounds George Memsic of Los Angeles stood off the great Joe Gans last night, and though he was outpointed and bested, he put up one of the closest fights Gans has had in years. In the sixth, seventh, eighth and twelfth rounds Memsic had the best of the argument and in the eighth his friends felt sure that there was to be a new lightweight champion.

The fight by rounds: First Round—Gans tapped Burns on the nose twice with his left and followed with a hard right to the jaw. Burns lands low left to the stomach. Burns could not get inside of Gans's long left. Burns put a hard right to the jaw and Burns rushed to clinch at the bell. Gans' round.

Round Two—Burns rushed furiously, landing right over the head and left to the jaw. Burns landed one light on the face and got three in return. Gans smiled as they clinched. Burns caused laughter at his short swings. Gans landed every straight lead. Burns landed a low left to stomach.

Round Three—Gans landed two straight lefts to the face, and got a left hand in the stomach. Burns could not keep away from Gans' lefts, but was doing all right in the stomach. Burns landed mid-range Gans warmed up and exchanged rights and lefts with Burns. Gans missed a terrific right at the end of the round.

Round Four—Burns rushed and almost lifted Gans off his feet. Gans got a right uppercut to the stomach. Burns landed head down, but got a hard right on the ear.

Round Five—Gans stayed on a defensive entirely. He avoided all Burns' rushes. Burns got two on the head and nearly went down. Burns landed a left to the jaw, but Gans went to his corner for a moment. Burns put a straight right to Burns' right side and a left to the neck and received a hard left to the kidneys. They fought furiously, both landing on face and body.

Round Six—Gans put a straight right to the face and a left to the neck and received a hard left to the kidneys. They fought furiously, both landing on face and body.

Round Seven—Burns brought blood from Gans' cheek. Gans raised his arm in a clinch and Burns took advantage to put in three punches to the stomach. Gans looked worried and tired from the rough wrestling. The crowd began hollering for Burns and the round ended about even.

Round Eleven—Gans blocked everything and held Burns at bay with fast jab to the face and a hard right to the cheek. Burns landed a hard right to the face and Gans returned with a right uppercut to the ear. Burns landed a hard right to the face and Gans returned with a right uppercut to the ear.

Round Twelve—Gans toyed with Burns by knocking his head as Burns rushed and swung wildly. Gans put a terrific right on the body, but Burns kept.

Round Thirteen—Gans asked Jeff to end Burns' clinches quickly. Burns fought so frantically that he went to his knees without being hit. Gans stood away and punched Burns into a daze with lefts and rights to the jaw, but Burns swung rights and lefts and kept coming.

Round Fourteen—Burns seemed tired. He refused to break. Gans shot punches to the face and body. Burns backed away and punished Burns severely and Burns rushed frantically in spite of a perfect rain of hard blows to the face and jaw. Gans scored three to one in the final rally.

Round Fifteen—Burns took a terrific series of hard rights to the body with a clinch and the crowd gave him a round of cheers for his gameness.

TODAY SQUIRES MAY RETRIEVE HIMSELF

If Australian Loses to Sullivan He Will Never Fight Again.

(Pacific Coast Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, Sept. 28.—This is the day that Bill Squires must show the sports of San Francisco. When the Australian, who has once failed, will shake the right hand of Jack (Twin) Sullivan of Boston and the pair will wade into each other in a 25-round battle.

Squires' admirers say that he will leave the prize ring forever if he fails to take the measure of his shifty opponent. In the event of a defeat Squires' manager, who has been promised to challenge his conqueror, Tommy Burns, and strive to retrieve the laurels he lost on the fourth of July.

The betting remains the same, 10 to 3, with plenty of money on both sides. Burns is figured to win at 10 to 1. The odds would drop a point or two, but from present indications the men will enter the ring with the odds unchanged.

RALPH ROSE BIG MAN OF SEASON

Athletes Will Not Stop Talking of His Performances for a Long Time.

GOSSIP OF AMATEUR ATHLETIC MATTERS

Metropolitan Association of A. A. U. Is Making Fight to Bar College Men From Competition During Their Undergraduate Career.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

New York, Sept. 28.—In amateur athletics Ralph Rose, the California giant, is the big man beyond a question. Any man who can take seven firsts hand-running and with a new record in each event is going some. It will be a long time before the Californian's feats of the past month will cease to be a topic of lively interest among athletes.

Rose repeated something of a sensation three years ago and great things were expected of him, but he was a failure at football, got into trouble with the athletic authorities and so far as the east is concerned he was regarded as out of the game. That the eastern estimate was at fault is evidenced by his remarkable work at Jamestown and later at New York.

Unfortunately, Rose is seriously thinking of quitting athletics. His loss would be a terrible one for America in the London Olympic games next year, as he could win the shot put with ease and an athletic club during their college year. The college year is defined as well. Some athletic experts have styled Rose "the perfect man," but he can hardly be so if the pattern set up by Burns and then put to hard rights in his great muscles there is not a knot. His shoulders are rounded, and his manager claims if he manages anything but athletic, but he is certainly there with the goods.

The Metropolitan association of the A. A. U. took the first step in the fight to bar college athletes from A. A. U. competition during their undergraduate career by a resolution which would have the effect that no students of any college, school or university may represent an athletic club during their college year. The college year is defined as the full 12 months, or from the beginning of one college term to the beginning of the next. The resolution was added to the original resolution when it was pointed out that graduates might return to college for a post-graduate course.

Some of those present who are interested in the college athletes complained that such a resolution was imposing an unfair hardship upon the subjects of it and accordingly it was suggested that the college men should be admitted to competition if they would enter under the name of the association, and be attached to any athletic organization.

Entry blanks have been issued for the national indoor championships of the A. A. U. to be held at the Madison Square Garden on October 25 and 26. These blanks have been sent to all the associations of the A. A. U. and it is expected that the indoor championships of this season will surely beat those held last year.

It has been decided by the national championship committee of the A. A. U. to hold the 10-mile championship run, which was next to be held on April 22, on October 12, at the Polo grounds. The regulation gold, silver and bronze A. A. U. championship medals will be given to the winners of the 10-mile run. It is expected that the 10-mile run will be a very close race.

Guy Haskins, of the University of Pennsylvania, holder of the intercollegiate half mile records, is after the laurels and attempts to finish the cross-country championship title this year. Haskins took up cross-country running last fall for the first time, and was so well pleased with his performance that he has decided to train for that event.

WHITMAN SELECTS MANAGERS FOR YEAR

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Whitman College, Walla Walla, Sept. 28.—The executive committee of the Associated Students has appointed new managers for the year. The committee has decided to capture all the vacant managements. As manager of basketball, Joe E. Bassett, '10, of Riverview, was chosen. George '10, of Riverview, was chosen.

MARVELOUS INVENTION CURES WEAK MEN

Patent Granted by the United States Government

A new and scientific appliance invented by L. B. Hawley, M. D., will produce full manly power at first application. The effects are immediate and startling to a high degree. Develops, strengthens and cures lost vigor. Positively no failures. Physicians endorse and use it in their practice. If you are the least skeptical as to the value of this remarkable treatment, send for illustrated circulars, take them to your family physician and get his opinion. This is the first time any one has requested you to take his circulars to your family physician. Why? Simply because he knows your physician will not recommend his treatment. Not so with this appliance. Your doctor will immediately grasp the idea, and when he does, he will recommend it. Nothing like it has ever been sold before. It works the same on every individual. Send today for free descriptive circular of this wonderful instrument. The moment you see it you will realize its possibilities. No C. O. D. or free trial schemes to catch the unwary. This is a plain business proposition that will appeal to you as the greatest opportunity ever offered to those who are weak. Address L. B. Hawley, M. D., 1030B Wisner building, Rochester, N. Y.

Woodward, '08, of Walla Walla, was appointed track manager, and Donald Marston, '08, of Walla Walla, was appointed to manage an athletic show to be given in December or January. Lloyd Hawley, '11, of Spokane, was appointed.

WASHINGTON RAISES ANNUAL TAX LEVY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Olympia, Wash., Sept. 28.—The state board of equalization has completed its work of equalizing the taxes for the year 1907, and fixed the levy for the year at a total of 6.7 mills, as compared with 5.4 mills last year. The general tax levy is 3 mills this year, as compared with 2.35 mills last year. The military levy is one fifth of a mill this year, as compared with one tenth of a mill last year. The road levy has been raised by act of the recent legislature, from one fourth mill to one half mill. The state board, in equalizing this year's assessments, has reduced the total as returned by the county boards at $588,179,820, to $673,070,528.

VERDICT IS TAYLOR DIED BY ACCIDENT

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

The Dallas, Tex., jury returned a verdict yesterday after examining the premises where the fatal shooting occurred, that the death was caused by the accidental discharge of a pistol.

COUNCILMEN VOTE WITH ZIMMERMAN

City Dads Will Allow Packing Plant to Run Pending Decision.

L. Zimmerman may operate his packing plant on the Macadam road until the supreme court decides it is contrary to law.

Zimmerman won a distinct victory in the council meeting yesterday, every member but three—Cellars, Cotel and Driscoll voting to permit him to operate his slaughterhouse pending the decision of his appeal to the supreme court. Several reasons are given by Zimmerman why he should be given permission to run his place, moral suasion being used as much as legal compulsion. Mr. McGarry, Zimmerman's attorney, informed the council that two decisions had been given in slaughtering cases. Judge Cleveland had held the slaughter ordinance void, he said, but in another case Judge George sustained the measure.

Zimmerman referred to the Union Meat company as a trust which held up prices. He said this company sold meat in Tacoma at the price of 2 cents cheaper per pound than in Portland, and asserted that since he came into the local field the price of best meat has been reduced from 8 1/2 cents to 7 cents, and mutton from 13 cents to 10 cents per pound. Zimmerman argued upon the council that his entrance into the field with price-slashing methods had alarmed the Swifts and they were determined to oust him from the market. He informed the council that he had spent $12,000 in securing a modern plant, which would be almost entirely paid for if he were not permitted to run, and defied his accusers to detect any disagreeable odor either in or outside of his plant.

WIFE FROM IOWA ALLEGES DESERTION

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Leviston, Ida., Sept. 28.—M. R. Cox, alias M. R. Cooke, traveling salesman for a Spokane glove firm, has been arrested on a charge of abandonment, preferred by R. J. Organ, attorney for Mrs. Cox. It is charged that Cox left his wife and child without means of support in Iowa.

Cox is said to be worth between $25,000 and $40,000. He has been in Spokane since the month of May. His remittances to his wife are alleged to be insufficient to support her and her child and she chased him to the northwest. It is understood she is suing to recover $1,000. The Iowa statute provides a penalty of five years in prison for desertion.

CONVICTS TO MILK AND RAISE TRUCK

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Walla Walla, Sept. 28.—Plans are being made by the penitentiary officials for establishing a dairy and produce farm on the quarter section adjoining the prison on the north. If the plan is established the prisoners could raise much of the produce that is now purchased. Plans for cottages for the guards are also being considered, and it is possible they will soon have houses furnished them the same as do now the engineer, captain and physicians.

METZ BROTHERS WILL IMPORT FINE HORSES

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Pendleton, Or., Sept. 28.—Metz Brothers, the well-known horsemen of this section, are now preparing to establish a business here similar to that recently conducted by A. C. Ruby. They have already secured a stable room at the Dutch Henry yard and shipment of 14 stallions is expected at once. They will handle imported draft breeds and coach horses.

WHY DRUGS MUST GO. Physician Tells How Nature's Remedy Will Supplement the Present System of Drugging. Electro-Vigor is an electric body battery, applied while you sleep. It pumps a stream of electric life into every nerve and tissue of the body, building up vitality and strength and removing the cause of disease. Electro-Vigor is not an electric belt. It never needs charging, for it makes its own power continuously. Electro-Vigor is a great success. It has cured people all over the west whom drugs had failed to benefit. THOS. KELSAY, Smith, Or. After two months' application of Electro-Vigor, I no longer suffer from pain in my back and kidneys, my food digests properly, and all the symptoms of weakness and varicose are cured. CHAS. PICKARD, Joseph, Or. Dr. Osler of Oxford University, in a recent address at Philadelphia, said: "I believe the best doctor is the one who knows the worthlessness of drugs." Every doctor on earth knows almost as well as Osler the worthlessness of drugs, yet there are but few that acknowledge it. Some day they will have to, because the time is near when the antiquated system of drugging will be abandoned for the natural treatment—electricity. A BOOK WORTH $1.00 FREE.
