

THIS is the season of returning wanderers. Townspeople who have strayed only so far away as the coast or the mountains flock back to town the end of August and the first of September. But those who have spent their summers in Europe are just now returning. The passenger lists of the Atlantic liners are watched with interest for almost every one comes some Portland people to New York to visit a short time.

Interest this week centers about the wedding Tuesday evening of Miss Margaret Morrison and Thomas Sharp Jr. Miss Morrison is one of the most popular and sought after girls of the younger set, and there has hardly been time for all the entertaining planned for her. In fact a number of invitations had to be refused that the bride-elect might go peacefully on with her wedding arrangements. The bridal party includes many of the most prominent members of the younger set. Miss Dorothy Morrison, the bride's maid, will make a charming maid of honor.

Notable among the early fall receptions was that Wednesday evening given at the residence of P. J. Jennings on Sixth street, the occasion being the silver jubilee of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Jennings. Receiving in the drawing room with the host and hostess were George Jennings and Miss Jennings.

In an adjoining room which presented a miniature fairland, punch was served by Miss Nellie Strowbridge assisted by Miss O'Hara, Miss Teasie Jennings, Miss Mary Jessop and the Misses O'Brien. Loos were served by Miss Fannie Bodman and Mrs. W. Jessop. In the dining room the table decorations were elaborate with a centerpiece of a huge wedding cake. A party of pretty young girls, Miss Zimmerman, Miss Cronin, Miss Sullivan, Miss E. Smith, Miss Allen, Miss Harrison Corbett, Mrs. Walter V. Smith, Mrs. H. D. Green, Miss Lucy Smith, Miss Agnes Callin, Mrs. Ralph W. Wilbur, Mrs. J. P. Dickson, Miss Kate Gilie, Miss A. P. Dickson, Mrs. Lewis Russell, Mrs. Martin Wisch, Miss Wygant, Mrs. Joseph N.

Mrs. George Taylor gave the first large bridge of the season Friday afternoon at her home on north Twenty-second street. There were about 10 tables and the prizes were won by Miss Ella Hirsch and Mrs. Ernest Tucker. Among those present were Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox, Mrs. James Laidlaw, Mrs. W. C. Alvord, Mrs. John Eben Young, Mrs. J. G. Gaud, Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, Mrs. Morton H. Insley, Mrs. Warren F. Houghton, Miss Martha Hoyt, Mrs. John Shepard, Mrs. Frank Hart, Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Miss Ella Hirsch, Miss Elizabeth Caldwell, Mrs. George F. Russell, Mrs. R. Lea Barnes, Mrs. J. Frank Watson, Miss Alice Strong, Mrs. Samuel Hietshu, Mrs. William H. Dunckley, Mrs. E. A. Harrison, Mrs. Harrison Corbett, Mrs. Walter V. Smith, Mrs. H. D. Green, Miss Lucy Smith, Miss Agnes Callin, Mrs. Ralph W. Wilbur, Mrs. J. P. Dickson, Miss Kate Gilie, Miss A. P. Dickson, Mrs. Lewis Russell, Mrs. Martin Wisch, Miss Wygant, Mrs. Joseph N.

MISS DOROTHY MORRISON, MAID OF HONOR.

The Toronto, Canada, Globe of last Monday has a full and detailed account of the conferring of the degree of doctor of divinity on the Right Reverend Charles Scadding, bishop of Oregon. The bishop of the Oregon diocese has been away from Portland the greater part of the summer speaking everywhere on the Oregon work. He has now gone to Richmond to attend the general convention. The following account of a social honor is taken from a Toronto paper: "The provost of Trinity gave a very charming tea on the east lawn of the college on Saturday afternoon after the conferring of the degree of D. D. on the Right Rev. Charles Scadding, bishop of Oregon. The speeches in Convocation hall were most interesting and the weather for tea on the lawn quite ideal. The provost was assisted by his sister, Mrs. Fleming. A few others present were his grace the Archbishop and Mrs. Sweetman, Dr. and Mrs. Clark, Mrs. James Henderson, Mrs. Fred Denison and the Misses Denison, Mr. Davidson, Professor and Mrs. Oswald Smith, Professor and Mrs. Woodcock, the president of Toronto university, Professor Jones, Canon Welch, Professor Jenks and many others."

Mrs. Frank Woolsey of Tacoma, who is visiting Mrs. J. G. Gaud, has prolonged her stay, which she intended to culminate last Thursday, to the middle of this week. Mrs. Woolsey formerly lived in Portland and she has been much in demand at luncheons and dinners given by her friends. Mrs. Louis H. Tarpley entertained for her with a luncheon of six covers Thursday. Mrs. A. L. Maxwell gave a small "bridge" for her last Saturday and Mrs. Jewell gave a dinner and bridge at the links last Monday. Several of her Vancouver friends, too, have entertained her.

Mrs. James McCracken gave a tea yesterday afternoon at her Riverdale bungalow, introducing her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Peter B. McCracken of Nevada. The decorations of wild roses and autumn leaves were most effective. Punch was served in a covered spot in the garden. Mrs. A. E. Rockey, Mrs. C. E. S. Wood, Mrs. C. J. Reed and Mrs. Frank Hart poured and the others assisting the potage were: Mrs. J. C. Ainsworth, Mrs. George F. Russell and Miss Nellie Williams. Mrs. McCracken will return home this week.

Invitations have been sent out for the opening reception of the East Side Athletic club at Ringler's hall, next Monday evening. The patrons and patronesses are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Burrell, Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Coe, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Worlein, Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. Masters, Mr. and Mrs. F. Eggert, Mr. and Mrs. Johann Poulsen, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Tuttle, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. bride's cake Miss Gertrude Sheridan secured the ring. Miss Blanche Horn the coin and Miss Ahima Hallock the thimble. Miss Eleanor DeSpain caught the bride's bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaacs have gone to Chicago to visit at the summer home of the bride's parents, near that city. The bride is the youngest daughter of an old and prominent family. Mr. Isaacs' father is chief consulting engineer of the Harriman system and the son is connected with the same work.

A pretty wedding took place at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. E. Slatten, when her daughter, Echo La Verne Tice, was united in marriage to Tycno M. Sundberg of this city. Many relatives and friends were present to help celebrate the event. The parlors
