

FIVE STORES ARE ROBBED

Burglars Enter Linnton Business Places by Wholesale—Secure Little Cash, but Destroy Valuable Papers of Lumber Company.

Five business places of Linnton were entered and robbed last night by men evidently amateurs in criminology. The game was hardly worth the candle except that it caused much inconvenience and annoyance to the owners of the places visited in the way of cleaning up after the gang this morning. The offenders against society secured as a total for their efforts about $3 in cash and destroyed some valuable papers belonging to the Clark & Wilson Lumber Company.

Two saloons, one real estate office, one drug store and the office of the Clark & Wilson Lumber company were robbed. Every place entered in on the county road.

That the men were amateurs was illustrated by the method in which they proceeded at one place, that of the saloon owned by Cochran & Carson. Here they encountered a cash register and safe. In the former the day receipts are never left. The management always transfers money before closing to the safe, not even leaving any small change in the register.

This morning, when the place was opened for business, the proprietors discovered the safe had been removed from the first floor to the basement, where the robbers tried to break the steel work with a sledge hammer. No attempt at blowing the safe was made and it was sledged so heavily that an expert safe-opener employed was unable up to noon today to open the door. The safe contained a sum of money.

At another saloon the cash register contained a small amount of change and that was taken together with a bottle or two of liquor. The next place visited was the real estate office of Mr. Hardy. Here $5 cents was secured and a number of deeds and mortgages were strewn about the office floor as the men ransacked the place in the hope of securing more money.

The town drug store rewarded the men with about $1 in change and aside from breaking a few bottles and destroying some stationery, there the men were unable to secure anything of value.

At the office of the Clark & Wilson Lumber company the safe was touched. It was evidently too cumbersome for sledge hammer work and the robbers contented themselves with disarranging books and office furniture. They secured about $2 from a tin box. Evidently enraged because their work was so fruitless the robbers threw about the office every map and bill in the establishment. Some were even torn up.

A hurried consultation was held this morning by the townspeople whose places were entered and the sheriff's office was notified. Sheriff Smith at once detailed a deputy to investigate.

THOMAS BRYAN BURIED AT TIGARVILLE

Thomas Bryan of Tigardville, Oregon, who died September 14, at the age of 62 years was an honored citizen of that town and a man of kindly and faithful nature. The funeral was held at the United Brethren church near Tigardville. Mr. Bryan had lived in Oregon about eight years, his boyhood having been spent in Binghampton and Philadelphia and his early manhood in Iowa and Kansas. His wife was Miss Rachel Stephenson of Wayne county, Iowa. His wife and five children, besides a brother and sister survive him.

ROSE SHOWER FOR HAWAIIAN GIRLS

Flower Bedecked Belles of Sandwich Islands Arrive Saturday.

Garlanded with leis (rose wreaths), welcomed by Oregon girls whom The Journal sent to Hawaii, received with honor by the Portland Commercial club, and entertained by the Women's club and other organizations, nine Hawaiian girls who are to arrive in Portland next Saturday or Sunday will be shown that this city has a friendly feeling for the Hawaiian people. The island belles are chaperoned by Mrs. Edith Foster Wethered, who had charge of the trip of the Oregon girls to Hawaii.

Mrs. Wethered and her party left Honolulu September 4, sailing on the steamship Sierra for San Francisco. Their departure from their native land was one of the memorable events of the year. The docks were crowded with Hawaiians to see them off, and when the girls in a six-horse trolley arrived at the wharves they were greeted with rounds of applause. Other Hawaiian girls placed armloads of garlands about their necks. There were many presents, and much weeping along with the joy of the departure.

Arriving in San Francisco they were received with ceremony and cordiality by the commercial bodies, the California Promotion committee taking the lead in their entertainment. They have visited Los Angeles and other places, and are now headed for Oregon. Mrs. Foster, writing to Manager Tom Richardson of the Commercial club about their trip, said:

"They will reach Portland about Saturday, October 5, and I know you will see to it that they are greeted with the show they attend and that they receive the glad hand. They are being royally received all through California, by commercial clubs and women's clubs. I want Oregon to do as well. The Oregon Journal girls who made the trip to the islands will join in helping to arrange for meeting the Hawaiian girls, and will make some beautiful leis of roses for the occasion."

The Hawaiian girls had planned to reach Salem before the state fair closed, and expected to spend more time in Oregon than in any other state on their tour. Circumstances arising on the trip made it impossible for them to get here for the fair, and their time in Oregon will be correspondingly limited.

WHOLESALE HOUSE IS CLOSING OUT STOCK

Big Fall Clothing Stock to Go at Wholesale Prices.

Those who know J. L. Bowman will appreciate his statement in today's page announcement that he has enough wholesale clothing stock to start 10 large retail stores. It is this stock of high grade ready made clothing that he proposes to close out at exactly wholesale prices in New York City, where he is going out of the wholesale clothing business. Mr. Bowman's statement regarding this move is:

"Hundreds of people are asking us today why we are giving up the wholesale trade after working it up until it was the second largest wholesale clothing house on the Pacific coast. The reason is we found so many difficulties in the manufacturing of our goods in New York City, where we are obliged to operate our factory, that we have decided to give up the wholesale trade for good and all time."

"This is of itself assurance that exceptionally fine values will be obtainable at this sale. No such a fresh wholesale stock of absolutely reasonable goods has been offered at wholesale cost to the retail trade during the past 10 years. It is without precedent," said one old resident this morning. "Doubtless there will be some kicking among the old-line clothing," he continued, "but Mr. Bowman is justified, as he is really going out of the wholesale business. It means a great saving for the people because it is a stock that is up to date in every particular."

The sale has opened in the new Couch building on the west side of Fourth, between Washington and Stark. The people outside of town especially will find it easily by remembering that the Couch building is situated on the site of the old Watson restaurant. However, there is little doubt that all those who appreciate what this sale means will find the place, and that very soon.

ERECT NEW CONCRETE DEPOT ON EAST SIDE

O. R. & N. Asks for Estimates for Building on East Water Street.

Request for estimates on the cost of the construction of a concrete depot building to be erected at East Morrison and East Water streets was made yesterday by an east side concrete-block factory by General Manager O'Brien of the Harriman lines. The specifications call for a building 50 feet wide with that frontage on East Morrison and 150 feet frontage on East Water street. The request was made as a result of a visit to the office of General Manager O'Brien yesterday afternoon by W. L. Boland, Joseph Buchtel and the manager of the concrete block company. It is the plan to fill the site first with gravel either by a dredge or by dumping and watering so that the fill will be substantial. The objection made by the company to building a depot at this point has always been the uncertainty of securing a solid foundation.

The east side is anxious for a depot at this point and believes that should one be erected it would be popular within a few years. It is handy to the retail district of both the east side and the west side and the admirable car service at this point would carry passengers to every part of the city. The point is thought to be much better located for local passenger purposes than the union depot.
