After standing 13 long years of abuse from her husband, Mrs. George Harris of 70 North Tenth street, has at last sought relief from her spouse in the police court. Her complaint charged him with using filthy and abusive language toward her. Harris yesterday morning was the picture of humiliation and despair. Mrs. Harris was then willing to drop the case and "give him one more chance." Clerk Hennessy, however, arose and stated to Judge Cameron the full story of Harris, mitigation had never been told, and the court wanted to hear the details. The evidence showed that Mrs. Harris had to keep roomers to support herself, owing to Harris' aversion to labor. Harris, she said, had rubbed soap suds in her eyes as she bent over the wash-tub and in other ways treated her cruelly. Upon plea of Mrs. Harris Judge Cameron dismissed the case, declaring that Harris would get 60 days the next time he appeared on any court charge.

At 10 o'clock tomorrow morning the exhibition of the superb collection of Kiser photographs of Oregon scenery on display at the Portland hotel will close and the views will be taken to several Oregon cities to be displayed before being placed on show in New York, Boston, Philadelphia and other eastern cities. The exhibition has been one of the most successful ever conducted in Portland and many thousands of visitors have attended to view the beautiful pictures. The display represents the work of F. H. Kiser and is worth about $40,000. Henry B. Corliss, assisted by Miss Esther Gunther, has been in charge of the exhibit.

Better citizens is what we want. Stronger men, healthier mothers and happy children. Our bodies consist of what we eat and what we drink. If we eat poor stuff and drink "dope," we get tired, weak and life becomes a burden. The right way and the only way is to use our brains and follow the natural law and follow nature. A suggestion may be in order, viz: Eat light food, which is easy to digest, and if you want anything stronger than Bull Run water, then use Golden Grain Granules cereal coffee, which simply is a food drink, which even can be given to the baby. Everybody is talking about it.

A profit to the county of $2,349 was earned during the month of September by the county clerk's office, according to the report submitted to the county clerk this morning by County Clerk Fildes. Six years ago, in September, 1901, the expenses of the clerk's office so far exceeded the receipts that there was a deficit of $1,456. The profit earned last month was $2,349, those earned in September, 1906, by about $450.

By paying about $5,000 more the county could have had the bridge open to foot passengers all the time, but it would have been closed to teams for 120 days, or two months longer than will be the case under the contract as let, where all kinds of traffic is barred.
