Not a Hearst Movement,

September 27 last, delegates from some 32 states in the union met in New York as a national conference of the Independence League idea and at that time it was decided to organize a third political party which should take active part in the future political history of the nation and as a result of this meeting Mr. Rainey was sent out to organ-ize the states of Oregon and Washing-ton, northern California and northern Nevada.

"The the first place the Independence League is not a Hearst organization, but is a movement intended to give the people of the United States an opportunity for good government and honest administration," said Mr. Rainey this morning. "The Democratic party is dead. It had no settled policy. In Bryun's campaigns it was the party of radicalism, in Parker's of conservatism. The Republican party is controlled by the corporations and is their instrument. A third party, therefore, must be formed from the independent voters of the country who are looking for the best that is in the government unhampered and uncontrolled by corporate or other influence.

Baker's action in not arresting the men may mean his removal from office as well as that of Sheriff Beattle, for when the Ministerial association of Oregon City took up the fight against the club last summer the members decisred their intention of prosecuting the war with vigor, even going to the length of removing from office all officers who violated their trust in regard to enforcing the peace laws of the county. If they keep the pledge made at that time, they will have plenty of evidence gained from last night's flasco with which to base impeachment proceedings.

WAGONSHOP BURNED BY EUGENE FIREBUG

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Eugene, Or., Oct. 11.—The blacksmith Eugene, Or., Oct. 11.—The blacksmith and wason-making shop of A. L. Smitherman in the northeastern part of Eugene, was destroyed by fire yesterday morning, together with all its contents. The loss was $800 and the insurance $500. The fire was evidently of incendiary origin as the proprietor had put out all fires before quitting work the night before. Smitherman was burned out about a year ago in the same manner and he rebuilt on the same spot. He will build a third shop.
