

ROUGH LUMBER LESS THAN COST

Slash Means Profit Average Near Vanishing Point— Mills Closing.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Seattle, Wash., Oct. 12.—Rough lumber has been slashed by interior mills from $1 to $4 per 1,000 and is selling to rail and cargo trade at $3, the lowest figure in years.

Log prices went off $2 per 1,000 last month, but the reduction had already been anticipated by the shrinkage in lumber prices and does not justify the big cut in the latter.

MILLER ESCAPES FROM ROCKPILE

Young Trusty Slips Away From Kelley's Butte and Fails to Return.

Charley Miller, a trusty at Kelley's Butte, serving a six months' sentence for petty larceny, escaped from the institution shortly after 2:30 o'clock last night and up to a late hour had not been captured.

Miller was employed as a cook and dishwasher at the rockpile and it was while doing up the supper dishes last night that he made his getaway. While the guards were locking up, the remainder of the prisoners, Miller slipped through the doors to empty some dishes and failed to come back. His absence was not noted for some time after he escaped.

Miller was arrested several months ago by Special Officer Fitzgerald and nearly completed his sentence. He is described as a tall, slender young man about 19 years of age. He is light complexioned.

MINNESOTA WINS FROM AMES TEAM.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 12.—Minnesota triumphed over Ames 8 to 0 in the first game of the football season on Northrup field. The victory came through two field goals. The Ames players looked to average about 175 to 176. The teams had none of their old style of play, but were well equipped with the forward line, end runs and good, stiff line attempts.

BRINGS TO LIGHT SIGNIFICANT FACT

STRIKING FEATURES OF COMING BIG MUSICAL EVENTS.

Sousa, Madame Maconda and Maud Powell Each Have Widely Different Opinions on Some Points, But All Agree That the Line of Highest Quality Is Hard to Beat.

In connection with the three great musical events which are to occur in Portland within the next few weeks, there is a most significant feature which will demonstrate in a particularly striking manner the supremacy in certain lines occupied by one of Portland's well-known firms.

First is the coming of Sousa and his band, who are to appear at the Armory on the 18th and 19th. Sousa, as will be noticed in an announcement elsewhere in today's paper, gives the Kimball piano an eloquent endorsement. Next, on the evening of the 24th, will appear Madame Charlotte Maconda, at the Hellig theatre. In connection with her engagement is noted the fact that the famous Chickering piano will be used to accompany her. And on the afternoon of the 25th, will be heard Maud Powell, the great violinist, also at the Hellig theatre. Miss Powell will be accompanied by the Weber piano.

GOLDEN WEDDING OF THE PERRYS

Couple Who Have Been Pioneers in West Since Sixty-Five.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Hood River, Or., Oct. 12.—Mr. and Mrs. William H. Perry today celebrated their golden wedding in the presence of relatives and friends who congratulated them and gave them a banquet. The affair was given under the auspices of Canby post, G. A. R., and took place in their lodge rooms. The celebration commenced at 12 o'clock when Mr. and Mrs. Perry again went through the marriage ceremony, which was performed by Rev. J. W. Rigby. Afterward a banquet was served and they were given a gold-headed cane and a handsome umbrella, respectively, which were presented by A. C. Buck, commander of Canby post.

the trust and the public officials identified with the scheme robbed the public of over $150,000. For some reason the grand jury refused to file indictments against the quartet that composed the trust, notwithstanding it was in possession of sufficient evidence to act. Today it was announced that District Attorney Langdon was ready to put his plans into effect. So Morris Levy, a leading member of the trust, came from his ranch at Vinesburg, Sonoma county, to face the grand jury.

JURY SAYS MCARTY ROBBED M'MANUS

Pendleton, Or., Oct. 12.—The jury in the case of Jack McCarty brought in a verdict of guilty at 5 o'clock tonight, after being out since noon today. McCarty was charged with robbing J. P. McManus, editor of the Pilot Rock Record, in February last, of a gold watch and $60. The state was handicapped in its case through failing to get Mike Judd as a witness.

J. P. McManus, the victim of McCarty, on the stand told of the loss of the money. Scotty, a bartender, was the only other witness called. For the defense McCarty gave the gold-headed cane and a handsome umbrella, respectively, which were presented by A. C. Buck, commander of Canby post. Mr. and Mrs. Perry were married at Frankfort, Kentucky, October 6, 1857. The former is a native of the Blue Grass state and was born in Henry county, December 25, 1835. Mrs.

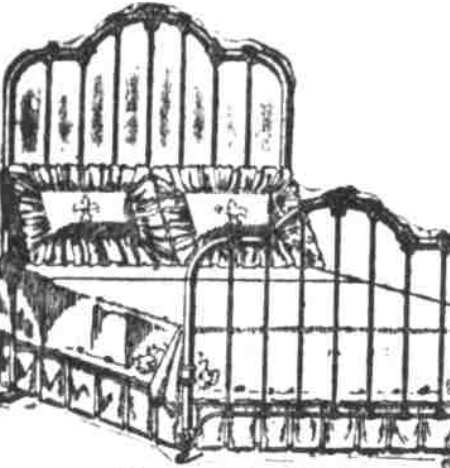

WATTERSON NOT DOING POLITICS

Kentucky Editor Bemoans Fate of Old Time Democratic Party.

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, Oct. 12.—"The prosperity of the United States is not and never again can be dependent upon the policy of any man or set of men; neither does it depend on politicians or political parties. The sooner we all realize that fact the better off we will be."

Colonel Henry Watterson, editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, is in New York for his annual fall vacation, and expressed this view after declaring he is out of politics forever. "I have attended my last state and national convention," he declared. "When I suggested sometime ago John Johnson of Minnesota as an ideal candidate for all that is left of the once proud Democratic party, I meant well. The criticism that followed was in many instances unkind and untruthful. So it has been ever since I took occasion to tell Bryan the truth and show him he and his friends were strangling to death all the remained of the old-time Democratic party. "Roosevelt is today the Republican party. If he wants another term or half a dozen other terms, he can be his party nominee. If the people want him I am willing."

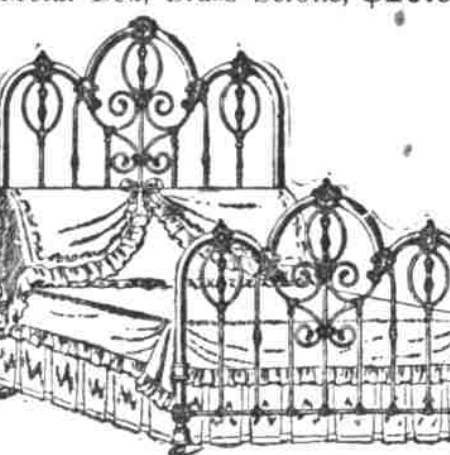

Henry Fisher, president of the Tobacco Workers' union, whose headquarters is in Louisville, has had the central labor body of that city adopt a resolution which if it becomes effective generally would render strikes against public utilities impossible. It provides for arbitration of all disputes between public utilities companies and employes and makes it compulsory when not voluntarily agreed upon by the parties in the controversy by making it a part of all ordinances, conveying rights and privileges to individuals or corporations wishing to operate public utilities.

CLOSING OUT SALE DRAWS BIG CROWDS

J. L. Bowman & Co. Will Add Additional Attractions This Week in the Way of Underwear at Cut Prices.

The closing out of our wholesale clothing house has brought the opportunity to thousands of men to provide a good Winter Suit or Overcoat at a saving of fully one third and on many Suits one half regular prices. During the ten days that the sale has been running in the Couch building the large store has been taxed to handle the people buying clothing alone.

But we noticed that a great many people asked for Underwear, and this gave us an idea that we might help them out and at the same time increase the popularity of our sale.

With this idea in view we went to the two large wholesale underwear houses here in Portland and made them a proposition to close out at a reduced price their small lots, and odds and ends left over from this season's business. They jumped at this as a chance to clean out the stock. We took all the choicest lots, and on Monday, about 10 o'clock we will open in connection with our closing-out sale on clothing the greatest underwear sale on record.

If we are any judge of underwear, this stock and the prices we will sell it at will jam this store to the doors on Monday afternoon. One lot to which we desire to call special attention is that ribbed in blue and flesh colors, made from a fine mixture of cotton and wool, which we will sell at 45 cents. It is the same as that which often retails at $1.00.

In the better qualities are some very choice silk and wool mixtures in a half dozen different colors. We notice the same things being shown in some exclusive stores at $6.00 and $7.00 per suit. Our price will be $3.50 per suit. There are plenty of other lines in good wool at 75 and 95 cents, also better qualities at $1.00 and $1.25.

Monday afternoon sees the beginning of the slaughter in Underwear.
