DIGNIFIED CREDIT

Credit is a Convenience when given freely and liberally, as it is at this establishment. You don't need the ready cash to buy at this store. We are willing to sell the small wage-earner as much goods on credit as we would the wealthy employer. He can charge the goods and then pay for them as best suits his income and convenience. In this way our dignified credit system puts it within every wage-earner's means to live as comfortably as his wealthier neighbor.
