MUSIC AND FORESTRY ON PROGRAM TONIGHT

Splendid Reception in Honor of Vis- Sherman anti-trust law, one of its next supplementary complaint filed by the Election Tomorrow. Election Tomorrow. (Special Dispatch to The Joursal) Salem, Or., Oct. 23.—The great feature of today's meeting of the Orogon Fed-eration of Women's clubs will be the educational symposium which will take place this afternoon. On the morning train from Portland President Kerr of Corvalits, Dr. Dyott of the First Con-gregational church of Portland, Superin-tendent Robinson and Dr. Chapman and Enos A. Mills of Colorado arrived to take part in the exercises of the day. This is proving one of the most attractive and instructive fatures of the convention, as it might be considered the pulse of the state work. Reports of Committee Reads. Testerday's meetings pussed off with the greatest harmony and were of a deep and earnest tone. Several of the states of the interest and other reasons, failed to be present, but most of them had sent their reports, which were discussion and many excellent of the balance of the bonds. press exploitation of club work brought out much discussion and many excellent suggestions, which will no doubt be rec-ommended when the resolutions committee nands in its report this afternoon, which is the last number on today's program.

A Eplendid Reception.

The reception last night was one of The reception last night was one of the most brilliant in Ssiem's social his-tory. The hall of representatives at the statehouse is respiendent in the gor-geous autumn foliage and flowers with which it is accorated, and adding to its brilliancy was the display of many flags. Mrs. Raymond, president of the Salem Woman's club, headed the line and introduced the guests to the offi-cers of the federation. The orchestra discoursed beautiful music throughtait the evening. the evening. The president's address in the afternoon was received with great applause and many compliments were showered upon her for her broad grasp of club work.

Election Speculations.

A good deal of quiet speculation is being indulged in as to the result of the election, which will take place tomorrow morning Several favorites are being put forward, but no one seems in the lead. It was decided by resolution being put forward, but no one seems in the lead. It was decided by readution this morning to procure a larger text for Chautauqua headquarters and to en-large the scope of the work. In the absence of the tecording secre-tary, Mrs. M. A. Spuilding of The Indies, who had sent in an resignation, Mrs. Crogster of Portland was elected to take her place. During the discussion on impure and

MAUDE WILBUR TOOK OVERDOSE OF MEDICINE

Whether or Not Excessive Portion Taken With Suicidal Intent Not Determined.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Roseburg, Or., Oct. 33 .- The Immediate cause of the sudden death of Miss Maude Davis of Wilbur, which occurred Thursday night, was the taking of an overdose of oil of tanacetum. This fact was brought out when the stomach was examined, a thorough investigation proving conclusively that she had taken an overdose, either by mistake or with the intent to commit suicide. She had bent to Roseburg for the medicine and stand has been and the medicine and signed her name and also her mother's name to the order. When the mail came from Roseburg she secured the package which contained the oil and concessed the fact that she had such an article in her possession from her parents. She received two small bottles.

After the family had retired she pro-ceeded to take the remedy and con-ceeded to take the remedy and con-ceeded the bottle in a small toy trunk which was within her large trunk. She was heard to fail upon the floor and the amily found her in spasms. She lived about an hour. There was no known motive for sul-cide, and it is thought she took the medicine not knowing the possible dead-ly effects of an overdose. One bottle was emptied. The bottles were not found until Monday. Further investigation will be made to show whether the fatal potion was taken intentionally or by accident.

SHOTS BY DEPUTY STOP A FUGITIVE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Roseburg, Or., Oct. 23 .- Frank Smith, the young man who was convicted in the circuit court Monday of assaulting Bud Martindale with a dangerous weapon, made a futile attempt to es-cape from the officers yesterday after-noon while being excorted to the county jail from the court room. Smith was in charge of Deputies Slocum and Stewart. As they were entering the corridor of the jail Stewart stepped in to unlock the door and Smith darted out past Slocum and around the corner of the jail. Slocum followed immedi-ately and opened fire. At the third shot Smith halted and was taken back to bis cell in the jail without resisful ance. Emith had not been sentenced, pending a motion for a new trial. The grand jury is still in session. the circuit court Monday of assaulting
