The Portland Board of Trade has appointed G. W. Allen, A. B. Steinhilber and Willis Fisher as a committee to confer with other commercial bodies regarding the proposition made by the Republican club to invite Senator Borah to address a meeting in Portland on the subject of river and harbor improvements.

Mayor Harry Lane has signed and returned ordinances passed at Wednesday's meeting of the council as follows: Transferring the general fund to the improvement fund for the purpose of paying interest on the improvement bonds, transferring $3,000 from the general fund to the street and sewer fund to pay interest on street and sewer warrants, and an ordinance allowing $2,000 for the repair of the roof of the Forestry building.

Regular meeting of the Multnomah Improvement association will be held in the hall at Mississippi avenue and Russell street this evening. Several improvements of local importance are to receive attention and the matter of a high school for the northeastern part of the city is to be discussed.

In response to the request of the Prison association to observe the last Sunday in October as Prison Sunday, Rev. James D. Corby will speak Sunday night in the Universalist church of the Good Tidings on East Eighth and Couch streets on the subject "How We Treat Prisoners in Oregon and How We Might Treat Them as to Help Them and Thus Help Ourselves."

Lee Leig, a Chinese, arrested Saturday night on a charge of tapping wires of the electric light company, will have to face the grand jury for his offense. He was bound over by Judge Cameron this morning. Lee Leig runs a hop joint on Second street and Deputy Sheriff Bill Lillis caught him in the act of stealing "juice" from the wires. Lee is out on $200 bail.

The result of the grocers' agitation for pure foods has been one of the greatest blessings which ever struck Oregon. Can anybody think of anything finer in the way of a family drink than the 100 per cent pure cereal coffee?

The new Northwest Side Improvement association will hold a regular meeting this evening in the Woodmen of the World hall, on Russell street. The work of the club will be started as much as possible at this meeting, one of the more important items being the agitation for a new high school in that district.

Captain L. D. Mahone, Ph. D., who was actively connected with the movement for Sunday closing in Portland, will address the members of the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon on "The Supremacy of America." A special musical program has been arranged for the occasion.

At the meeting of the Universal New Thought assembly tonight at 5 o'clock at A. O. U. W. hall, Washington, between West Park and Tenth streets, the subject will be "Have the Planets, Heredity and Personality Anything to Do With Our Success and Failures?" Sister Avabania speaker.

CITY JAIL WILL LOOK MUCH BETTER AFTER ITS SIDES GET WASHED

The walls and ceiling of the building at Second and Oak streets, known as the city jail, are being cleaned. This means that dirt that has been accumulating for years will be washed away. Prisoners are doing the work. The foreman of the gang is "Mexican Charlie." This is one of his favorite jobs at the station. Every so often he gets in for some minor offense, usually taking on too much joy juice, and then he is sent to the "Mexican Charlie" who has been one of the regulars for years and years. Seven or eight years ago he had the pleasure of muttering for years which he is now cleaning. Charlie is a Mexican who speaks seven different languages. And even otherwise he is exceedingly smart, but his hobby gets the best of him ever so often and he lands in jail again.

FIREBOAT STUNT THREATS LEAD TO WILL BE PROBES LONESOME CELL

Chief Campbell Will Determine the Whys and Wherefores. St. Johns Belligerent Wears Oregon Boot Served With Plain Bread.

Because of the inefficient work of the fireboat George H. Williams at the burning of the steamer J. N. Teal, the fire committee of the executive board ordered Chief Campbell to make an investigation into the matter and submit a report at the next meeting of the committee. Campbell was absent from the city at the time the fire occurred. Ten days additional time was granted a hose company of San Francisco to make good its contract to furnish the city with a quantity of hose. The firm pleaded labor trouble and other difficulties as reasons for not having the hose delivered on time specified in the contract. There are two engines in the department out of commission because of the lack of time specified in the contract. The committee wants the condition remedied.

The committee granted a request of T. Scott Brooks of the Hunt club for an exhibit of five department horses at the club's show next month. Petitions were read asking for a chemical engine established in the vicinity of Twenty-third street on Williams Heights and were referred to Chief Campbell for recommendation. The building inspector Spencer for September showed a great gain in building development in Portland under September, 1907. The report follows:

Table with 2 columns: Item, Value. Includes permits issued, increase in value, classification of buildings, repairs, and business buildings.

BOND SUIT WILL BE STEFF FIGHT

Decision on McKenna Action to Be Carried to Supreme Court. The suit of Francis I. McKenna against the city attacking the validity of the Bull Run pipe-line bonds voted at the last city election will be brought to trial before Judge Cleland in the circuit court Monday next. The McKenna suit will be directed directly against the pipe-line bonds, but it will in effect decide the legality of the whole $5,000,000 issue. The suit has been brought by Mr. McKenna as a test of the validity of the bond issue because of alleged irregularities in the advertisement of the election and the subsequent passage of the bonds by the people.

MANY HEAR ADDRESS OF B. FAY MILLS

Benjamin Fay Mills was introduced to the audience last evening by Hon. D. Bolla Cohen, who thanked the speaker for the message he was bringing to the people of all faiths in this city. This morning Mr. Mills addressed a large audience at the Babine Walker business college on "Mixing Religion and Business." Mr. Mills told many pertinent anecdotes and his address was a plea for the application of the unselfish ideal to the industrial and commercial world. Mr. Mills will speak this evening at 8 o'clock at Woodcraft hall, corner Tenth and Taylor streets, on "What the World Never Knew Till Now" and tomorrow afternoon at 4 in the same place.

JOE GOLDEN TAKES SUDDEN LEAVE

Joe Golden, hop head, won't work and cheap bunko man, so the police say, and who was arrested on a charge of vagrancy in an effort to connect with the Frohman oriental jewelry robbery, has left Portland. An officer was at the train this afternoon and saw him take his departure. There were no tears or cheers. Arraigned in the municipal court this morning, Judge Cameron gave Golden just a few hours to make his getaway. And he got. Golden has been making a grandstand play that he was here in company with a rich Oregon front the north. The police say, however, that if they had located the fair one she would also have been up for a "vag."

COUNTY JAIL NOW HAS NEW MATRON

Mrs. D. J. Cameron has entered upon her duties as matron at the county jail under an appointment made by Sheriff Stevens last summer. Her occupancy of the office was delayed until after the supreme court had passed on the tangle between the sheriff's office and the court, regarding the custody and keeping of the county jail birds. Mrs. Cameron will look after the welfare of women prisoners.

PERSONAL

Mrs. E. F. Beach and daughter, Sibyll, of Seattle arrived in the city yesterday and are visiting Miss Lida M. O'Bryon at 147 North Twenty-first street. Mrs. Beach is the wife of Dr. E. F. Beach, formerly connected with Messrs. Wise Brothers of this city. Before returning home Mrs. Beach will visit her mother, Mrs. George Melier, at Vancouver.

One Thousand Men, $1,000. From the New York Times. "If 1,000 men were to come in here and each one eat $1 worth, I would have just $1,000," said the manager of one of those restaurants where each person helps himself. "On the other hand, if I should feed 1,000 women and allow them to pick out their own checks, I might possibly have $500, but I doubt it. Every woman is a natural born cheat. It seems to me the sheriff's office and the court, regarding the custody and keeping of the county jail birds. Mrs. Cameron will look after the welfare of women prisoners."

When a Brave Was Not a Brave. From the New York Times. The afternoon performance was over at the Hippodrome and the audience had dispersed, when a lone Indian chief, in his feathers and war paint, wrapping his blanket about him, emerged from the building and started across Sixth avenue.

He glared fearfully up and down the crowded thoroughfare and waited for a gap between automobiles, so he could safely cross the street.

None appeared, and at last, tired of waiting, the brave, who so recently had performed great feats of valor on his mimic pig man's war, went to a policeman and put himself under his protection, to be ignominiously escorted by him in safety across the busy avenue.

A New Departure

The cost of interments has been greatly reduced by the Holman Undertaking company. Heretofore it has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidentals connected with a funeral. The Edward Holman Undertaking company, the leading funeral directors of Portland, have departed from that custom. When a casket is furnished by us we make no extra charges for embalming, hearse to cemetery, outside box or any services that may be required of us, except clothing, cemetery and carriages, thus effecting a saving of $25 to $75 on each funeral.
