HUSKY PLAYERS WHO BATTLE WITH OREGON TODAY.

WHITMAN WINS FOOTBALL CLUBMEN

Missionaries Score 14 Points to 5 for Multnomah Eleven.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Walla Walla, Oct. 24.—With the heaviest team in the history of the college lined up against the Multnomah club of Portland yesterday afternoon, Whitman won a decisive victory, scoring two drop kicks, a touchdown and a goal. Only once in the game did the clubmen cross the Missionaries' goal and that was at the opening of the second half, when Smith got away for a 20-yard run and Rader bucked the pigskin over. Rader failed at goal.

Continual fumbling on the part of Multnomah club aided the Missionaries in rolling up their big score. Otherwise the two teams were very evenly matched. Brubaker, Whitman's star quarterback, had an advantage over Rader in the punting game and kept his goal out of danger during the greater part of the game. In the plunging game Multnomah seemed to have a shade the better of the argument. Her touchdown was made on a straight football, while Whitman's points came from the ability of her quarter to drop kick, and the lucky pickup of a fumble by Dimick, who crossed the goal without obstruction.

Center Raised Sights.
It was during the middle of the first half that Multnomah had the mishap, and the winged "M" players had the spheroid on the collection's 15-yard line, where it was lost. Brubaker promptly punted out of danger to the middle of the field. Westover, who was playing quarter sustained a broken rib in the tackle and Smith was killed in Stott going from half to the pivotal position.

Fullback Rader signalled for a punt and Center Carlson shot the ball back two feet over the head. Taddeo Dimick broke through, caught up the ball and with nobody in the way, ran 25 yards for a touchdown, which was converted into a goal.

Captain Frank Lonergan of Multnomah stated after the game that fumbling offset all the advantages of the visiting team and had they been able to handle the ball more accurately there could have been one result.

Whitman's team averaged 174 pounds, while that of the Multnomah team was about 180 pounds. The game was fought toward the end of the game and heavy linemen paved the way for some good progress down the field. In the 10 yards of the game when Brubaker pulled off another drop kick, Brubaker's other kick was made in the first half.

Multnomah left for Portland last night.

KLAMATH TO HAVE RACES NEXT SUMMER

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Klamath Falls, Or., Oct. 26.—As a site for the Klamath county fair grounds 40 acres of the Reames tract, on the gliver below Klamath Falls, has been bought. It is two miles by wagon and ten minutes by boat from this city. It will be called Agricultural park. The fair will be held in first-class shape, ready for the race meet next fourth of July. A fine half-mile track will be built, also a grand-stand with a seating capacity of 2,000 people. The grounds will be torn down, and the best of the material used for the new buildings.

A decision on the part of the Agricultural association to place the fair grounds south of town, rather than on the upper lake, meets with the hearty approval of the farmers in the valley. It is the only logical place for it, and the river will add greatly to the advantages of the situation. Barges will be run regularly between this city and the fair grounds while the fair is in session.

It is proposed by the management to conduct the fair along lines similar to the Salem fair, keeping the pavilion open in the afternoon, with music and other attractions.

Football Games Today.

New York, Oct. 26.—So far as the eastern colleges are concerned the football games to be played today are not of great importance, being for the most part in the nature of practice games for the more important contests to come next month. On the athletic front, interesting probably will be the contest between the University of Pennsylvania and the Carlisle Indians at Philadelphia and the Naval Academy and Lafayette meet at Annapolis. West Point plays the University of Rochester and Princeton lines up against Harvard. At Springfield, Springfield Training school and Yale has a game on with Villanova college.

The most important game of the middle west will be those of Ohio State university and the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, Illinois and Wisconsin at Madison and Drake and Iowa at Iowa City. Chicago and Minnesota have no games scheduled.

In the south the old-time rivals, Virginia and North Carolina, play their annual game at Richmond today. Alabama and Georgia meet in Montgomery. The Naval Academy and Lafayette meet at Annapolis. West Point plays the University of Rochester and Princeton lines up against Harvard.

How can people with kidney trouble expect to get well on the ordinary patent medicines when the census deaths from kidney disease show that 92 out of every 100 of them die from a form of kidney trouble that was absolutely incurable up to the discovery of Fulton's Renal Compound?

That these diseases are now curable by the compounds discovered by Fulton is established here as well as in California.—Buffalo, N. Y., Daily Times.

Fulton's Renal Compound is the only thing in the world that purifies the bloodstream, cures the supposed incurable forms. All druggists.

KEENE OFFERS $150,000 FOR SAIN

Schreiber Wants Fortune for Stallion Bought as Selling Plater.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Cincinnati, Oct. 26.—A horse deal that will be the greatest ever known in America, if it is consummated, is pending between James R. Keene of New York and Barney Schreiber, Missouri's famous turfman.

Major Daingerfield, Keene's brother-in-law, has arrived at Cincinnati with the object of purchasing, for the New York millionaire's Cartleton farm in Kentucky, the imported stallion Sain, which has sired so many famous horses at Schreiber's establishment, near Bridgeton, Missouri. One hundred and fifty thousand dollars for Sain is the offer Mr. Keene's representative brought to Schreiber.

Two hundred thousand dollars is the price Schreiber asks Keene to pay for this remarkable horse.

Sain was picked up by Schreiber at the fair grounds in the valley. It is the only logical place for it, and the river will add greatly to the advantages of the situation. Barges will be run regularly between this city and the fair grounds while the fair is in session.

OREGON AND IDAHO FIGHT FOR VICTORY

Captain Moore and his lemon-yellow warriors feel confident of victory, and the same degree of confidence is expressed by Captain Elmer Armstrong and his team.

MURPHY WORKS ON STANFORD SHELLS

Cardinal Rowing Coach Will Reach University Late in November.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Stanford University, Cal., Oct. 26.—In a letter received from Dan Murphy by Captain L. R. Ray, the Cardinal rowing coach states that he will arrive here late in November. His first object is to complete the work of repairing the shells and barges and arranging the quarters for the use of the crew during the training season. The eight-oared shell has been stored in a San Francisco warehouse and will have to be thoroughly cleaned and revarnished before being placed in the water for the coming season. The four is at present in storage at the Stanford boathouse at Redwood, together with both of the barges and all these boats must have the same treatment this fall. It is probable the shells will provide the special building in Redwood city for this work.

The University of California list of eligibles for the varsity team has been received by Dr. Angell. There are 50 names, the same as Stanford, but it is noticeable fact that 14 of the men were members of this year's freshman team.

E. Kobbe and D. Caddagan won the freshmen doubles championship in tennis Wednesday afternoon. On account of the present wet weather it has not been decided when the remaining games of the class series will be played.

Twenty-eight names were entered, but on account of the sloppy condition of the streets only 19 took part in the race. The five winners were decorated with gold medals, presented on behalf of the association by Mayor Harry Lane.

Miss Martha Stengle, who guessed the time of the race, was awarded the handsome knife offered by Backus and Morris.

FOGO THE FUGITIVE GLAD HE'S ARRESTED

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Corvallis, Or., Oct. 26.—J. L. Fogo is in the county jail here, awaiting the arrival from Wisconsin of an officer who will take him back to Sparta to face a charge of attempt to murder. Fogo is 22 years of age and unmarried. He was employed with a wood saw west of town and when arrested, said he was glad to be over, as he had been fearful of pursuit and arrest and would rather go back and stand trial than worry over it longer. It seems that Fogo and another man in Wisconsin had trouble at a race track, Fogo shooting the other in the jaw. The shooting, according to the young man now in the Benton county jail, was done in self defense, and he feels certain of acquittal when brought to trial.

SCHOOL TEAMS IN FOURTH SCORELESS

Hill Academy and High School Add to Peculiar Football Condition.

Multnomah field was the scene of the fourth scoreless game yesterday, when Hill Military academy and West Side High school lined up for their first contest of the city league schedule. It was a hard fought game and neither team could claim any advantage over the other. The first half was slightly in favor of the high school, while in the second half, Hill seemed to have the better of it.

McEwan and Latourette, the two quarter-backs, ran their teams beautifully, and both were adept in the art of running in punts. Hastings, high school's captain, and Smead of Hill proved to be good ground gainers.

High school used a great many end runs and trick plays, depending but little on line bucking. Hill, however, used her heavy backs for continuous line smashes.

Hill won the kick, and High school chose to defend the north goal. Don-also kicked to Latourette on the ten-yard line, who, aided by splendid interference, ran the ball back to the center of the field. Neither side was able to make yardage consistently, so McKinley and Loomis settled down to a kicking game. The play never getting very far away from the center.

In the second half, Hill took a brace and, but for an unfortunate fumble of a forward pass, might have scored a touchdown. High school fell on the ball and Latourette punted out of the field, never getting very far away from the center.

The line-up was as follows:

Hill	High School
Shearer	 Gerapachy
Baker	 Donalson
McEwan	 Lawrence
Latourette	 Smith
Briggs	 Shearer
Merchant	 Hickson
McKinley	 Danbey
Smead	 Loomis
Donalson	 Meier
Head linesman	 Thorne
Timekeeper	 McAlpin

TWELVE MILES OF GRADE THROWN UP

C. & A. R. Will Have 14 Miles of Rails Down Very Soon.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Corvallis, Or., Oct. 26.—By tonight 12 miles of grading on the new Corvallis & Astoria river railroad will be completed. Material is arriving and enough rails will be here within the next few days to lay 15 miles of track. It is the purpose to complete as much grading as possible before the winter rains set in.

The work is progressing very favorably, according to President Carver, and the report that has been circulated by one of the state papers that the new road is owned by the Southern Pacific and is to be operated by the company is most emphatically denied by Mr. Carver.

The right of way will cost from $25,000 to $25,000 and it would be a necessary expense if the Southern Pacific were the owners. Another thing, the rails and ties would be much heavier than those being used for this line, which is destined to tap a rich timber belt and make good river connections with Portland.
