Honary and fair weather prevails every-where in the Rocky mountain and Pa-elfic states, except in extreme north-western Washington, where rain has fallen. The high pressure area which yesterday occupied the Ohio and lower Mississippi valleys has disappeared. The barometer is now falling quite rapidly over western Washington. It is much warmer in Montana and the Dakatas, and correspondingly cooler in the middle Atlantic and New England states.

The indications are for generally fair weather in this district tonight and Wednesday except in western Washing-ton, where cloudiness will increase and he followed by rain late tonight. It will be warmer Wednesday east of the Cancade mountains.
