Announcement is made of an examination to be held by the United States civil service commission in this city on November 27, to secure eligibles to fill November 27, to secure eligibles to fill 14 vacancies in the position of monotype machinist in the government printing office at Washington, D. C.—The positions pay 58% cents an hour. The commission also makes anonuncement of an examination to be held here December 4, to secure eligibles for appointment as civil engineers in the Philippine service. These positions paya minimum salary of $1,400. The civil service commission has experienced considerable difficulty in securing sufficient eligibles to meet the needs of the service, and qualified persons are urged to enter this examination.
