

SAYS CZAR IS DRUNKARD AND EASILY INFLUENCED

KELLOGG DURLAND RETURNS HOME

Was With Wallings When Authorities Arrested Them.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Boston, Mass., Nov. 7.—Kellogg Durland, a Boston student of social conditions, reached home from Europe Tuesday. He was detained for two days, two weeks ago, by Russian authorities in St. Petersburg, together with William English Walling, Mrs. Walling and Rose Strunsk. Durland evaded the Russian authorities just as he was about to be arrested and returned home. The Wallings left St. Petersburg soon after their release and are now in Berlin, where they will remain for a month, after which time they go to Paris for the winter.

Durland says that the czar is a drunkard, that he is influenced by spiritualists and fakers and that he consulted the noted mediums, Philippe and Father John, when he desired a son to be born as his heir. Durland asserts that the czar is stubborn rather than stupid.

TRIED TO WALK FLUME IN DARK

William M. Davis, Lumberman, Falls Near Skelly and Is Killed.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Drain, Or., Nov. 6.—William M. Davis, a lumberman residing near Skelly, about six miles southwest of here, fell from a high lumber flume in South Drain last night about 11 o'clock and was instantly killed. He and William Sweet returned last night from Cross county, where they had been at work all summer in logging camps. They tried to borrow a lantern in town, but not being able to find one started to walk to Skelly in the dark. They had walked only a few rods when the fatal accident occurred. Davis was about 40 years old. He leaves a wife and four daughters.

HENEY GETS CONTRACT FOR ALASKA RAILWAY

(United Press Leased Wire.) Seattle, Nov. 7.—M. J. Heney, the man who built the White Pass & Yukon railway from Skagway to Lake Bennett, has been awarded the contract to construct the Alaska-Guggenheim railroad, 26 miles of which must be ready for operation by the first of the year. The announcement is also made that Catalina has been abandoned, and that Cordova has been selected for the coast terminus.

Trustees Elected.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Pendleton, Or., Nov. 7.—At a special meeting of the board of trustees of the Pendleton academy five trustees were elected as follows: Dr. C. J. Smith, J. V. Tallman, and J. H. Kuntz, re-elected; Monte B. Gwin and G. M. Rice were elected to fill vacancies. Work on the boys' dormitory of the academy is progressing rapidly and the building will be ready for occupancy in a short time.

Many persons who can't drink coffee without lying awake at night, find Postum Food Coffee agrees with them perfectly.

The important thing is to boil the Postum at least 15 minutes so that its flavor and full food value may be obtained. When made right and taken hot with good cream and sugar to suit one's taste, Postum is delicious as Java coffee.

Made of wheat, it contains no drug or other harmful substance. Try Postum 10 days, while you leave off coffee with its drug, caffeine. There's a Reason.

APPLE FAIR IS HELD AT ALBANY

Governor Chamberlain Attends Opening of Linn County Fruit Exhibit.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Albany, Ore., Nov. 7.—Albany's Apple Fair was formally opened yesterday afternoon. Instead of having the afternoon lectures in the opera house as advertised the speakers on the program appeared in the exhibit rooms and spoke to the gathered horticulturists. After listening to an address of welcome, Hon. H. M. Williamson, secretary of the state board of horticulture, was introduced and spoke on fruit raising, giving special emphasis to the necessity of proper care and attention to the trees and the crop. The speaker was decidedly optimistic regarding Oregon's future as an apple-growing state and believes that the Willamette is peculiarly situated to enter the race for the reputation of producing the finest apples in the entire west.

Prof. A. B. Cordley, of the Oregon Agricultural college, was the next speaker and his theme was "The Fruit Inspector, His Relation to the Horticulturist." The session of the evening was made notable by the presence of Governor Chamberlain. Delegations from all portions of the county were present to hear the address of the governor, his utterances being received with great interest and enthusiasm. This is the former home of the governor. Good music was furnished this session by the Albany orchestra and the male quartet. Governor George E. Chamberlain, after speaking on the value of this industry to the state and the valley in general, and making a direct appeal for union of effort to bring the vast resources of this state to the forefront of the present straggle in the money market, financial situation and made a direct appeal to the public to exercise calmness, cool deliberation and judgment in the crisis, and thus assist in reestablishing the credit of the state and nation. He explained the situation in detail and showed the reason for the present stringency in the money market. He said that the credit of the nation was done on a credit basis and on account of the large surplus due the western banks by their eastern correspondents on which they were unable to realize at the present time the declaration of a series of holidays became a necessity.

MEDFORD'S GROWTH IS SHOWN BY POSTOFFICE

Annual Receipts Will Entitle City to Free Delivery Service in Future.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Medford, Ore., Nov. 7.—The growth and prosperity of Medford is strikingly shown in the receipts at the local postoffice. During the past year the business has increased 25 per cent, a fair estimate of the increase in the city's population during this period. For the last two years nearly every month has seen a steady increase over the month before and Medford bids fair to rank as the leading postoffice in southern Oregon and the first city to have carrier delivery.

The receipts for the year ending October 31 were as follows:

November, 1906	$ 622.71
December, 1906	922.27
Quarter ending Mar. 31, 1907	2,458.22
Quarter ending June 30, 1907	2,322.22
Quarter ending Sept. 30, 1907	2,630.00
Quarter ending Oct., 1907	1,238.00
Total	$12,244.02

This is the first time in the city's history that the postal receipts have reached the $10,000 for a year's business. This mark must be reached in order to entitle a place to free delivery service.

WHALING FLEET IS SAFE IN FAR NORTH

Five Vessels Supposed to Be Lost Are on Their Way to San Francisco.

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Nov. 7.—The five whaling vessels of the Pacific coast fleet which were thought to have been caught in the ice floes in the north, and for the safety of which and all on board grave fears were entertained by the whaling men of this city are safe and should arrive here shortly.

This whaling world was received today from Unalaska. The vessels are reported to be on their way to the open sea. For the past few days, since the arrival of the whaler Jennette at this port, when word was brought to the effect that the northern fleet was believed to be frozen in, every effort was put forth to get some word from Unalaska. It was known that if the vessels had escaped the ice pack, the people at Unalaska would be the first to learn of the fact. When hopes were beginning to drop and the whaling men of this city had decided that in the event of the failure of word to reach here from the whalers within the next couple of days, they would give them up for lost, a dispatch would give them up for lost, a dispatch was received in this city today telling of the safety of all five ships and the 225 men known to be aboard of them. The dispatch gives the whalers the following catch: Herman, 12 whales; Helena, 10; Belvedere, 6; Thrasher, 2, and William Bayless, 4.

THINKS SON SLAIN BY IMBECILE FOE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 7.—Frank Coker, aged 17 years, has been missing from his home at Thirty-fifth and T streets for five days and his frantic mother charges that the youth was murdered by Mark Vanslike, a half-witted man who had quarreled with young Coker and sworn to kill him. Mrs. Coker has reported her son's mysterious disappearance and her suspicions implicating Vanslike to the police. Strangely coupled with the going of the youth is the fact that Vanslike left for Indiana the day following the disappearance of his youthful enemy.

TEACHERS' RIGHTS AS TO HOLIDAYS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Olympia, Wash., Nov. 7.—The attorney-general's office, through Assistant Attorney-General Alexander, has addressed an important ruling to the state school superintendent on the right of school teachers to receive pay for holidays or vacation time, and also the right of the directors to insist upon a contract with the teacher for "150 days" of teaching, or "nine school months." The attorney-general's office holds, in effect, that teachers are entitled to pay for holidays, and that contracts should be made by months instead of days. Thus, nine school months would be considered to mean a period of nine months, although the deduction of Sun-

A Lazy Liver

May be only a tired liver, or a starved liver. It would be a stupid as well as a savage thing to beat a weary or starved man because he lagged in his work. So in treating the lagging, torpid liver it is a great mistake to lash it with strong drastic drugs. A torpid liver is but an indication of an ill-nourished, enfeebled body whose organs are weary with overwork. Start with the stomach and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Put them in working order and see how quickly your liver will become active. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made many marvelous cures of "liver trouble" by its wonderful control of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores the normal activity of the stomach, increases the secretions of the blood-making glands, cleanses the system from poisonous accumulations, and so relieves the lives of the burdens imposed upon it by the defection of other organs.

If you have bitter or bad taste in the morning, poor or variable appetite, coated tongue, foul breath, constipated or irregular bowels, feel weak, easily tired, dependent, frequent headaches, pain or distress "small of back," gnawing or distressed feeling in stomach, perhaps nausea, "burning" or "rising" in throat after eating, and kindred symptoms of weak stomach and torpid liver, no medicine will relieve you more promptly or cure you more permanently than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Perhaps only a part of the above symptoms will be present at one time and yet point to torpid liver or biliousness and weak stomach. Avoid all hot bread and biscuits, griddle cakes and other indigestible food and take the "Golden Medical Discovery" regularly and stick to its use until you are vigorous and strong.

The "Discovery" is non-secret, non-alcoholic, is a glyceric extract of native medicinal roots with a full list of its ingredients printed on each bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. Its ingredients are endorsed and extolled by the most eminent medical writers of the age and are recommended to cure the diseases for which it is advised. Don't accept a substitute of unknown composition for this non-secret medicine. Know your medicine.

AWAY AGAIN ON PILOT ROCK LINE

Superintendent Buckley, at Pendleton, Makes Glad Announcement.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Pendleton, Or., Nov. 7.—Superintendent M. J. Buckley and other railroad officials who were here yesterday morning stated that Division Engineer William Bellows would at once commence work on the balance of the Umatilla Central, three miles, which was ordered stopped a short time ago under the Harriman re-arrangement. They also stated that the O. R. & N. had resumed the depositing of cash in local banks at the rate of $1,000 per day in Pendleton and $10,000 will be deposited daily in eastern Oregon banks. There had been some complaint here of sending money to larger points. Human shoes keep your feet dry.

FIGHT BATTLE IN MAZE OF MACHINERY

(United Press Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, Nov. 7.—Amid whirling and flying machinery and flying wheels two men fought a battle with fists that might at any moment have terminated in horrible death for one or both of them yesterday. William Curry, a driver, and William Cottle, engineer of a dye works, became involved in a dispute and Cottle fouled the driver with a board. Then began a furious battle within two steps of the monster fly-wheel of the engine. Both forgot their danger as they swayed and wrestled about the room. Once Cottle nearly fell into the whirling maze of the flywheel. Curry put out his hand to ward himself off and his fingers were broken. Cottle fell against a rod and was badly bruised.
