HE week has been a quiet one, as the reaction from the constant coming and going in connection with the horse show of the previous week. There has been one large bridge party, a large tea and a conversasione, and that was practically the extent of last week's entertaining There is a good deal of interest shown in the coming Thanksgiving social fund-There will be the usual large family reunion dinners The Ladd famlly is siways entertained by Mrs. W. S. Ladd, and the Lewis families are entertained together. The two large func tions that are commanding interest among their respective admirers are the Multnomah club entertainment at the fair grounds and the University of Oregon dance at Muriark hall. Both will be largely attended. The announcement of the engagement of Arno Dosch of this city and Miss Elaie Sperry of San Francisco has caused a flutter of excitement among his friends. Mr. Dosch had many friends here and was popular with the younger set. He has been markedly successful in his literary work, as a graduate of Harvard and a son of Colonel and Mrs. Dosch who have an attractive suburban home at Hillsdale. Miss Sperry is a member of a family so well and widely known in California that their fame has reached California that their fame has reached portland and it need hardly be told that they are one of the wealthlest, eldest and most influential families in their part of the state, that the bride elect is beautiful and accomplished and widely traveled, and is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crocker and the Princess Poplatowski
