

EDITORIAL PAGE OF THE JOURNAL

THE JOURNAL

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER. Published every evening (except Sunday) an every Sunday morning at The Journal Building, Fifth and Yambili streats, Portiand On fintered at the postoffice at Portland. Or ...

TELEPHONE-MAIN 7178. departments reached by this number he are after the department for want. FORES A ADVODADADED HET BESENTATIVE *(w.1a; Advertising Agency rd .25 Fifth avenue, New ting Chicago.

pecially directed to that region prior to his appointment, and his idea of it is a common one in the east, and is frequently voiced by leading pawas a ploneer in church work in the Pacific northwest, the son's ignorance regarding his new field is a little surprising.

The New York World said: "Sub stituting the dress of a cowpuncher their reckless feet in the narrow path." And the new histor is quoted by that paper as saying riding around and preaching to rough men. It will be totally different from my experience here My office will be in the saddle, for I will not have a fixed residence.

new bishop's ignorance of that country, which he evidently supposes is the ultimathule of semi-civilization, and inhabited by rude semi-barbarfans. But he will soon learn betold cattlemen" are frequently as suave and polished as New York plu-

THE FIGHT IN MILWAUKIE. this evening to organize a good government league, and to nominate a ticket to be them, will endeavor to elect a mayor and council who will perform that duty and relieve their town of the odium now resting upon it.

good government league not only asserts that the alleged improvements and benefits to accrue from HE following from President breeds of dogs might help out in the existence of the gambling joint have not been realized, but perti-

a business proposition. Do you republishing in this space, and years to come, but the canal bonds think it pays to be burdened with a reading and remembering and acting are all right just the same, as long and through this shattered mortal tent urged to reside in Milwaukie or to it is excellent counsel even now:

and perform the part of progressive, intion the money they are hoarding.

THOROUGHBRED STOCK.

HE Corvallis Times says: "Benergies to breeding fancy horses. First they handled Percherons, but last year they added Belgian and German Coach classes to their stalls. Now, however, they intend to deprogressive spirit that has charac-"I will be a skypilet out there, perized their well-known attention to ment is very commendable and en- Pacific raliroad in the state of couraging. There is no better state Washington alone during the past for the raising of thoroughbred year were almost $20,000,000, stock of all kinds than Oregon. This state is said not to have its equal rest of the stockholders in good hufor breeding fine-wool sheep, and mor for Thanksgiving. But it is to certainly no better horses or cattle be observed that while Mr. Harcan be raised anywhere. Such stock riman, who is making millions out is profitable, though it takes capital of his roads in Oregon, is spending to make a start in raising it, and no more money than possible in this ers we expect that within another decade state, Mr. Hill is spending millions or two Oregon will become famous in building a new line in Washingtocrats, and a good deal broader- per-excellent livestock. Those who Oregon too.

customed, with a lot of pure life- ley are especially adapted to the culgiving ozone and sincere open-heart- ture of these nuts, which once the office in a saddle and ministered thy Many walnut orchards have already to complete the new building is waukie will hold a meeting not very rapidly, because most farmers cannot afford to wait'so long for returns from their land; but many who can spare the income from a landowners must keep their land producing something salable every supply ever becoming sufficient to throughout thousands of acres of walnut orchards in the beautiful!

READ AND REMEMBER.

Cortelyou, replying to the sec-"Consider the gambling house as the financial situation," is worth canal, nor a prospect of any for think good men will hesitate when have been better if said earlier, but

"What is most needed just now is the slightest breath of hesitation that our citizens should realize how will kill a real estate trade nine fundamentally sound business contimes out of ten. Every day of ditions in this country are and how peration of the gambling house absurd it is to permit themselves to Milwaukie has lost and is losing get into a panic and create strin- that there is no room in them for highsome of the elements that go to gency by hoarding their savings inmake up a good, ordinary American stead of trusting perfectly sound

November 30 of that year there and rulned by this body of fair knock such tremendous upheavals as those of this November in certain sections, cannot fair; they were frumps, the most of effect upon the balance of the country. fullest guarantee of the sound conton county is going more and dition of our people and the sound each man will act as he normally of the country's business fully warrant his now acting."

The matter of constructing a which should put Mr. Hill and the not collapse if it over-issued a little

If Madame Anna Gould, nix Casellane, marries another count worse than Boni, let her look our lest she trouble enough with the rest of the snaps the Oregonian. Meaning that the quantity of gold makes no dif that that of free silver. There is

If it comes to issuing clearing-of or an adjunct to the police department is being discussed in a number of cities. Even common Roosevelt's letter to Secretary some cities that we have heard of.

retary's proposal to "relieve e There is no water in the Panama blackened reputation? Don't you upon by every citizen. It would as Uncle Sam promises redemption.

Women Who Are Knockers

By Carolyn Prescott.

Of all the excuses that have been made for women knockers the best, I believe, is the one that says they knock ecause their minds are small-so small er, better thoughts. Gossip is what they know, and, therefore, gossip is all they like, gossip is all they know, and, therefore, gossip is all they do: Gossip is twin sister to knocking, though not quite so vindictive in its character. Did you ever listen to a regular ham-merfest when it was at its height? It is a liberal education in itself. I have listened time after time to these soirces; fact, I worked in the midst of one r two years once upon a time. Knockwoman's character or gossip away her reputation as blithely and airlly as they discuss a new gown or the

It is accomplished by insinuation has already been shown. The bushnederhanded methods. Oh, the rep. Interests of the United States are tations that have been picked to pieces intertwined and so interdependent, that of the girls who didn't belong their circle met a man and walked if a block with him, out came the maluld knock. One of the girls, a regular beauty. who had been so carefully reared that she had a mind above gossip, was their particular target. This was because she was, as I have said, carefully reared. She was a beauty and a favorite with everybody except this band of knockers. They were jealous of course tealous of grains and supplies the approach of the holidays. The chief observed were jealous of course tealous of grains and supplies the approach of the holidays is to prevent the were jealous, of course; jealous of beauty, her pretty clothes (which) he way, were made at home by her way, were made at home by her). They were even jealous of her mocked her cetty eastern accent, and mocked her grew and levery one

Are you one of these women knockers? The habit is easy to acquire and not for the lust of acquiring are some of the seasy to acquire and not for the lust of acquiring are some of the lessons the American people and not for the lust of acquiring are some of actions the prime purpose of the holidays unkind things about people, stop it at once before you join that everlasting throng. Nice people do not intake the world must learn, before the stability and integrity of business and financial institutions can be realized.

This lidea of conservatism, of honest productiveness and honest living, cannot be legislated into existence. Any purely financial laws passed by special or regular session of congress, can give but temporary relief. It is only the slow process of education that can bring about this sunity, truthfulness and earnestiness on a legal holiday is conserved. It is only the filing of actions the prime purpose of the holidays is not defeated. The supreme claims it will be seen that by the filing of actions the prime purpose of the holidays is not defeated. The supreme claims it will be seen that by the filing of actions the prime purpose of the holidays is not defeated. The supreme claims that the stable it will be seen that by the filing of actions the prime purpose of the holidays is not defeated. The supreme claims that the stable it will be seen that by the filing of actions the prime purpose of the holidays is not defeated. The supreme claims that the stable it will be seen that by the filing of actions the prime purpose of the holidays is not defeated. The supreme claims the world must learn, before the stable it will be seen that by the filing of actions the prime purpose of the holidays is not defeated. The supreme claims the will be seen that by the filing of actions the prime purpose of the holidays is not defeated. The supreme claims the will be seen that by the filing of actions the prime prime purpose of the holidays is not defeated. The supreme claims the will be seen that by the filing of ac was $904,000,000 of gold in the was $904,000,000 of gold in the lishop of London, became curate of legister school. Subsequently, he entered the ministry by the men with a better knowledge of the world and humanity than is possessed by a like number in an eastern town; and in a word nearly all the comforts and conveniences of life to which he may have been accurated, with a subsequent of the ministry by the come famous for. The subsequent of the ministry by the comforts and conveniences of life to which he may have been accurated with a subsequent of the ministry by the comforts and conveniences of life to which he may have been accurated with a subsequent of life to which he may have been accurated with a subsequent of legister school. Subsequently, he entered Christ's college, Cambridge, and after being ordained to the ministry by the man with a better knowledge of the was $904,000,000 of gold in the Utited States treasury, says the president. And business yelling for a subsequently he entered Christ's college, Cambridge, and after being ordained to the ministry by the ministry by the ministry by the ministry by the subsequently he entered Christ's college, Cambridge, and after being ordained to the ministry by the ministry head-master of Hellmuth Boys' college at London, Ontario. He was appointed a canon of the London cathedral in 1875, and later was named Archdeacen of Brant. In 1872 the Bishop of Huron made him his examining chaplain, and, in the same year, he was edected cler-leal secretary of the discess and secre-tary to the house of hishops. On the death of Bishop Bethune he was elected to succeed him as third bishop of Toronto, his consecration taking place in Toronto, May 1, 1879. He was a delegate to the Lambeth conference in 1888 tensive that they demand the existence

This Date in History. 1558-Sir Humphrey Gilbert's first xpelltion sailed to found a colony in America. 1703-The 'Man in the Iron Mask' died in the Bastlie. 1794—Jay's treaty between the United States and Great Britain signed. 1796-French under Bonaparte de-1.76—French under Bonaparte de-fented the Austrians at Arcola. 1804—Alexander Meuton, Acadian gov-ernor of Louisiana, horn. Died Feb-ruary 12, 1882. 1863—The National Soldiers' cemetery lettysburg dedicated. 71—The Grand Duke Alexis arrived 1874-British Immigrant ship Cospatburned at sea, with loss of 1583-Standard time adopted throughout Canada. 1898 - General Don Carlos Buell died. Born March 23, 1818.

Old Mr. Sunny.

Old Mr. Sunny wears the kind Of clothes they were long, long ago, And when the days are fair you'll find Him walking with his head bent low. He pauses every little while To put some malden's rosy cheek Or watch the boys at play, and smile To see them run and hear them

Old Mr. Sunny's hair is white,
Itut often you may see him stop
With Something of a child's delight,
To help some boy to spin a top.
And often, leaning on his cane,
He seems to dream there in the street,
Then blittiely trudges on again
And his visions had been sweet As if his visions had been sweet,

Old Mr. Sunny's name will ne'er Because a maiden ites somewhere The use of bloodhounds as a part

As, "grandpa" hails him lovingly.

And if SHE knows she must be glad.

In Perspective.

The little griefs, the petty wounds, The stabs of daily care— "Crackling of therns - now cold, now How hard they are to bear!

But on the fire burns, clear and still; The cankering sorrow dies; The small wounds heal, the clouds are

-Dinah Mulock Craik

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Gambling Responsible for the Crash. | tection or free trade, bimetalism or free trade, bimetalis The Journal: The developments of the in large measure made the issue himsel past few days is financial centers have and one of the greatest services which he can render to his country, is the promotion of the abolition or at least more, with the problems of a business the radical reformation of the stock exor financial crisis.

It is, or should be, far from the in tention or desire of any citizen to give expression to any pessimistic opinion which would work in any degree, a lessening of public confidence in the stayou ever listen to a regular hain bility of our legitimate business inthe sound, conservative, legitimate business of our country, not only of the west, but of the east, north and south centers. The fallacy, however, of atweather.

They did it by suggestion, ugly, un-beautiful suspicion, for your knocker is always a coward at heart. He or she nover comes out bravely with a criti-tism. It is accomplished by insinuation has already been shown. The business can be no question but that the X-rays of Theodore Roosevelt's fearlessness and honesty, the disclosures made by Nothing was too sacred for them search of Ida M. Tarbell, have done attack—marriage, divorce, love, remuch to educate the American people to a realization of the real seat of the better net. It didn't matter what, setting evil of their business world. It so that it was something they is not an insufficient circulating median that is the germ of our business and dishonest gam-

> the world, those who earn a legitimate to levy it, you defeat the prime pur-living and a modest competence, these men and women are not now and never "The county clerk has no right to open rectly, of financial crises. The circulat-ing medium of the country is sufficient for their needs, indeed that medium and its constant normal increase is and can all time to come. It is the illegitimate This demand, the abnormal demand that can-secret, not be met and that demand never can be met. So long as "fremied finance" $1,000,000,000 and so increase the burden ing medium, over and above the re-quirements of actual, honest business, Banks by that amount, why may they not in drafts and the like are payable on de not so continue, until no circulating meliving and of the stock exchange and kindred in-stitutions. It is the machinery of the stock exchange that makes possible the combinations and operations that have almost invariably been the excuse of almost invariably been the excuse of our financial crises. In our municipalities and states, we abolish gambling halls and gambling devices, because they breed diseased minds and crime and because they divert money from legitimate channels. The stock exchanges should come under the same ban. They are not assembled to actual business in different purpose. The issuance or so different purpose. The issuance or so any sense. Their operations are so ex-tensive that they demand the existence in New York and Chicago slone, of the bulk of the actual circulating money of the country. Their operations are so insidious and so planned, that they gov-ern the value of our stocks and securities, industrial and otherwise, by their when the earning capacity of stock alone controls its value, because stocks will then be bought as investments and not as speculations and in order to make corporate stocks attractive as investnents, the capitalization will be kept ow in order to make the dividends pro-ortionately high, and capitalizations will be increased, only as earning capacitles, or the possibility of earning ca-pacities, increase to the point where returns will warrant the issuance of more

Should the manifulations of operators on change be allowed to depreciate or destroy the value of our railroad stocks. destroy the value of our railroad stocks, to close our mines, to raise or lower the value of any stock or product at their will, regardless of the earning power of those roads, or of the legitimate business demand for the output of those mines, or for other products? Must the money of all the banks of the country and of the government itself he called and of the government itself, he called upon time after time to come to the re-lief of stricken stockbrokers, gamblers? Theodore Roosevelt has struck the keyote of our recurring financial crises and of our industrial and social instability. Dishonest business—the get-rich-quick idea—are the fundamental evils; the machinery that spreads that cyll is found in the stock exchange. Close these blves of the drones of society and these hives of the drones of society and throw the machinery into the streets. If it he true that some good purposes are served by the stock exchange, as, for instance, as advertising mediums through which the earning capacities of stocks and securities may be realized upon or sold by legitimate holders to legitimate investors, these same purposes can be retained, or can be served by other devices, which the brains of by other devises, which the brains of honest men can readily conceive. Let the stockbroker and gambler leave the ticker and come to the fields of the west, the forest and mines of the Pacific coast and of Alaska. Let these consumers of money become producers. Let the banks of the west promote the industries of the west. The financial game has divorced itself in too sreat measure from actual, constructive business and has wedded the goddess of hanges, as one of the remedies for the evils he has himself disclosed.

MARTIN WATROUS.

Holidays and the Courts.

Hillsboro, Or., Nov. 17 .- To the Editor of The Journal-The question, "What business may legally be transacted on stitutions. There can be no doubt that a holiday?" and the many diverging answers that have been published have rendered the situation bewildering in the extreme. It seems to me that under the Oregon statutes transactions which that are purely ministerial may be performed, together with certain judicial acts which are enumerated, the only difficulty arising from an attempt to decide what acts are purely ministerial and what are judicial.

hibited is lawful and all transactions ers! No, I will take it back. They were not fair; they were frumps, the most of them.

If a girl had particularly pleasing manners, was pretty or attractive, they manners, was pretty or attractive, they sations regarding her would put a finish to her success. If one of their number received a raise in salary, had a stroke of good fortung, came out in a new dress or a new hat, they got their bammers out and the anvil chorus got to work.

Chis November in terms of the country is more effect upon the balance of the country is more courts shall not be opened on any judicial business transacted on a holiday, except such as is specified. Ministerial to a realization that something is wrong for which the country and its not responsible. There can be no question but that the X-rays of Theolore Roosevelt's fearlessness and the interest of the country.

It is true that the country is more decided, we are the very dical business transacted on a holiday, except such as is specified. Ministerial to a realization that something is wrong for which the country and its therefore lawful. Contracts may be entered into, deeds, mortgages, bills, notes and other instruments of like character may be executed, as these transactions are purely ministerial. No one will claim that a clerk or recording in filing and recording instruments renot within the statutory prohibitions may be carried on as on any other day. In Oregon the statute provides that courts shall not be opened nor any ju-dicial business transacted on a hollin filing and recording instruments re quired to be recorded by the recording quired to be recorded by the recording acts, performs a judicial function; his acts in this capacity are ministerial and therefore lawful. The filing of an action, in my judgment, during the

The farmer who sows and resps our grains and supplies the essentials of life, the laborer in the factories, in mines, mills, factories, on railroads and in the forest and field, the producers of listerial to swear out an attachment, and have been the cause, directly or indi-rectly, of financial crises. The circulat-cretion to stand and say that this instrument is ministerial and that this stringency.

other one is judicial. I do not dispute that a judge may hear arguments durafter the holidays, but the filing ques-tion is the gist of the whole matter. seizing of goods there is no middle deposit ground. None of these acts can legally ployes.

be done. The argument "if you say it is minis terial to swear out an attachment, and to levy it, you defeat the prime purpose commenced and maintained on accrued True, the chief object of the esting upon the circulating or liquidat- debts, to protect our banks from the me medium, over and above the re- enforced payment of their obligations. maintained only on claims that matured prior to the holidays. Banks can re-fuse payment of all checks, drafts and other negotiable instruments where de-mand is made and the instruments mavalue. Sanity of living, mand is made and the street with ture during the holidays, without being the holidays, without being extent at least, curb the spirit of gambling, by destroying some of the gambling machinery. If the get-rich-quick idea, if gambling and dishonesty are admittedly an evil, then it must be evident that one of the greatest menaces to the welfare of this country's moral, social and business life, is the existence of the stock exchange and kindred it. tention would have been employed. If the transaction of all legal business was are now completed. forbidden on such days, as is the case in some states, we would grant that the order in question would be void; but different purpose. The issuance or servfree of legal process, such as a summons, execution or writ of attachment, is merely a ministerial act, and therefore is not within the inhibition of the section of the statute, and is valid al though done on a legal holiday."

The courts of New Jersey, Wisconsin and Michigan have likewise held that a ties, industrial and otherwise, by their manipulations therein. Investors in legitimate stocks have a right to demand that the value of those stocks shall be governed by the earning capacity of the properties which those stocks represent and not by the question as to who shall control the majority of the stock in any corporation, not by the demand for the stock on any 'change. Watered sotck will disappear to a great degree when the earning capacity of stock when the earning capacity of stock.

Where the Sun Goes Down.

Wall street has got th' jimjams an' is writhin now in pain.
But, glory be, we of th' west has got our hogs an' grain!
We're feelin' purty bully, an' we ain't got nary fear—
It may be dark in Wall stret, but out

Got a cellar full o' taters! Molly, put th' kittle on! Smokehouse full o' hams an' bacon; fears o' panic dead an' gone.

Wall street full o' fear an' tremble,
but our fears are set at rest
By th' bumper crops we gathered in the fair an' boundless west.

Glory, Halleluja, brother! We've fear of reefs an rocks; fear of reefs an' rocks; Got th' crops all safely garnered—don't depend on watered stocks. Join the chorus, everybody; got enough for all our needs, An' we laugh 'cause Wall street got it right where Cora wore her beads.

-Will M. Maupin in the Commoner.

Decidedly Realistic.

From the Philade.phia Record. Wiggs-Scribbler's new novel is very realistic, don't you think so? Waggs-Yes, indeed. When I came to The great issue before the people is a six-page description of a y not Republicanism or Democracy, pro-chasm it actually put me to sleep

Small Change

Only lawyers and doctors make it pay o give advice.

Some scrip in one's purse is a good deal better than nothing.

It is better than nice for Oregon men to be known by their fruits.

Silence is sometimes mistaken for wisdom, but often it is wisdom.

On the financial situation, the president is eminently sane and safe.

But there are worse places: eggs are o cents a dozen in Sau Francisco.

The golden wheat is good to eat, And for security it

Nobody has yet accused the clearing ouse certificates of having microbes

Back east people are beginning to look out for blizzards. It is different in

The president will also reluctantly onsent to let another star be added to the fing

If Mr. Rockefeller would hand over that $29,400 000 fine, it would help a little just now. If Oklahoma were to issue coins it would use for a motto: In our constitution we trust The time of year approaches when, as the boy remarked it gets late very early-also early late.

It seems to be a wrong arrangement that the older a person gets the more trouble he has, as a rule.

It would be quite a job to pure-food cold storage eggs in Chicago southern Oregon men who have both fine orchards and flocks of fat tur-John W. Gates returned to New York last week, but how many millions he brought over to bet with it is not "No financial trouble here; business all right; everybody prosperous and no body worried." is the substance of re ports in the papers of most towns in A hen was found in a California bank vault, where she had been locked up over night. But not having laid an egg yet, the bank was not relieved of its The Condon Times understands that the depositors of the Oregon Trust & Savings bank are to play a football game with the depositors of the Title Guarantee & Trust company. A more exciting game might be one between the The Astoria Budget tells of a bark that came up close enough to the lightthat came up close enough to the lightship to say through a megaphone that two of its men were disabled and it wanted a tug right away to bring the vessel in, but "a heavier fog bank dropped down and nothing more was seen of her, even her name not being learned" Some ship masters have the impression that tugs are for use only in clear, calm weather.

Oregon Sidelights

Farmers around La Grande hold hay at $18 or $19 a ton.

Freewater has no marshal or police-

Business prospering at Athena, with A Gilliam county man sold 300 2-year-

Eugene merchants are selling an unusual amount of woodchopping tools. Very fine apples are also raised up on Agates by the tens of thousands were thrown up on Agate beach last Thursday and Friday, says the Port Orford Coyote pelts and not cashier checks are being used by the First bank of Pliot Rock, says the Record. They are worth $1.50 each.

River railway has been going on quite rapidly of late and 13 miles of the line struction, while one store and two plan-ing mills are either building or prepar-ing to build, says the Wallowa News. berries, r w blossoms, green leaves and multi-colored leaves of autumn all on one twie, are what an Ashland woman picked last week. More people are coming to Brownsville and vicinity to make a permanent home than ever before. One hardly realizes i'e substantial growth that our population is receiving, says the Times. The slowest kind of an ox team would he swift over the present mail service, says the Springfield News. Eugene is but three miles and Junction 14, yet to get an answer from a letter to either place it takes 33 hours.

A Klamath man, hauling noies, walked white driving his team, and when attempting to change the lines to the other hand the wagon slid down and caught his arm between the poles and a tree, where it was firmly held until the tree was cut down. His arm was broken in three places in three places., . .

A Lane county man who came to Eugene to attend his brother's funeral dis-appeared, and was found later covered with blood and his clothes badly torn.

Their stocks are full o' water, but our stock is full o' hay;

An' while Wall street's feelin' fearful we are feelin' blythe an' gay.

We are gettin' bigger daily—stand aside an' give us room!

Way out west th' sun is shinin' even if Wall street's in gloom!

We won't feel a sin-We won't feel a single tremor if all frenzied finance stops.
For we're far above their panic on a mountain top o' crops.
Hogs an' steers are growin' fatter an' our bins are full o' wheat.
An' it tickles us amazin' as we watch the frantic "street."

with the big charges it has been making the railroad company recently gave the rai

Taft.

Mightly of beam and stretching, fore and aft,
From here to yonder; and, though lithe of joint, Taking some time to pass a given

Behold that trim leviathan, Bill Taft. The Lusitania of the statesman craft. By spendthrift nature weightily en-

To stamp out treason and to sit on graft; He's not one patriot, but a mergered crowd. Both earth and ocean for his flag he's plowed: His shoulders lift a mountain range of care. Well may his friends proclaim, in accents loud, That he could fill the presidential chair.

He could fill the presidential chair.
He could and more; for him 'twould be but sport
To fill the presidential davenport.

George Fitch in Collier's Weekly.