TODAY'S MARKETS

"There Is no Lack of Business Along Front Street," Says George Pearson of Pearson-Page Company.

ONION MARKET RULING LOWER

Growers Selling at Reduction With Small Call—Potatoes Off.

Produce market features:
Millfeeds are very firm.
Potatoes are lower.
Lower prices in onions.
Eggs are being boosted.
Five cars bananas arrive.
Turkey market has not started.
Excellent call for geese.
Chicken trade good at price.
Dressed hogs are very slow.
Hop deals are being made.

Lower Prices for Onions.

Even though the Confederated Onion Growers' association members are good holders of onions, even at this time, the market is lower owing to the greater offerings by outside producers. Along the street a number of purchases of first-class onions were made by shippers and commission merchants at $1.50 and $1.75 per hundred pounds; the latter for quality, the best. In the south there is a demand for Oregon onions but sales are impossible at this time at the figures quoted by the members of the Confederated association. The California markets prefer Oregon onions to stocks grown at other places that will not pay more than 25c premium over what onions can be obtained for in other sections. It is stated that eastern onions can be easily landed in the south under the figures asked for Oregon stock.

Potatoes Are Ruling Down.

There is an entire absence of business offering in the potato market as far as southern shipment is concerned. Local growers while anxious to sell do not seem to be willing to let go at lower figures. Shippers cannot do business at the present price because of the lower figures in the south. Even then there is but a small demand for Oregon stock in California for the moment because of the glut of home shipments.

Five cars of bananas arrived in this morning.

Turkey Market Has Not Started.

No real start has thus far been made by the local turkey market. Receipts are increasing but trade is not very brisk. The general price along the street today for dressed stock is 18c a pound, while culls would sell a fraction lower. For selected stock a fractional advance may be obtained but this latter is not likely because the trade believes in lower prices and unless the arrivals are much short of what has been expected the trade will not buy.

On this account there is a greater demand for geese and live birds are selling at 12c a pound with receipts not up to demand. In the chicken market there is a very good tone ruling at the moment but at former prices. The trade will not pay over 12c for hens.

Boosters are at work in the egg market again. Along the street the highest figure obtained for strictly fresh and selected ranch eggs is 37½c a dozen with some sales of local stock a fraction under this. One dealer experienced no difficulty in buying local eggs from the trade yesterday at 36c so the stories of 40c are spread just for the purpose of inducing larger sales of eastern eggs at advanced figures. The market for eastern eggs is quite fair here at 26c for the best but the trade will not pay an additional 15c a dozen for local eggs. The difference is too great.

Hop Deals Are Being Made.

During the past 24 hours several hundred bales of hops were purchased by short sellers at prices ranging from 5 to 7c a pound; the latter for best. Orders are again coming from the east, but the volume is not large. Shorts are covering their transactions at their leisure for they say that growers are quite willing to let hops go at about half the price it cost to raise them. No new cables have been received from Tacoma of late, this giving rise to the impression that trade in hops is really improving abroad.

Brief Notes of the Trade.

Dressed hogs are slower than ever. Arrivals too liberal.

Fancy veal is wanted but trade is not so anxious. Better receipts the cause.

Spanish grapes are arriving more freely and are being quoted at $7.50 a barrel.

Davenport Bros. report in arrivals of crab apples. This is the latest this fruit has ever been received in this market. Stocks came from eastern Multnomah. Nominal demand around 3c a pound.

California tomatoes are in larger arrival. Quality quite good. Priced at $1.35 a crate of four baskets.

Millfeed market is holding very firm at top quotations. Supplies not liberal.

Wheat trade is small but at former prices. Nothing doing in export flour. Local trade is fair.

Portland Union Stockyards, Nov. 21.—No hogs arrived today and consequently there is no change in values. Weakness continues in the east and prices there drop almost every day.

Cattle are steady and the trade is of the opinion that values will go no lower than at present. Some are expecting a slight advance as soon as the present run is over.

Sheep are again steady with quite a fair run in the yards today.

A year ago today all lines were steady.

Chicago, Nov. 21.—The wheat market opened higher for December and May and lower for July and September. It gathered considerable weakness during the day, closing ½ to 1⅜c under yesterday. The close showed a reversal of the weakness—the greatest losses being in the options that opened with an advance.

A special bearish feature today was the reduction of the estimated consumption. Broomhall of Liverpool cabled that he had reduced his former estimate of the world's wheat requirements by 50,000,000 bushels. This action is taken because of the high prices.

Argentine shipments of wheat were 400,000 bushels; corn, 1,500,000 bushels.

Primary receipts:

	—Bushels— Today.	Year Ago.
Wheat	683,000	761,000
Corn	292,000	381,000
Shipments:
Wheat	914,000	124,000
Corn	154,000	346,000

Clearances—Wheat, 608,000 bushels; corn, 296,000 bushels; oats, 14,000 bushels.

The Record-Herald says: "Slim export trade along with further weakness in the stock market, is combining for lower wheat prices. Bullish news on wheat is plentiful, but is generally discouraged. The trade was sluggish all day under the weight of wheat that has been sold here by northwestern grain the day previous. The consensus of opinion at the close last night was that with the present conditions continuing there is little prospect for any foreign sales in the immediate future. Bids are generally out of line, and while the seaboard reported 55 loads taken for export in all positions, the best informed and leading exporters do not believe sales were in excess of 15 loads.

STORY OF FINANCE.
Banks can use issue.
New York stocks break.
London lower for Americans.
Erie has low mark.
Money is tighter.

(Leased Wire Overbeck & Cooke Co.)

New York, Nov. 21.—The stock market opened generally lower, with money higher. Liquidation began at the start of the session and continued until the news came out that the treasury department has decided officially that the new 3 per cent certificates are legally available as security for national bank circulation when they are registered. This news brought on a small amount of short covering and some improvement was noted in a few of the issues late in the session.

The hardening of call loans probably had more to do with the depression in stock market values today than anything else. Calls ruled around 12 per cent at the start, and then for a while there were none offered at any price. Later some was for sale around 15 per cent.

A new low mark was made today by Erie common, which went down to 12⅛. The first preferred was badly depressed, losing 4⅝ points during the day. The general list closed lower. London was generally down for Americans.

NO NOODLES FOR PENDLETON BOYS

City Council Prohibits Restaurants From Serving Youths Under 18.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Pendleton, Or., Nov. 21.—The city code was enlarged through the passage of three more ordinances last night. One prohibits minors under 18 being served in restaurants; another restricts the purchase of junk from minors without their parents' written consent, and a third provides for the construction of sidewalks and crosswalks on different streets.

The restaurant ordinance was devised for the purpose of keeping small boys from objectionable places, in particular Chinese noodle joints.

An ordinance was introduced prohibiting the maintenance of hide or junk shops within the city limits and will be passed at an early date.

GOMPERS BACKS UP STATEMENT

Declares Brandenburg Lies If He Denies Attempt to Bribe Labor Leader.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 21.—"If Brandenburg says that he did not try to bribe me to betray the Federation of Labor and friends to the National Manufacturers, he lies," declared President Gompers today in a speech before the delegates. "If there is no bribery attempted, why is it there was so much secrecy about Brandenburg's transactions. My statements are absolute facts and I will stand by them. At the time I was approached I was asked to go to South Carolina, where President Van Cleave of the Manufacturers' association was planning to bring us together."

CERTIFICATES FOR PACIFIC NORTHWEST

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.)

Washington, Nov. 21.—Senator Piles of Washington called on the president today and urged that the Pacific northwest be given the opportunity to participate in the distribution of the $100,000,000 3 per cent certificates.

Senator Piles said: "The Pacific northwest people will be permitted to purchase the certificates and a proportionally large share will be assigned to them. I took the position that that section had plenty of money but tied up in the east, hence the necessity of relief in the proposed certificate issue."

PIPES AND TOAST JOLLY LAWYERS

Barmen Have Merry Time at Annual State Association Meeting.

Oregon's lawyers made new records for themselves in the way of good story-telling and good fellowship at the annual banquet of the Oregon State Bar association at the Commercial club last evening. From 6 o'clock until past midnight, pipe, bowl and jest donned the ermine and the bar paid deference.

Thomas G. Hailey, newly elected president of the association, was toastmaster and introduced each speaker in his customary felicitous fashion. Judge O'Day was the first speaker, his toast being "The Bar."

John Leland Henderson read "The Barrister's Grief" from "Richard the Third."; Judge Thomas A. McBride convulsed the banqueters with his accounts of "Humorous Phases of the Law"; A. S. Hammond of Marshfield spoke on "The Country Precinct"; S. B. Huston's toast was "The Bench and Bar"; George S. Shepherd spoke on "The Law and the Facts"; Judge H. L. Benson of Klamath county spoke on "The Circuit Rider"; A. E. Clark on "The Science of Law"; G. C. Moser, "Some Experiences of a Prosecutor"; Waldemar Seton, "The View From Below," and City Attorney John P. Kavanaugh, "Municipal Law."

More than 100 lawyers were present at the banquet, among the guests being many from cities throughout the state. The sessions of the association closed yesterday afternoon. Benjamin I. Cohen spoke on the present financial situation and said that it was caused by too great prosperity. He likened the country to a man who had grown so fat he could not run away from the dog that was after him. He said he believed that the crisis of the panic had been passed a week ago and that in a month no distress whatever would be felt.

Oliver P. Morton of the reclamation service spoke interestingly on "Irrigation Law." He criticised the greed of private irrigation companies which he said, usually undertook to irrigate more land than their capacity warranted. It is the government's policy not to take an acre more land than it has water to irrigate.

NO JURY TRIALS BEFORE JANUARY

This is the last day on which it would have been possible to draw a jury for the trial of cases in the circuit court for the December term. As the holidays prevented the drawing, there can be no jury trials before January, and all persons charged with felony, as well as all litigants who demand jury trials, will have to wait until the new year.

In some quarters it has been thought that the jury drawn and summoned for November, but excused on call of the court, could be brought into service to try cases as soon as the holidays are at an end. This is erroneous, as the law fixes the time for the drawing of the jury for each term so plainly that all hope of having a jury trial next month has vanished.

BERESFORD WILL LOSE COMMAND

Admiral to Be Turned Down in Controversy With Sir Percy Scott.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

London, Nov. 21.—Admiral Beresford, commander of the English channel fleet is expected to resign as soon as the result of the controversy with the first lord of the admiralty, Sir John Fisher, is known.

Beresford delivered an ultimatum that either he or Admiral Sir Percy Scott must resign. It is expected that Fisher will support Percy, who is the people's idol.

GENERAL PICKETT TO DIE UNDER ARREST

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Worcester, Mass., Nov. 21.—General Josiah Pickett, the only veteran of the civil war who has been under military arrest ever since the war, was 85 years old today. A year ago he had a fall, from which he never recovered, and for some time his condition has been considered serious.

General Pickett's record is unique. Placed under arrest by order of General Stannard just before the battle of Cold Harbor, General Pickett has felt it an honor to remain under arrest. A misunderstanding about orders caused a difference of opinion between himself and General Stannard. General (then colonel) Pickett remarked that when he received orders he could understand he would obey them. That remark caused his arrest. Then came the battle of Cold Harbor. Things looked bad for the Union troops, and, forgetful of his arrest, Colonel Pickett jumped to the front of his regiment and led it through the battle. For his conduct he was recommended for promotion by the man who had caused his arrest. The arrest was forgotten. Colonel Pickett was made a general, and today there are few outside of General Pickett's personal friends who know that the arrest still stands.

During the lifetime of Senator Hoar, a personal friend of General Pickett, it was suggested that a special act of congress be enacted to expunge the record of arrest. General Pickett was always opposed to this. He declared he wanted to die under arrest. His wish is pretty sure to be granted.
