Central W. C. T. U. enjoyed a Thanksgiving program in charge of Mrs. Bodger yesterday. Mrs. F. A. Smith read the scripture lesson and talked on the "sin of ingratitude." Mrs. Bodger spoke of the progress of the work during the past 20 years. Mrs. Woodworth spoke of the life work of Miss Mary Burdette, sister of Robert Burdette. Songs were rendered by Miss Clark, Mrs. U. L. Cobb and Mrs. Woodworth, all of which were much enjoyed. A poem, "The White Rose," was recited by Mrs. McGuire. Mrs. Unruh, the president, spoke of the wonderful advance made in recent years by the south, and gave some account of her work there. A new feature of the rooms was a piano loaned by G. W. Kennedy of the Reed-French company, and a vote of thanks was ordered. Next week will be the monthly tea, and reports will be given of the National convention recently held in Nashville.

St. Andrew's society of Oregon will celebrate St. Andrew's day next Saturday. An excellent program is being arranged and cigars and refreshments will be served. The following officers were elected at a recent meeting: President, A. Gavin; vice president, Thomas Mann; treasurer, K. K. Baxter; secretary, A. T. Smith; assistant secretary, Thomas Burns; relief committee, R. Livingston, W. R. Mackenzie and William Mackenzie; committee on management, John Baikie, John Lockhart and J. M. Wallace; counselors, William Reid, C. E. Wood, George J. Cameron and Miller Murdoch; physicians, Dr. K. A. J. Mackenzie, Dr. J. F. Bell, Dr. J. P. Skene, Dr. H. M. Nulton and Dr. E. A. Marshall.

Beginning next week, if the holidays are continued, County Clerk Field's recording force will be employed only half time. This applies to 18 young women who do the copying and indexing by deft manipulation of the typewriter. The male employees of the office will not feel the holiday pinch, as those who are not occupied in the regular work have been loaned to assist County Assessor Sigler in the work of comparing in his office. In the case of the recording force the two alternatives presented were to offer the whole force half time or to cut the number of employees in half.

The entertainment given under the auspices of the Danish Aid society at Arion hall last night was a success. Dr. Emil Enna's piano solos were the feature of the first part of the program, and the second part was made brilliant by a well-acted comedy from the works of the noted fairy tale teller, Hans Christian Andersen. Miss Elizabeth Hoben and the Norwegian and Danish singing societies assisted on the program. The entertainment was given before a packed house.

The city school board is in receipt of a letter from Mrs. Riegru who objects to teaching school children religious songs in public schools. Mrs. Riegru is emphatic in her objections and insists that the board take action in the matter. Inasmuch as the question has never come up before, the board has a hard time to crack the songs to which Mrs. Riegru objects are Christmas carols in which the children are being drilled for the holiday exercises.

The Sunday school class at the Calvary Baptist church, East Eighth and East Grant streets, taught by Mrs. Morgan, will give a concert in the church Friday evening, November 29. The program will include Mrs. J. F. Danke, soprano soloist; Archie Roth, boy soprano; Mrs. Sylvia McGuire, reader; Ontario Monday club; the Ford's concert orchestra; Frank Jones, cornetist; Miss Gertrude Tolsted, pianist.

The towns of Joseph, Baker City, Pendleton and Haines are applying for the location of a proposed wool scouring plant that a Providence, Rhode Island firm is constructing in the Eastern Oregon wool is at the present time shipped uncleaned to eastern buyers, principally Boston firms. Unscoured it gets a very low rate, while scoured wool has to pay a much higher tariff.

The Mount Tabor Home Training circle will meet in the Presbyterian church on Prettyman avenue tomorrow afternoon at 4:45 o'clock. Dr. J. Allen Gilbert will speak on the "Mental and Physical Development of the Child." There will be other interesting addresses, including one by D. A. Groat, assistant superintendent of city schools, and another by Rev. William Hiram Foulkes, D. D.

A. Turtledove is president of the Roumanian-American-Hebrew Aid society, a charitable organization which has filed articles of incorporation with the county clerk. The other officers, as shown by the papers, are M. Liebo, vice president; A. Weinberg, treasurer; Harry Yankelevich, secretary; N. Braunstein, assistant secretary; Aaron Kaufman, David Stein, E. Lebowitz, J. Reibman and A. Feldstein, directors.

IF 'TWA'NT FOR HIS HEELS

Bryan says the donkey is a precious little elf.
 Not a bit aristocratic—is not "stuck up" on himself.
 And just like William Bryan, we are satisfied we'd feel
 Had we not one day in childhood ran a-foul of donkey's heel.

We had treated him politely—just as nice as we knew how—
 Even stealing things that mother had intended for the cow.
 And we thought that day, especially, he liked the precious meal,
 Till we found ourselves in contact with the villain's vicious heel.

If Will'd been there and watched us as we made that hasty trip
 Out the barn door to the commons at a one-and-twenty clip.
 We're sure he'd never ask the world again to give three cheers
 For the spiteful, haughty creature that is naught but heels and ears.

the association at the Alisky building this evening. All retail butchers in the city have been invited to attend and the meat dealers' association expects to be able to take care of every dealer who will attend. The smoker begins at 8 o'clock sharp and will be fully up to the standard.

Mayor Lane sent a message to the city council yesterday afternoon urging the immediate repair of Madison street from Front to the Madison street bridge. The question was referred to the city engineer and the committee on streets. This portion of the street was to have been repaired last spring and a resolution was passed by the council providing for the pavement. Property owners killed the resolution by remonstrance and the matter has been left in abeyance since that time. The street is in such shape at present that immediate action will have to be taken or the street closed.

Sheriff McClelland of Roseburg arrived this morning with a warrant for John Hendricks, the man arrested by Deputy Sheriff Leonard and Detective Woods as a suspicious character. Hendricks will be taken to Roseburg to answer the charge of cracking a safe near that place, and he is also wanted for shooting a policeman who attempted to arrest him at Grants Pass. Sheriff McClelland is certain the right man has been caught.

Two additional suits in the land grant case, making four in all, were filed with the clerk of the United States circuit court Wednesday. One is Albert E. Thompson against the Oregon & California Railroad company, the Union Trust company and S. J. Gage. In the other suit the complainant is James Harr against the same companies, including Gage.

A petition was received by the city council yesterday asking that steps be built leading from the steel bridge down to the street alongside the railroad. The petition was signed by property owners and residents living along the tracks. The document was referred to the committee on streets.

Subscriptions are being solicited at University Park to defray the expenses of maintaining a free library. Thurman hall will probably be secured for the library. It is reported that a branch Y. M. C. A. will be organized at the same time, which will be some time next month.

TONIGHT'S FESTIVAL

Multnomahs Ready for the Splendid Musical Event and Brilliant Ball.

There will be a very large attendance at the grand ball to be given tonight by the Multnomah club. The seat sale has been heavy, and great interest has been taken by society and the public in general. The program for the concert is given below, and its splendid character assures a treat for everyone who attends: 1. Concerto No. 2 Romance (Wieniawski); 2. The Little Irish Girl (H. Lohr); 3.
