Ready for the Best Christmas Season at the Olds, Wortman & King ToylandDon't Miss Seeing "Bearville"

Here's the newest and most interesting feature in any toy department in the city—one section of our toy department devoted exclusively to comical Teddy Bears. Come and see the stunts they are doing, the funny antics they indulge in and the pranks they play on each other. Come and see what a lot of them we have together and what an interesting display it is. There are white bears, brown bears, cinnamon colored bears; large, fairly good sized and very small ones. You'll find them standing on their heads, hanging by their toes on rings, hanging on trapeze and cutting up all sorts of amusing capers. To add to the interest of "Bearville," you will find "Puss in Boots" and "Tige," that famous dog of Buster Brown's, playing with the Teddy Bears and having just as good a time as any of them.

Largest Assortment of Dolls

From the little China Doll that sells for 1c to the elaborately attired French mademoiselle at $20. Dolls of all sizes, with light or dark hair, dressed or undressed. Rag dolls, China dolls, celluloid dolls, rubber dolls, bisque dolls, kid body dolls. Dolls with sleeping eyes or dolls with flirting eyes (the very latest feature in making of up-to-date dolls). Santa Claus has appointed us as his special representative for Portland and we'll faithfully carry out his orders to supply the children of this city with the best toys to be had for the money, the prettiest dolls and the most interesting games and playthings to be had on the coast. Saturday is the first showing, the "Opening of Toyland." Little lady, little man, we respectfully request your attendance.
