The funeral of Mrs. Sophia Shogren, who died at her home, 229 Grand avenue, yesterday morning, was held this afternoon from the residence at 1:30 o'clock. Interment was in Riverside cemetery. Mrs. Shogren was an Oregon pioneer, having lived in her home on Grand avenue for the past 35 years. She was born in Switzerland, and was a member of the Baptist church. 72 years old at the time of her death. From her childhood Mrs. Shogren had been a member of the Baptist church. In Portland she was a member of the Central Baptist church, East Twentieth and East Ankeny streets, and had a host of friends. She leaves besides her husband, Henry Shogren, five children, Fred A. Shogren, Mrs. George Mc Lynn and Misses May, Anna and Ruth Shogren.

Constituted authority as represented by Patrolman Brothers, had a disquieting effect on D. F. Ralms yesterday afternoon, when the officer attempted to arrest him for a misdemeanor and resulted in a gun play by the prisoner. Brothers went to Ralms' home at 733 Missouri avenue to arrest the latter for alleged wife-beating. He found the accused man, intoxicated and in a most belligerent mood. After placing Ralms under arrest, the prisoner suddenly drew a revolver and threatened to slay the bluecoat. Brothers was equal to the emergency and promptly knocked the revolver from the infuriated man's hand. In addition to the allegation that he assaulted his wife Ralms will have to answer to charges of resisting arrest. The case will be heard tomorrow morning.

A musical and literary entertainment will be given tomorrow, Wednesday night in the Church of the Good Tidings, East Eighth and East Couch streets, in which the following organizations and individuals will take part: East Side High School orchestra, Multnomah quartet, Veteran quartet, Miss Cora Shaver, Miss Grace Campbell, Miss Florence Price, Miss Beattie Hughes, Ted Esser and Frank Brown. The entertainment will begin promptly at 8 o'clock and the proceeds will be devoted to the building fund of the new Church of Good Tidings.

An important meeting of the Oak Grove Improvement association is scheduled for next Thursday evening. The attorney for the association will present the brief that is to go to the state railway commission in the current complaint case. The matter will be open for discussion. L. E. Carter of the Portland Trust company will address the meeting on "The Financial Crisis." The committee on public utilities will present its report, and Thursday will occur the annual election of officers and appointment of new standing committees.

Routine duties of his office will prevent Bank Examiner Gatch from resuming investigation of the condition of the Merchants' National bank, and he will not return from Washington. His work will be taken up here by Bank Examiner Wilson, who is regarded as one of the best men in the service. It is not likely that a report will be ready for the comptroller until nearly the first of the year, when it is expected the bank will be permitted to reopen.

Unitarian Xmas bazaar tomorrow from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. Combined efforts of 10 bazaar clubs for a year will make a fine display of useful and artistic articles. Delicious eatables, silk bags, rag rugs, dolls in variety, potted plants, cut flowers, home made candy. Short order lunch from 11:30 to 2 p. m. Ice cream and cake, afternoon and evening. Unitarian chapel, Seventh and Yamhill. Come and bring your friends.

The annual meeting of the Oregon State Forestry association was scheduled for last night, but owing to the lack of a quorum the meeting was adjourned, subject to the call of Professor E. R. Lake of Corvallis, president of the association. This was the fourth attempt to hold the meeting, all having failed on account of no quorum. The next attempt to get together will probably be early in January.
