TELLS TALE OF MURDERS

Harry Orchard on Stand in Pettibone Trial Repeats Revolting Story of His Bloody Career While Playing Deadly Dynamiter.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Boise, Ida., Dec. 12.—The unsuccessful effort to take the life of Fred Bradley at San Francisco, various schemes concocted to do away with Justice Goddard and Gabbert of the Colorado supreme court, with the incidental killing of an alley, and many attempts made on the life of Governor Peabody, were the themes of Harry Orchard's testimony this morning.
After the narration of these real and attempted crimes Orchard was taken, under the guidance of the judge, into the Steunenberg affair.
Before court adjourned yesterday afternoon, the killing of Lyte Gregory and the destruction of the independence depot were disposed of. The witness detailed his movements with great precision, although he was never positive as to exact dates.
Hawley kept Pettibone in the foreground, emphasizing his alleged participation in the crime.
Orchard said that while he was in San Francisco all of the letters and telegrams he received from Denver were from Pettibone, and that all the money he received came from the defendant. Most of the letters, he said, were signed "Pat Bone."
Orchard said he went by the name of Harry Greene in San Francisco.
The witness detailed at length the placing of poison in the boxes of milk in the Bradley porch, and his plan of placing a bomb at the door at his residence and of the explosion which badly damaged the house and threw Bradley into the street.
The state attorney scored a point yesterday when Harry Orchard was allowed to pass over the usual objection story relating to the alleged wrecking of a train on the Cripple Creek & Florence road.
In the Haywood trial the defense made great capital out of this affair, maintaining that before the attempt was made Orchard was in frequent consultation with Detectives Scott and Sterling.
It is the custom of Darrow to enter an objection Orchard asked the witness to relate each new incident of his story and when yesterday afternoon Hawley began to question about the train wrecking Darrow crossed his usual objection.
Hawley said, "Very well," and passed on to the next occurrence. By this means the state hopes to preclude any testimony of Orchard's intimacy with the Colorado detectives.

FULTON'S BILL MEANS REVENUE

Law Proposed by Senior Senator From Oregon to Prevent Stock Gambling.

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.)
Washington, D. C., Dec. 12.—The full text of the Fulton-Ellis bill to prevent gambling in corporation stock, drafted by Senator Fulton, and introduced in the house by Congressman Ellis, because of its revenue-collecting features, is that on and after the first day of July, 1908, on all sales or agreements to sell or memoranda of sales of shares or certificates of stock in any association, company or corporation, where the books of the association, company or corporation do not show at the time the sale or agreement to sell or the memorandum of sale is made, that the person or persons for or on behalf of whom such sale or contracting or agreeing or proposing to make such sale is or are the owner or owners or vested with some interest in such shares or certificates of stock so sold, contracted, agreed or proposed to be sold, there shall be levied, collected and paid on each $1 of face value or fraction thereof a tax of 5 cents. Provided, that this act shall not apply to any sale, agreement to sell or memorandum of sale of shares of stock, the certificates for which have been actually assigned and delivered to the seller, in the lawful custody and control of the seller, person, firm, company, or corporation proposing, contracting or agreeing to sell the same at the time the contract, agreement or proposal is made.
Section 2.—That if any person shall make, sign or issue, or cause to be made, signed or issued, any instrument, document or paper of any description without having thereon an adhesive stamp to denote the payment of the tax hereby imposed thereon, such person or persons shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, shall pay a fine of not more than $1,000, and such instrument, document or paper, as aforesaid, shall not be competent evidence in any court except in a prosecution for a violation of the provisions of this act.
Section 3.—That the commissioner of internal revenue shall cause to be prepared for the payment of the tax herein prescribed, suitable stamps, and all existing laws in particular will run and the payment and collection thereof, shall, so far as applicable, apply to the tax herein prescribed.

BAN PLACED ON CHRISTMAS BOX

Prevention of Corruption Act in England May Make Gift Giving Illegal.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
London, Dec. 12.—The Christmas box has come under the ban as a result of the anti-tipping crusade that is steadily gaining headway in England. The custom of giving Christmas boxes on the day before Christmas to servants and others is among the time-honored institutions of the country. But now the very legality of the custom has been attacked, and there is no doubt that tradesmen in particular will run considerable risk in continuing the practice.
It all comes about under the new prevention of corruption act. Legal authorities of such eminence as Sir Edward Fry believe that most Christmas boxes given by tradesmen to servants are given as inducements to show favor to the tradesmen. So plainly is this thought to be the case that those tradesmen who hesitate to make these presents are wont to declare that unless they break the law they lose their custom.

The London practice of giving Christmas boxes is divided into two parts. The London area, and the amount distributed in gifts by them during the Christmas season under one system or the other is computed at from $100,000 to $150,000.
The grocers are very desirous of putting an end to this tax, if they can, and a penalty has been proposed for disobedience to this injunction. The bakers, who have a strong association, have already taken action with the object of inducing their members to abandon the custom of giving Christmas boxes.
Welch Strikes the Blow.
Action all along the line begins next Saturday morning, corner First and Morrison streets, to close its big clothing store. With the building rented and having only 30 days to vacate the store, Welch must sacrifice the entire fine winter stock of $20,000 carried by this firm. There will be no "burn-bawing" or its and ands about Welch's way of closing out the goods. It will be out with the London public. Watch Welch do things. Go and see how he does it. It will be worth a day's walk.

ALWAYS WAS SICK.
When a man says he always was sick—troubled with a cough that lasted all winter—what would you think it should say—he never was sick since using Ballard's Horehound Syrup. Such a man exists.
Mr. J. C. Clark, Denver, Colorado, writes: "For years I was troubled with a severe cough that would last all winter. This cough left me in a miserable condition. I tried Ballard's Horehound Syrup and have not had a sick day since. That's what it did for me." Sold by all druggists.

Legislative Officers Elected.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Pendleton, Or., Dec. 12.—The following officers have been elected by the grocers, bakers, butchers, milk sellers and fish and poultry dealers. It is estimated that there are some 12,000 grocers and provision dealers' shops in the London area, and the amount distributed in gifts by them during the Christmas season under one system or the other is computed at from $100,000 to $150,000.
The grocers are very desirous of putting an end to this tax, if they can, and a penalty has been proposed for disobedience to this injunction. CANBY ELECTION MAY BE DECLARED ILLEGAL

Canby, Or., Dec. 12.—It is alleged that the recent municipal election in Canby was illegal. Rev. John Samuelson, who voted the prohibition ticket under challenge, does not live in the city limits. This fact was established by surveyors this week, and a contest may result. The fact that Rev. Samuelson is not a legal voter invalidates the whole election, it is alleged.
