COUNCIL WHIPS ITSELF INTO VERBAL INFERNO

Fists and Words Lash Chamber Into Temperature Mile and Half Above Blood Heat-Due to Debate on Veto of Ordinance to Pay the Deposed Sleuths.

In a turnioil of vituperation, banging | Councilman Bennett reviewed the of fists, byffoonery and profanity in which several members passed the lic the time the detectives were discharged of fists, buffoonery and profanity in which several members passed the lie and nearly came to blows, the city council yesterday unanimously voted to sustain Mayor Lane's veto to the ordy mance appropriating meney to pay the malary of four discharged detectives. Opposing councilmen completely re-monced their former action, when they passed the ordinance on a strict party vote, and 'laid down" quietly with no other excuse than to say they wished to call the mayor's bluff. "The mayor is endeavoring to gain fittling the people what he would do, ouncil. I believe it is high time to call the people what he would do, thereby say it's up to you." The action of the councilmen was the passed the ordinance on the councilment when they is bluff by sustaining his veto, and thereby say it's up to you." Bennett accordingly drafted his re-markable speech which he read from manuscript yesterday and the rest fell in line without other explanation than they without other explanation than they wished to "see what the mayor was going to do about it."

Resembled Prize Fight.

Besomalied Frize Fight. Perhaps never before have members of the city council engaged in such bit-ter controversy as marked the war of words in which Vaughn and Wills played the leading roles, ably assisted by Bennett, Cellars and Baker. While nearly every member "explaimed" his wole, none of them indulged in the per-tween Wills and Vaughn. No language was too strong for them and Council-man Concannon arose and objected to their conduct.

heir conduct. In the meantime Mayor Lane was rapbing for order and endeavoring to stay ping for order and endeavoring to stay the flow of words spouting from Wills Twice he pounded on his desk with the ravel and still Wills kept on. Not until Mayor Lane was leaning far over to-ward the obdurate councilman and rais-ing his voice above the tirrmoil of sound that arose from all sides did his honor gain anything like mastery over the situation and even then Wills insisted on having the last word by saying. Thave a right to speak. Keep your Democratic friends quiet or I will keep them quiet for you

This called forth a reply from Vaughn who dared Wills to try keeping him quiet Wills then turned on him quiet. Wi Vaughn and said: "If you say it

Lecture for Councilmen.

Without demanding any explanation or knowing what he was voting for. Belding shouted no and everybody laughed.

The did not mince words and several of the councilmen were noticed to squirm in their seats as the mayor continued. Councilman Baker then arose and moved that in the future all debates be limited to four minutes. The motion was evidently aimed at Councilman Vaughn but hit several of the others, including Baker himself and a small de-

Congressman Ellis Secures

M^{ISS} Lewis' hair was very thin and it was leas than two feet in length when she began using Danderine. She says her hair and scalp are now fairly teeming with new life and vigor.

That's the main secret of this great remedy's success as a hair grower. It enlivens, invigorates and fairly electrifies the hair glands and tissues of the scalp, causing unusual and unheard-of activity on the part of these two most important organs. resulting in a strenuous and continuous growth of the hair.

The following is a reproduction of Miss Lewis' last letter:

Danderine makes the scalp healthy and fertile and keeps it so. It is the greatest scalp fertilizer and therefore the greatest hair-producing remedy the world has ever known It is a natural food and a wholesome medicine for both the hair and scalp. Even a 25c bettle of it will put more genuine life in your hair than a gallon of any other hair tonic ever made. It shows results from the very start.

NOW at all druggists in three sizes. 25 cents, 50 cents and $1. per bottle FREE, To show how quickly Danderine acts we will send a large sample free by return mail to any one who cends this advertisement to the Knowiton Dan-derine Co., Chicago, with their name and address and 30 cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.

BURGLARS CRACK SAFE BUT LOSE PLUNDER

(United Press Leased Wire.) Coulee City, Wash., Dec. 13.—Two burglars early yesterday morning cracked the safe in George M. McDonald cracked the safe in George M. McDonald & Co.'s store with nitroglycerin, but were frightened away before they could secure their plunder. They escaped and, although a posse has been in pursuit all day, they have not yet been overlaken. The explosion completely wrecked the front and part of the bottom of the safe and the inner doors were easily opened by the clerks after the cracks-men had gone. The office fixtures were badly damaged. The fugitives ran a quarter of a mile east of town, where they mounted horses and rode to Adrian, on the Great Northern, to where they were tracked by a posse of 60 armed men.
