

CLUB DEVELOPS OWN ATHLETES

Winged "M" Policy Is to Develop Champion Track Team at Home.

That Multnomah has outlined a definite policy in developing her own athletes was made known with the appearance of Winged "M" Chat this morning, which contains the following article:

In the past athletic clubs have to a large extent made up their field and track teams from among the men developed in schools and colleges. Multnomah has never approved of this plan, and has ever advocated the policy of developing their own men.

Each in their respective lines will pick men from right here in the club, train them for three years, and at the end of that time we will raise $5,000 and send a track team east to compete with New York, Chicago, St. Louis and Boston athletic clubs.

"Where could you find a man," said Mr. Morgan, "who in knowledge of field events could compare with Professor Krohn, who has been active in these events for the past 20 years? He was the first athlete on the Pacific coast to clear over 16 feet in the pole vault."

"Professor Murray was our undefeated champion for all distance races during the club's early life, and has been a close student of the game ever since."

"Trainer Jack King, as coach for the sprinters, has no equal anywhere in the United States."

"I have spoken to men who have been prominent in club affairs in the past, and they have assured me that all money necessary to send the team east would be ready as soon as needed. They have further offered to give cups and trophies for each event. Trophies will be held each week, and the trophy will become the property of the contestant winning it three times. New trophies will be supplied to fill vacancies, and this alone should stimulate interest in track and field sufficient to have our best material turn out."

Eugene Defeats Roseburg? (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Roseburg, Or., Dec. 20.—In a spirited game of basketball played here last night between the teams of the Eugene High school and the Roseburg High school, the latter was defeated by a score of 21 to 32. The game was played in the Sykes skating rink and was attended by a large crowd.

ALWAYS WAS SICK. When a man says he always was sick—troubled with a cough that lasted all winter—what would you think? He should say—he never was sick since using Ballard's Horehound Syrup. Such a man exists.

ST. LOUIS OFF TODAY FOR WEST

Sixteen Missourians Commence Five Thousand-Mile Journey to Northwest.

In a telegram received here at noon announcement was made that the St. Louis university's unconquered football team departed this morning for the Central City on its 5,000-mile westward journey. Coach Eddie Cochems is bringing 16 men along with him and expects to be back in St. Louis by January 4.

The Missourians will go direct to Spokane, where they meet the Washington State college eleven Christmas day. Then they will depart for their second meeting, Seattle Athletic club Saturday, December 28. The following day the invaders will leave for Portland and will line up on the field here New Year's afternoon against Multnomah club.

Every legitimate means will be used to defeat the easterners. Portland not only wants a victory, but she wants the favorable advertising a victory will give her in the middle west. It is to be hoped that meteorological conditions are favorable, so that the visitors will take back with them a glowing description of the Rose City and Oregon.

LARRY McLEAN SAYS BURNS IS JUST A DUB

Former Portland Catcher Thinks He Can Turn Trick on Champion.

Big Larry McLean, who first drew the attention of the eastern managers when he was receiving slaps and walloping the sphere for McCredie at Twenty-fourth and Vaughn streets, says Tommy Burns is not even a near champion, and that he himself could draw the lids over Tommy's eyes.

"Burns is a joke as a fighter compared to some of the boys that have been and are. I'll make a good bet Jack O'Brien can trim him in six rounds, and that big Al Kaufman can drive him to the woods inside of 10 rounds."

"I saw Burns fight several times out on the coast, and he is a first-rate fighter. Twin Sullivan made a chopping block of him and Al Kaufman gave him quite a beating, despite the fact that Kaufman was only a novice at the fighting game at the time. Since then Al has improved, and he is a match for Burns for the alleged heavyweight champion of the world."

The cleverest man among the heavies today is Jack Johnson. If Johnson can get in a good blow before the other fellow to screw up his courage he can lick any of these alleged heavyweight stars. Jack has a streak of yellow in him that yields to an advantage early in a fight. If he and Burns meet my money goes on Johnson. In fact, there are four or five men whom I would back against Burns. That's what I think and know of him."

CRESCENTS TO MEET HORNETS TOMORROW

First Game to Clean Up City Soccer League Football Schedule.

Tomorrow afternoon the Crescents and Hornets of the city soccer league will meet in the first of the four games to clean up the football schedule, the game taking place on the league grounds at Twenty-fourth and Vaughn streets. Bobby Burns of the Columbias will referee the game, which will be called at 3 o'clock.

The lineup of the two teams follows: Crescents. Position. Hornets. Cunningham, G. Keith. Rynland, R. E. Dickson. Jago, L. F. Batchelor. Ballis, L. H. Hughes. Honeyman, J. D. Mackie. Steele, R. H. J. K. Mackie. Vosper, O. L. A. Matthews. Carmody, I. R. Douglas. Hanson, I. R. Dean. Kilpatrick, C. R. Mackenzie.

In the Seaside Election Case. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Astoria, Or., Dec. 20.—The plaintiff in the injunction suit of A. E. Miller vs. W. E. Burke, H. C. Anderson and E. S. Henninger, yesterday filed a bond in the sum of $200 in the county court. A temporary injunction was granted by Judge Trenberth. The suit was brought to enjoin Burke from issuing certificates of election to Anderson and Henninger, and also to enjoin them from assuming office. It is said, however, that before the injunction was granted the certificates had been issued.

GAME IS DESERTING HIGHER ALTITUDES

Government Scouts Invade Yellowstone Park to Protect Elk and Deer.

Helena, Mont., Dec. 20.—George Beck of this city, who is president of the Yellowstone Park Transportation company, has returned here for the winter season from Wonderland. He states that at the present time hundreds of elk and deer and antelope are coming down from the high altitudes to the meadows and feed near Gardiner and the Mammoth Hot springs. Mountain sheep are also coming down in large numbers. This is the best time of the year to see the game, and there is a sufficient supply to carry the game over the winter in splendid shape.

Government scouts in the park are prepared for another season of hunting mountain lions, timber wolves and coyotes, which are the greatest danger to other wild game. The government has appointed quite a number of these scouts, and it is expected that they will make away with a large number of preyling animals.

WOODBURN FIVE WINS FROM MT. ANGEL TEAM

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Mount Angel, Or., Dec. 20.—The Mount Angel college basketball team was defeated by Woodburn High school in the college gymnasium last Tuesday evening, the score being 11 to 10. The lineup was as follows: Woodburn. Position. Mount Angel. Fisher, forward. McNeil, Sander. Randall, forward. Sander. Bonney, center. Davlin. Flynn, guard. Manlin. Newman, guard. Merton.

COUGARS KILL DEER BY HUNDREDS WEEKLY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Vernonia, Or., Dec. 20.—Deer are getting scarce in the Schuylkill valley, and cougars and hounds are blamed for the condition. Cougars have been seen quite frequently of late, and are being shot as to prove around farms. As their chief food is venison, it is estimated that the average slaughter per cougar is at least one deer a week. There is no longer any doubt but that hundreds of the beautiful animals are being killed and devoured every week.

SPORTING NOTES

Winged "M" Chat, the new little publication of the Multnomah club is out in Christmas raiment. The number teams with club news, and popular members of the club, and is full of many witticisms. Accounts are also given of the positions of teams in the various tournaments under way at the clubhouse.

Down in Louisiana it is said the governorship hinges on the racing game. The Republican candidate, Mr. Pharr, is emphatic in his declaration against the sport, and the Democrats have been stirred to declare themselves in favor of reform along racing lines. This political animosity is due in a measure to the Sunday and all-the-year-round racing at the half-mile tracks at New Orleans.

state and will become a permanent resident of Chicago. Tinker was a member of the Chicago Cubs, which won the championship of the world by winning from Detroit last fall.

John W. Gates, the millionaire plunger, who cleaned up hundreds of thousands of dollars last year backing the Durnell entries on the eastern tracks, says that "Boots" Durnell is being persecuted by the Jockey club in being ruled off the tracks. Gates is said to be the real owner of the horses running under the Durnell colors. Durnell will find some way to outwit the stewards of the Jockey club.

W. F. Sheehy, president of the Tacoma Sportsmen club, decries the slaughter of deer and denounces the wholesale killing as shameful. Sheehy says he has figures to show that 750 deer were killed in Pierce county alone during last October. He says that on Hood's island in San Juan county more than 300 deer were slaughtered. Tacoma sportsmen are going to make a fight to have the hunting of deer with dogs prohibited.

Pacific college and Multnomah club meet in the second basketball game of the State league series tonight in the club gymnasium. Pacific is in good trim and the Quaker five promises to bring a surprise on the winged "M" players before the game is over. They have been saying little and practicing much up at Newberg for the basketball games.

Henry Berry, the popular Angel baseball magnate, says that everything is in readiness for increasing the membership of the Pacific Coast league down Los Angeles way, and the rest is up to the northerners. He says San Jose, Sacramento and Stockton are knocking for admittance, and any two of them would be welcome to take the place of Los Angeles in the continental baseball during the summer the same as San Francisco and Oakland.

How would some of these boys look in the three vacant positions on the University of Oregon football team next year? Chat Locois and Ben Hibcock, Military academy, "Speck" Hurlbert of Portland academy, and Hickson, Latourville and McKinley of West Side High, all are going to Eugene. The junior yellow has three vacancies to fill—Captain Moore at left end, Kuykendall at quarterback and Zacharias at halfback. The high school trio was picked for the All-Portland team for these self-same positions on the school eleven. They might easily step into the retiring collegians' shoes.

KELLAR INTENDS TO FIGHT EXTRADITION

(United Press Leased Wire.) Vancouver, B. C., Dec. 20.—Denying that he is Captain D. L. Kellar, wanted by the United States war department on a charge of forgery, D. L. Smith, one of the most liberal spenders Kamloops has ever sheltered, is preparing to fight extradition.

When Smith came to Kamloops last June his story was that he had searched the whole coast for a suitable place at which to locate a shooting lodge, which would cater to the wealthy class of sportsmen. He represented himself to be a wealthy man and the way in which he dispensed money would confirm that statement. Not only did he establish a shooting lodge at the head of Adams lake, costing a hotel at the cost of $10,000 and purchasing a gasoline launch for $2,000 as well as making other outlays, but he spent money with a lavish hand about Kamloops on his frequent visits there.

His present trouble was due to pressure and a hotel at the treasury department at Washington for $9,000.

Changes in the Navy. (United Press Leased Wire.) Washington, Dec. 20.—The year 1908 will be memorable for the many important changes in the navy. The most of these changes will occur in the regular course of events, brought about by the retirement of nine rear admirals who will reach the age limit for active service. Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, commander-in-chief of the battleship fleet now on its way to the Pacific, will reach the retiring age August 18, and two of the division commanders of the same fleet, Rear Admirals Charles M. Thomas and William H. Emory, will be retired on October 1 and December 17, respectively.

The other rear admirals who will be retired for age during the coming year and the dates of their retirement are as follows: Robert M. Berry, January 28; Samuel W. Verry, April 23; George A. Bicknell, May 15; Joseph M. Hemphill, June 18; William T. Burnett, July 19; and James H. Dayton, October 25. The retirement of these officers of highest grade will, of course, result in numerous changes and promotions all along the line.

North Carolina Day. (United Press Leased Wire.) Charlotte, N. C., Dec. 20.—Today's annual observance of North Carolina day in the public schools of the state was more general than ever before. Almost without exception the schools throughout the state set aside a part of the day for exercises touting of the history and development of North Carolina.

SAYS LUMBER RATES WERE NOT TOO HIGH

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Washington, Dec. 20.—During practically the entire day yesterday in the interstate commerce commission listened to statements and figures compiled by railroad officials in the hearing of the Pacific northwest lumber complaints. The figures presented were as to rates on all classes of freight.

The morning session was begun by the accounting and traffic departments of the Northern Pacific, showing comparative cost and volume of movement of lumber and forest products and prices of these products at Minneapolis and other points.

The first witness was W. G. Johnson, assistant controller of the Northern Pacific, who testified that in 1904 the cost of moving lumber and forest products per ton per mile was 515 cents and of other classes of freight 1,017 cents. Total receipts from lumber traffic in 1906 were $8,058,532, which Mr. Johnson stated in answer to a question was not sufficient to pay operating expenses. Later the witness testified that the total of operating expenses of the road in 1906 was $31,095,432. Less lumber was moved in 1907 than in 1906.
