M. A. A. C. ROLLS UP GREAT SCORE

Spokane Club Given Stinging Reminder of Multnomah's Football Skill.

Five touchdowns and one kicked goal is the total score which Multnomah ran up when she defeated the Spokane Athletic club on Multnomah field yesterday afternoon. Multnomah now holds the club championship of the northwest and abe certainly deserves it. Although she lost two games—one at Seattle by a acore of 6 to 0 and one to Spokane by score of 4 to 0-she has wiped these defeats out and added glory to her record by defeating these two teams decisively in the last two games she has played here.

It certainly was an interesting game, slithough it was played in a drenching rain and the seats in the grandstand were wet and damp. Time and again but fumb were wet and damp. Time and again the spectators were brought to their feet when old Dow Walker tore off 30 yards at a down, or Weary Chandler tackled his man in his tracks after a brisk run down the field under one of Kirby's long punts, or when Lonergan or Stott dodged around the ends for a long gain.

Kirby's long punts, or when Lonergan or Stott dodged around the ends for a long gain.

Spokane was completely outclassed and was able to make yardage but once during the whole game. Tilley, her quarterback, played a fine game and tried hard to make his men wake up, but to no avail, for Multnomah was in the game every minute and just simply could not lose.

Neither Clarke nor Wolff of O. A. C., who it was reported, at the last moment, would do the punting for Multnomah, were in the game. Kirby, the crack end, did the punting for Multnomah and performed well, especially when you consider the slippery and soggy ball which he was handling. He sent his punts well to one side and so high that by the time they reached the waiting arms of a Spokane man Chandler and Stott were there waiting to tackle him.

Pilkington Makes Tackle.

Multnomah kicked off to Tilly, who failed to run the kick in an inch, owing to Pilkington being on the spot ready to tackle him. After see-sawing around the center of the field Multnomah got the ball on a quarterback kick and on the next the ball on a punt. Rader made two yards through the line and Alexander followed with four yards around tackle. Kirby then punted 25 yards and Carlson made himself famous by recovering the ball. Walker then made 30 yards on a tackle around tackle formation. Alexander made six yards, and on the next play Walker waded eight yards for a Carlson kicked 55 yards over the line, and then a very peculiar play followed Fortheringham picked up the bail and started to saunter back onto the field, thinking, as everyone else did, that the ball had to be kicked over again. Lonergan raced half the length of the field, called the attention of the officials to the fact that they had not whistled the ball down, and, much to the surprise of the spectators, the ball was given to Spokane at the point where Fotheringsham had paused in his little walk. Score: Multnomah 10, Spokane 0.

Multnomah got the bail in the center of the field on a punt, and some of the fastest playing of the day followed in the next five minutes. Rader made five yards. Walker failed to gain, and then Stott made a beautiful end run of eight yards. Lonergan then signaled for a forward pass. Stott sent the pass good and high to Kirby, who passed to Lonergan as he was tackled. Lonergan ran the remaining distance to the goal. Again the goal was not kicked.

COLONEL BOB EQUALS RECORD OF ROSEBEN

Two-Year-Old Colt Does Six Furlongs in Remarkable Time.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Los Angeles, Dec. 26.—The remarkable performance of Colonel Bob, Ed Alvey's 2-year-old colt, which ran six furiongs in 1:11 3-5, equalling the world's record established by the mighty Roseben, was the feature of the Christmas card at Los Angeles yesterday. The youngster was a 9 to 10 favorite and the field was spreadeagled from the barrier. Roseben was a 4-year-old in 1905, when he carried the almost prohibitive weight of 147 pounds over the Beimont Park course on Oceans will tip the beams at 133 pounds. In the boxing match the Spokane club will go four rounds at 125 pounds and the bout ought to be a splendid one.

Tonight the Spokane club will select a boxer to send against Gene West in the 135-pound class. The man will either be Johnston or Sullivan, who are so evenly matched that a gelection here-tofore has been impossible.

As preliminaries there will be two boxing matches between local club boys. Bud Hughes and Miller will go on at 125 pounds and Hanley and Crosby will delight the spectators with four rounds at 145 pounds. Vancouver Takes Game.

Vancouver Takes Game.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Vancouver, B. C., Dec. 26.—Vancouver's Rugby football team defeated the Stanford university football fifteen here yesterday afternoon, 3 to 0, in the first game for the Keith cup. Rain caused the field to be covered with pools and fast backfield work was impossible, this fact hurting Stanford's chances to a certain extent. If anything the Vancouver, forwards were slightly speedler than the collegians. Both teams were so evenly matched that there is hardly a choice for a trophy winner.

Missourian Fumbles Directly Responsible for 11 to 0 Score at Spokane.

story of the defeat of St. Louis university, champions of the middle west, by the crack Washington State college of Pullman team here yesterday afternoon. Halm falled to convert the second goal and lost a point for his team, the final score being 11 to 0.

Four thousand people braved the elements to see the two fast elevens fighting to determine whether the horthwest was the equal of the middle west in the great college game and were fully convinced that such is the case. Weather and field were against the visitors and had they been on a dry field the result would probably have been different.

A more versatile team than the Missouri eleven has never been seen in this section. They had plays for every occasion and at one time by brilliant maneuvers moved the oval from their own 16-yard line to Pullman's 7-yard mark before Washington was able to hold on downs. A fumble gave the Missourians another change but before they could score Washington did a few turns at last ditch" fighting and was saved by the whistle.

St. Louis' spectacular walk down the field came in the first half and the spectators were amazed at the coolness and daring with which the series of plays were executed.

All of the scoring was done in the second half, Rader contributing one touchdown on three straight plunges and Wexler the other on a fumble by Robinson of St. Louis, who was trying to catch one of Halm's punts on his own goal line. Two fumbles were directly responsible for the points, the visitors seemingly being unable to hold the cold, silppery ball in their benumbed hands.

St. Louis is hoping for a dry field when it plays against Multnomah club of Portiand New Year's day. With a wet checkerboard the Missourians are convinced they will have to be much faster than the Portland players to win the game. However, if the field is such that sure footing can be had Portlanders will see one of the fastest teams that ever played on Multnomah field.

Spokane Club Will Send a Strong Delegation to Battle With Multnomah.

Several assertions have been made that Tilley, the crack Spokane wrestler, who played in the football game Christmas day against Multnomah, would not be a contestant, but Tilley definitely set all rumors at rest when he informed Manager Edgar Frank, of the wrestling department of the Multnomah club, that he would be on the mat next Wednesday night, ready to try conclusions with William Dennis. These men will wrestle in the 145-pound class.

Although Edgar Frank concedes eight pounds in weight to John Adams of Spokane in the 125-pound boxing match, it is not believed the local man will be the loser of the contest. Frank can give as high as 10 pounds to almost any opponent in the northwest and then experience little difficulty in downing him. Frank weighs 125 pounds and Adams will tip the beams at 133 pounds. Several assertions have been made

LARGE AUDIENCE SEES CHURCH PLAY

White Temple Members Present Dramatization of Bird's Christmas Carol.

Christmas exercises at the White Temple last night consisted of a resentation of Kate Douglas Wiggin's exquisite story of "The Bird's Christmas Carol." The dramatization was done by Mrs. W. R. Litzenburg and Mrs. Sylvia W. McGuire, the latter lady taking the part of Mrs. Ruggles in the taking the part of Mrs. Ruggies in the play.

Throughout the five scenes the interest of the audience was held continuously and during the scene where Mrs. Ruggies prepares the children for the party and instructs them in proper behavior, and the following one where they appear at the dinner, which was served upon the stage, a genuine roast turkey being carved and distributed to the hungry and wondering children, the laughter and applause of the audience almest drowned the speeches of the players. players.

From the mother down to Baby Larry, who was stripped and plunged into a tub of water and scrubbed with gold dust, the parts were well taken. Carol Bird, the invalid daughter, was very gracefully rendered by Miss Dorothea Clinton. The characters of the play were as follows:

Mr. Bird, Rev.
