BOYS' AND GIRLS' AID SOCIETY ENTERTAINS

The Christmas entertainment for the Boys' and Girls' Aid society given last alght at the home, by the young people's union of the First Baptist church was the most successful affair of its kind that the home has ever known. So many visitors were attracted that all could not get into the house, and Superintendent Gardner expressed his regret that a larger room had not been provided.

The program consisted of songs and recitations by the children themselves, with a duet by Miss Mabel Lewis and Miss Georgie Ploegstra. Candy, nuts and presents were given by the young people's union and a wagon load of toys was sent out by M. Seller & Co., which filled the cup of childish happiness to the brim.
