

her of their family, including their four grandchildren. There were present Mr. and Mrs. Ewing and their children, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Warrens and their children, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Walthev of Seattle and J. Marshall Steel of Berkeley, California. Mr. Steel came here especially to be present on this occasion and this was the first time in 12 years that he has been able to spend a Christmas holiday with his parents and sisters.

The guests at Elton Court enjoyed a delightful Christmas celebration. After an elaborate dinner the dining-room was cleared and a Christmas tree loaded with gifts usurped the interest. Dr. H. I. Koeney filled the role of Santa Claus. The room was beautiful with decorations of Christmas greens and red candles. Dancing followed the distribution of the gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kohn and Miss Florence Kohn entertained at dinner Thursday evening at the Portland in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Mose Blum covers were laid for 14 and the other guests were Mrs. Sol Hirsch, Misses Ella, Mai and Clementine Hirsch, Dr. Jonah Wise, Samuel Bissinger, Will Lipman, Sanford and Samuel Hirsch.

Mrs. E. Dewitt Connell, who has been in California for the past two or three months, returned home for the Christmas season. Miss Alice Benson, who was with Mrs. Connell through much of the visit and who visited her sister, Miss Carolyn, at Stanford university, has also returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hopkins and their two sons came up from their farm near Medford for the Christmas holidays and were guests of Mrs. Hopkins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Woodward, on Kearney street.

Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Coe will entertain Mr. Hughes, Mr. Pridham, Mr. Bradford and Mr. Taylor of the Stanford Glee club during their stay here this week. These men are college friends of George Coe, who is this year a senior at Stanford.

Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Coe gave a family dinner of 19 covers Christmas day, entertaining Dr. and Mrs. Luther Dyott, Miss Adelle Dyott and Gavin Dyott.

Rev. John Dawson, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, and Mrs. Dawson were very pleasantly surprised on Christmas eve by the warden, J. H.

and they were assisted by Mrs. B. M. Lombard, Mrs. J. R. Stephens, Miss Slavson and Miss Wilcox. The members of the board are Mrs. Cleveland Rockwell, Mrs. E. L. Lutz, Mrs. W. L. Johnstone, Mrs. W. W. Cotton, Mrs. Zera Snow, Mrs. G. W. Reed, Mrs. L. H. Parley, Mrs. A. B. Manley, Mrs. R. B. Steele, Mrs. J. D. Lee, Mrs. A. L. Lucas, Mrs. W. P. Olds, Mrs. Lola G. Baldwin, Mrs. R. E. Bristow, Mrs. C. A. Coburn, Dr. G. W. Warren and Mrs. George H. Chamberlain.

Mrs. Mose Blum of San Francisco, whose prolonged visit here has been the occasion of so much entertaining, returned some of the courtesies extended her with an afternoon of bridge Tuesday at the Portland. There were six tables, and the prizewinners were Mrs. Gustave Simon, Miss Mai Hirsch and Mrs. Albert Feldenheimer. The guests were Mrs. Julius L. Meier, Mrs. Marcia Fleischer, Mrs. I. N. Fleischer, Mrs. Sigmund Frank, Mrs. Sol Hirsch, Miss Ella Hirsch, Miss Mai Hirsch, Mrs. Isaac White, Mrs. Gustav Simon, Mrs. Albert Feldenheimer, Mrs. Charles Feldenheimer, Mrs. Herman Metzger, Mrs. S. Lipman, Mrs. I. Lang, Mrs. Charles Kohn, Mrs. Emmanuel Sichel, Mrs. Sigmund Sichel, Mrs. Ben Neustader, Mrs. S. Julius Mayer, Mrs. Ben Bellinger, Mrs. Lippitt and Miss Celia Friendly.

The concert to be given tomorrow night at the Hotel by the Stanford Glee and Mandolin clubs promises to be a social affair of no small importance. The club members arrive today and will be for the most part entertained at the homes of various Portland Stanford men. The Stanford men in the University club will be responsible for a good part of their entertaining. The entertainers will be Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Herbert Holman, Mrs. A. J. Gley, Mrs. J. Westland, Mrs. Raleigh Stott, Mrs. J. Sladen, Mrs. E. Rockey, Mrs. T. B. Wilcox, Mrs. Richard Koehler, Mrs. A. A. Morrison, Mrs. Walter J. Burns, Mrs. Harriet E. McArthur, Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Mrs. John K. Kollock and Mrs. I. N. Lipman.

Mrs. W. A. Knight's little four-year-old daughter Marcia celebrated her birthday with such a pretty Christmas "tea party" at the Nortonia last Saturday afternoon. The principal attraction for the 16 small folk was the lovely supper at the Christmas table, where holly and mistletoe recalled the season, and a beautiful tree bore a present from Santa for each.

The guests of the tiny hostess were George Bronaugh, Marcia Carlock, Louis Nitchev, Gerdy Ames, Helen Honeyman, Ronald Honeyman, Margaret Foster, Margaret Cook, Anastacia Norholt, Florence Fangle, Charles Carr, Ethelne Wheeler, Anne Wheeler, Jack Dougherty, James Van Schuyver and Frances Warrens.

Mrs. F. M. Branch gave the second of her series of 1 o'clock luncheons, followed by bridge, Tuesday. The festive colors were used effectively. Those present were Mrs. B. E. Weaver, Mrs. J. B. Frem, Mrs. D. G. Tomasin, Mrs. C. L. Ross, Mrs. Millie Perkins, Mrs. C. Janney, Mrs. Ben Fleckenstein, Mrs. M. J. Deia Hunt, Mrs. F. O. Jennings, Mrs. S. I. Rothermel and Mrs. H. Foster.

Miss Mary Livingstone, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Livingstone, will leave next Saturday to enter boarding school at Mount Ida in the suburbs of Boston. Friday evening she entertained informally at dinner a few of her Portland academy friends. Miss Livingstone is one of the most popular and charming of the real young set.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac White entertained at dinner Christmas night at their handsome Twentieth street home, in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Mose Blum of San Francisco. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Simon and Miss Helen Simon, Mr. and Mrs. Blum and James Blum, Mrs. Louissou of San Francisco and Philip Loewengart.

Joe Barber left last night for Chicago to enter the University of Chicago for medical work. Mr. Barber is the youngest son of Dr. and Mrs. S. J. Barber and was graduated with a good record of scholarship last June from the University of Oregon. He is also a Portland academy graduate.

Mr. and Mrs. August Aberdorfer celebrated their eighteenth wedding anniversary Christmas night. A few friends came in for an informal evening of bridge.

A delightful family reunion was enjoyed Christmas day at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ewing, 610 Spring street. Portland friends, whom Mr. and Mrs. James Steel welcomed every morn-LaMorrie and C. A. Zander, presenting to them on behalf of the members of the parish a handsome silver tea service. The presentation speech was ably made by the senior warden, J. H. LaMorrie.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Walter Gates entertained informally at dinner last Saturday evening. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gay Lombard, Dr. and Mrs. George A. Marshall, Miss Lela Sheiby and Chester G. Murphy.

The fortnightly bridge club was charmingly entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. Marcus Fleischer. There were four tables and the prizes were won by Mrs. Herman Metzger and Mrs. Abe Meier.

The girls of the younger set are planning a leap-year party to be given immediately after the holidays at Murlark hall. The invitations will be sent to the girls only and will be out this week.

Miss Ernestine Failing came down from Boise, Idaho, to spend Christmas at home. The Failing family united this year in their Christmas celebration at Mrs. John Letta's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius L. Meier will leave this evening on a short trip to New York. By the same train Mrs. L. Lang will go St. Paul on a visit to her daughter.

Harold Bates, a popular Portland Academy student of former days, has temporarily given up his work at Princeton and returned for the winter.

The marriage of Mrs. Harriet Hahn Sheldon and Lieutenant Harry Westervelt Gregg was celebrated last night at the Hahn home, on the Cornell road.

Mrs. Jerry Bronaugh and her little son George and her sister, Mrs. Charles A.

Macrum, went to Eugene Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. George B. Dorris. Mr. Bronaugh went up there for Christmas and returned Wednesday night.

Harold Chamberlain, who recently went to eastern Oregon to engage in business, came home to spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Chamberlain.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine R. Smith of Irvington, and their three sons are spending Christmas week at their pretty cottage, A. La Bama, at Seaside.

Henry Wessinger has returned from Cornell for the three weeks' holiday. His sister, Miss Millie Wessinger, gave a dinner for him last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis R. Alderman and their three little children are spending the holidays with Mrs. Alderman's parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Barber.

Professor Luella Clay Carson of the University of Oregon is spending the Christmas holidays at home with her father, John C. Carson.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Downing were entertained over Christmas by Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Mack at their pretty Seaside home.

Harold E. Reed is home from Stanford university to spend the holidays with his mother, Mrs. Walter Reed.

Mrs. H. C. Wortman entertained with a musical evening yesterday afternoon, giving the song cycle "In Fairyland."

Mr. and Mrs. Julius L. Meier gave a large family dinner at the Portland Christmas night.

Miss Leone Kaye of the Nortonia is spending the holidays at her home in Eugene.

WEDDINGS

The marriage of Miss Nellie Couture and Frank Gordon, Wednesday afternoon, was a pretty affair. The marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents, 732 Bush street. In the reception hall hung large clusters of Oregon grapes and streamers of red and white festooned from the walls to the center. Garlands of cedar were festooned from the corners of the room to the center of the bay window to a large white bell, which hung in the arch, made of Oregon grape and ferns, under which the bridal party stood. The bride wore white silk and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Miss Lulu Coleman attended her and wore pink and carried white carnations. Frank Gordon was best man, and Vivian Bism ring-bearer. Rev. Guy F. Smith officiated. An elaborate dinner was served in the dining-room. Two rooms had been thrown together for the dinner and were prettily decorated in red and white and Oregon grape. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon left on the evening train for Seattle, and will be at home January 1 at 711 East Tenth street.

A very pretty wedding in St. Helena was that of Miss Margaret McLaren to John Francis Roth on Christmas Day, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Harry R. Clift. The walls of the parlors were covered with holly, making an effective background for the poinsettia blooms which formed the principal decoration. To the strains of the Loehring wedding march the bride and groom, preceded on the evening train for Seattle, and will be at home January 1 at 711 East Tenth street.

Henry A. Bunten and Miss Austa E. Kinzer were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Kinzer, 656 Gantenbein avenue, December 18, at 9 o'clock. The house was decorated with holly and white carnations and the Rev. Harry H. Pratt performed the ring ceremony. The bride wore blue silk and carried white carnations, and the maid of honor wore cream silk. It was a quiet affair and there were about 30 relatives and friends present. A pleasant evening of music, with supper, followed. Mr. and Mrs. Bunten will travel through southern California before leaving for their home in Rhyolite, Nevada.

Miss Marie Cox and A. J. McPherson were married at St. Mary's cathedral in San Francisco Christmas eve, Rev. Father Wynn officiating. Mrs. McPherson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cox of 170 North Sixteenth street. Mr. and Mrs. McPherson will travel through southern California before leaving for their home in Rhyolite, Nevada.

William R. Lancelotti and Miss Ethel Walker were married at noon Christmas day. The ceremony was performed by the pastor of the Mizpah Presbyterian church, Dr. J. R. McGlade, at his residence, 508 East Seventeenth street. Mr. and Mrs. Lancelotti will reside in the city.

One of the pretty Christmas weddings took place at the bride's home, 427 Prescott street, at 8 o'clock on Christmas day, when Byron D. Blanchard and Clara R. Taylor were married. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Edythe Taylor, and the bridegroom by John Hanson. Rev. E. S. Bollinger of the Highland Congregational church performed the ceremony, using the ring service, in the presence of a number of invited guests. The parlors were beautifully decorated with mistletoe and holly, after receiving congratulations and the serving of refreshments Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard went to their newly furnished home on the west side.

There was a wedding Christmas eve at 271 College street, when C. H. Elston of Oswego and Miss Nellie Rose Grant of Lincoln, Nebraska, were married by Rev. Henry A. Hadden. The bride and groom have known each other from childhood days. Mr. Elston is an Oswego merchant and the bride for five years has been a teacher in the Nebraska schools. Mr. and Mrs. Elston will reside at Oswego.

Friday evening, December 20, Harry Engart and Miss Kate Callahan were married at the residence of Charles Youberty, 325 S. W. Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher officiating.

Lester E. Thompson and Miss Phoebe Edith McLain were married in the reception room of the White Temple Tuesday afternoon by Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher, D. D.

Tuesday evening Edward Howland and Mrs. Jennie Byrne were married in the presence of a few friends, Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher officiating.

(Continued on Page Three.)

her of their family, including their four grandchildren. There were present Mr. and Mrs. Ewing and their children, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Warrens and their children, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Walthev of Seattle and J. Marshall Steel of Berkeley, California. Mr. Steel came here especially to be present on this occasion and this was the first time in 12 years that he has been able to spend a Christmas holiday with his parents and sisters.

The guests at Elton Court enjoyed a delightful Christmas celebration. After an elaborate dinner the dining-room was cleared and a Christmas tree loaded with gifts usurped the interest. Dr. H. I. Koeney filled the role of Santa Claus. The room was beautiful with decorations of Christmas greens and red candles. Dancing followed the distribution of the gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kohn and Miss Florence Kohn entertained at dinner Thursday evening at the Portland in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Mose Blum covers were laid for 14 and the other guests were Mrs. Sol Hirsch, Misses Ella, Mai and Clementine Hirsch, Dr. Jonah Wise, Samuel Bissinger, Will Lipman, Sanford and Samuel Hirsch.

Mrs. E. Dewitt Connell, who has been in California for the past two or three months, returned home for the Christmas season. Miss Alice Benson, who was with Mrs. Connell through much of the visit and who visited her sister, Miss Carolyn, at Stanford university, has also returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hopkins and their two sons came up from their farm near Medford for the Christmas holidays and were guests of Mrs. Hopkins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Woodward, on Kearney street.

Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Coe will entertain Mr. Hughes, Mr. Pridham, Mr. Bradford and Mr. Taylor of the Stanford Glee club during their stay here this week. These men are college friends of George Coe, who is this year a senior at Stanford.

Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Coe gave a family dinner of 19 covers Christmas day, entertaining Dr. and Mrs. Luther Dyott, Miss Adelle Dyott and Gavin Dyott.

Rev. John Dawson, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, and Mrs. Dawson were very pleasantly surprised on Christmas eve by the warden, J. H.

THE STORE NOTED FOR BEST GOODS AT LOWEST PRICES

Administrator's Sale

$150,000 Stock of High-Grade Merchandise to Be Closed Out at Once—All Dep'ts Included

This plain announcement will crowd our store tomorrow, for there's not a woman in the city of Portland but knows the splendid quality of the goods we sell. It's very necessary that we reduce our stock to the lowest possible point, and do so in short order, and we don't know of a better way than to reduce the prices. For twenty-five years this store has stood for straight-forward, legitimate merchandising—always selling goods of dependable quality at the smallest margin of profit, and have never yet had to resort to questionable methods in order to dispose of our goods. During this great sale every article in the store will be offered at special reduced prices—with the exception of goods the price of which is controlled by the maker. You'll never again have an opportunity to buy standard merchandise at such remarkably low prices, so be prompt and supply your needs, even for months to come. Sale will continue until present stocks are sold. Prompt and careful attention given to all out-of-town orders and expressage prepaid within 100 miles on all purchases to the amount of $5.00 or over.

Dress Goods	Leather Bags	Wash Materials	Table Linens
Silks, Linings	Suit Cases, Purses	Silkolines, Cretons	Napkins, Towels
Tailored Suits	Embroideries	Pillows	Fancy Linens
Skirts, Waists	Laces, Corsets	Comforters	Curtain Madras
Furs, Umbrellas	Handkerchiefs	Bed Spreads	Outing Flannels
Muslin Underwear	Fancy Neckwear	Blankets	Sheets
Knit Underwear	Feather Boas	Table Covers	Pillow Cases
Hosiery, Gloves	Flannelette Wear	Portieres	Curtain Rods
Ribbons, Notions	Men's Furnishings	Lace Curtains	Crashes, Etc., Etc.

Hundreds of other items in all departments—in fact, everything kept in a first-class dry goods store will be found here at matchless prices. Extraordinary values in fine Black and Colored Dress Goods and Silks. We have long been noted for carrying the finest line of dress materials on the coast, and our present showing offers a wide range of colors and weaves to pick from. Every yard of dress goods and silks at greatly reduced prices

WEDDING AND VISITING CARDS
W. G. SMITH & CO.
 WASHINGTON BUILDING

HAVE YOUR CALLING CARDS WEDDING INVITATIONS AND MONOGRAM STATIONERY ENGRAVED AT RUSHTON'S
 408 Stearns Building Corner Sixth and Morrison

SOCIETY STATIONERY
 Newest and latest designs in Monogram Stationery. Engraved and Printed Invitations, Announcements, Visiting Cards.
KILHAM'S
 246 Wash. St.

Thomson's Corsets Reduced
 Thomson's glove-fitting Corsets in thirty new styles—all sizes—special prices.

Warner's Corsets Reduced
 A complete stock of Warner's rust-proof Corsets—all sizes and styles—special prices.

Marcia Knight, Four-year-old Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Knight.