the school and two boxes of fine red apples, the gift of a friend, were shared by everyone present. F. L. Kneeland, chairman, and Mrs. Kneeland, secretary, both of whom had added much to the happiness of the little folk.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. M. Jamison were at home to the V. L. A. chapter of the First Baptist church and their friends Friday evening at their beautiful new home on King's Heights. The large living room was profusely decorated with ferns and ground pine; the den and living room in holiday with a huge cluster of poinsettia as the dining room decoration. Mrs. Jamison was assisted in the dining room by Mesdames Broucher, Clinton, Wightman and Stiles and Miss Nisley. Miss Kate Felling poured chocolate and coffee. Musical numbers were rendered during the evening by Miss McDaniel, Miss Massey, Miss Bushnell, Miss Clippel, Miss Belcher, Miss Cole, Miss Fletcher and Homer Jamison.

Mrs. T. C. Nizer gave an "afternoon" Friday at her home, 1087 East Main street, in honor of her niece, Miss Ellen Farnsworth. The members of Miss Farnsworth's graduating class were the invited guests. The afternoon was spent with the friends of the young lady, after which refreshments were served. Those who gave piano numbers were the Misses Eva Bevin, Emma Erdner and Edith Fuchs. Miss Farnsworth, who formerly lived in this city, now resides in Dayton, Oregon.

Mrs. Fannie Allen George, assisted by her two daughters, entertained the Daughters of the Confederacy Friday in a charming manner. Miss Kathleen George, soprano, sang; J. Claire Month gave some baritone numbers and Julius V. Seyler charmed by his delicate rendition of Sinding's "Frühlingstraumen" and Chitt's "A la bien-aimée." Mr. Seyler has been in Portland but a short time, but by his rare artistic work has attracted considerable attention.

The Wednesday Evening Five Hundred club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hare last week. Those winning prizes were Mrs. Mendenhall, Dr. Yates, W. D. Allard and Mr. Mendenhall. After playing 2 hours of cards, the club and its guests were pleasantly entertained with several songs by Miss Spaulding and F. Wynn.

W. Wynn Johnson entertained Monday night with a "stag evening" at his home. His guests were the advertising staff of The Journal and several public men of the city. A good program presented A. G. Draper, whistler; Mr. Seyler, pianist; F. A. Douglas, baritone and pianist; and C. C. Chapman, Shakespearean reader.

The Journal editors and several of their boy friends enjoyed a Christmas celebration of their own Tuesday night at Mulkey hall. There were about 100 boys in the company and a Christmas program of music was first enjoyed. Mr. Seyler has been in Portland but a present a candy and fruit for all.

Mr. and Mrs. David H. Smith of 267 Schuyler street entertained Christmas night with an elaborate dinner for several of their friends.

COMING EVENTS

Rose City chapter, O. E. S., is planning an open meeting for Friday evening of this week at 8 o'clock at the new Masonic temple, West Park and Yamhill streets. The regular installation of officers will be made more interesting by an added ceremony of christening the babies of the chapter. This will be an open meeting and friends are invited.

The Assembly club has issued invitations for its New Year's eve dance, to take place at the Women of Wood-craft hall, corner of Tenth and Taylor streets, beginning at 8:30 with novel light effects in the grand march. A series of dances will be given every Tuesday evening following the New Year's eve dance.

Mount Hood circle, Women of Woodcraft, is making elaborate preparations for the masque by New Year's eve at the east side Woodmen hall. Fox's orchestra will furnish the music and there will be souper and programs.

The East Side Athletic club girls have invitations out for a leap year dance Monday evening, January 6, at Ringler's hall, Stiles.

Ringer dancing classes meet Monday and Friday this week. New term begins Tues, Jan. 7. Private lessons daily.

ENGAGEMENTS

Mrs. Lena Blum announces the engagement of her daughter, Henrietta to Ralph Marx of this city. They will be at home Sunday, January 5, from 2:30 to 5 o'clock.

PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Keene have returned to the city and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. David H. Smith at 267 Schuyler street.

Mrs. F. M. Spencer, wife of the late Judge E. V. Spencer of Linn county, California, has been spending two months in Portland, as the guest of Mrs. Clara Bewick Colby, editor of the Woman's Tribune. Mrs. Spencer was a law partner with her husband until his death three years ago, and her daughter retains the place in the firm with her husband, E. D. Burroughs at Susanville, California. Mrs. Spencer is a prominent worker in the suffrage cause and leaves earlier than usual for several months and then Miss Baumbaugh will return with her to be the guest of the Misses Hatfield for an indefinite time.

Portland people who spent Christmas in St. Helena, Mr. and Mrs. John Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Perry, Mr. and Mrs. John Dart, Mr. and Mrs. David Davis, Mr. and Mrs. James Cox and their daughter, the Misses Caroline Elbertson, Amy and Anne George and Dr. Ross of the Good Samaritan hospital.

Miss Hazel R. Foster is spending the holidays with friends in Moscow, Idaho.

Postmen's Walking Feats. From the Westminster Gazette. There must be few, even among "men of letters," who, like Joseph Hunt, a Lincolnshire postman, can claim to have tramped a distance of, roughly, 240,000 miles, not much less than the equivalent of 10 journeys around the earth.

Not long ago George Thompson retired from service as postman in the Langrick district of Yorkshire, after covering on foot 125,000 miles in 26 years of letter carrying, a service 14 years shorter than that of his Lincolnshire rival.

In 34 years Orme M. Brown walked 111,000 miles as postman between Cullpar and Kilmar, and Logan—after presentation to him of an appropriate chair, nearly equal to half that which separates the moon from the earth. John Simmonds of Henley-on-Thames retired with a record of 181,000 miles of "feet and toes" the result of 40 years' tramping, while most amazing of all, Thomas Phipps, a postman in the Chipping Norton district, was credited with an aggregate journey of 440,000 miles between the years 1840 and 1888.

Remarkable Rescue. That truth is stranger than fiction, has not more been demonstrated in the little town of Pedora, Tennessee, the residence of C. V. Pepper. He writes: "I was in bed, entirely disabled with hemorrhages of the lungs and throat. Doctors failed to help me and all hope had fled when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. Then instant relief came, the coughing soon ceased, the bleeding diminished rapidly, and in three weeks I was able to go to work." Guaranteed for coughs and colds, and $1. at Skidmore Drug Co. Trial bottle free.
