

SPORTS OF THE DAY

M. A. A. C. WINS GRAND CONTEST

St. Louis University Falls Before Great Playing of Portland Clubmen.

MULTNOMAH 11, ST. LOUIS 6.

Western grit and speed on a heavy field yesterday afternoon when Multnomah club defeated the crack football eleven of St. Louis University, after one of the hardest checkerboard battles ever seen in the northwest. Determination stood out in every play made by St. Louis and her touchdown was the result of aggressive, consistent playing. But with all the fleetness of her stars, the Missouri aggressiveness could not prevail against the winged "M," which was represented by the greatest eleven that ever wore the club colors on any field. Ever wore the club colors on any field. Ever wore the club colors on any field.

More than one spectator gasped at the lightning-like action of the visitors. The Multnomah field has a team that started its plays with the swiftness of the St. Louisans or followed their leads with such amazing accuracy. From the showing made on the saddest ever run on the team must be able to run close to 10 seconds on a dry one the Missourians would have run rings around the clubmen. They clung to the ball and the veterans inside the maroon jerseys were hard to deceive after the first three or four tries.

Forward Pass Lucking.

While several demonstrations were made of the forward pass and several of the heart-tugging variety in visitors did not show the versatility of them. Nearly every one of their forward pass plays was begun in the same formation, and the veterans inside the maroon jerseys were hard to deceive after the first three or four tries.

If the forward pass system as demonstrated by Cochem's wards in their several attempts yesterday was all they were after, they would do well to enroll in Jack Middleton's class for coaches at Moscow next summer. Middleton's formations originally adopted to suit the rules were so far ahead of the Wisconsin man's brand that one blushes at the thought of comparison.

One thing particularly noticeable was the fact that after the game the Multnomah way some of the old Multnomah boys did not shine so brightly as in former games. The answer is simple. The St. Louis boys were so good that they were not so good as they were in former games.

Stott and Chandler Star.

The defensive playing of the Multnomah wing and "Stump" Stott was a rare exhibition. Chandler as usual kept his end inviolate and Stott was honored on every play. On occasion Left Halfback Robinson of the students gave Stump a bluff which sent him careening into the end for 15 yards on the first play made by the St. Louisians. By the way, "Stump" played end on defense when Multnomah had the ball he was engaged in passing it around from the center. Stott played an exceptional game and was followed by the St. Louis center and Stott. Multnomah would have a well long inviolable team.

Acker a Whirlwind.

For St. Louis Acker seemed most aggressive. He looked to weigh about 100 pounds his beef is so compact, but sends the scales balancing at 135. He is off like a flash and is a real terror to man to tackle with his twisting, gyrating movements. He keeps going unimpeded safely to the end to take the feature of the game complaints might be passed around to all the visitors. Schneider, a long-legged chap, and Robinson, a good punter, were remarkably fast at covering ground. They with Acker complete the back field.

This Day in Sport Annals.

1879—Northwestern baseball league organized at a meeting held at Rockford, Ill.

1888—At New Orleans, Herr Steintz defeated 22 opponents in as many games of chess in 24 hours.

1884—At Edinburgh, Scotland, H. Hutchens, from Scotland, won a 300-yard handicap in 10 minutes.

1894—E. N. Sayers, prominent young Canadian cricketer, died at London, Ontario.

1904—At Boston, Jack Blackburn defeated "Jimmy" Gardner in 15 rounds.

Details of Great Game.

Multnomah scored first, after 15 minutes of sensational playing. It was like this: Schneider, the St. Louis star, was forced to kick and punted to Multnomah's 30-yard line. Clarke received the punt and returned to the center of the field. Clarke then attempted to punt but his kick was blocked and he was recovered. Immediately afterwards Loneragan signalled for another try and Clarke booted the ball 45 yards to the St. Louis line, where Schneider fumbled and Stott recovered. Later was sent over on the next play and played the ball directly to Robinson, the goal post. Clarke failed to kick.

The rest of the half was spent in a punting duel between Schneider and Clarke, with honors about even. Once

MISS CUMMING WINS NEW YEAR'S CHASE

Finishes First in Big Field After Clearing Twelve Obstructions.

Miss Inez Cumming on Call Bond finished first in the New Year's paper chase of the Hunt club yesterday morning, covering eight miles and jumping 12 trees and one-half foot hurdles in very good time. Alex H. Kerr on Rocket was second and L. Leadbetter on Scappoose third.

Cochens Game of Penalty.

On the next play, Acker slipped through Multnomah's right side for a 10-yard run over the line. As the play started Head Linesman Muckleson detected some roughing on the part of St. Louis. Coach Cochens ran out on the field to voice protest. Referee Robert Moulton added 15 more yards for this violation of the rules, causing a 25-yard run.

Along toward the end of the game Stott recovered a fumble on St. Louis' 15-yard line. A straight kick followed and Multnomah recovered. Another place kick from the eight-yard line gave Multnomah four more points. Multnomah's 11-6 victory was sealed when Robinson punted, but Stott half recovered, making a safety.

MISSOURIANS SEE GAME.

The game ended with the ball on the visitors' 30-yard line.

Big Tally-Ho Carries Loyal Bunch of Strong-Lunged Rooters.

By A. W. Cauthorn.

If there was ever a bunch of football rooters more loyal than the Missourians, they were the ones who were there to see the game.

A big tally-ho, drawn by four mules and filled with ex-Missourians, shouting and tooting horns, was anchored at the foot of the hill right in the limelight. Typical of Missouri—and patted the driver, a black man, on the back, and praised him for the way he had driven the mules down the steep, winding hill. All declared no one could handle mules like a colored boy, as he was fondly called.

When the Missouri team came on the grounds the rooters yelled, "Rah, Rah, Rah, Missouri!" and to some joshers near by was added the postscript, "now d— you laugh!"

The players were critically compared and "Rah, Rah, Missouri!" was the cheer of the Multnomah boys were the heavier the rooters consoled themselves by saying it was agility and science that had won the game. "Rah, Rah, Missouri!" was the cheer of the Multnomah boys were the heavier the rooters consoled themselves by saying it was agility and science that had won the game.

When St. Louis scored the noise made would have caused any animals but human to run for cover. Not being satisfied with their noise, however, one of the crowd enlisted the help of the St. Louisian who called out to the Multnomah boys to hear their own. Mr. Young grasped the idea and followed the Missourians who let the mules to do the punting when they had a chance to execute such a play.

Many Players Are Traded.

Not since the American league was first organized have so many players been traded as during the past two months. Among the players who will have new berths the coming season are:

Charles Jones, from Washington to St. Louis; Ollie Pickering, from St. Louis to Washington; Arthur Brown, from Detroit to St. Louis; Hobe Ferris, from Boston to St. Louis; Danny Hoffman, from New York to St. Louis; Williams, from New York to St. Louis; Frank Laporte, from New York to Boston; Ira Thomas, from New York to Chicago; Fred Paron, from Boston to St. Louis; Harry Niles, from St. Louis to New York; Charles Hemphill, from St. Louis to New York; Charley Hickman, from Chicago to Cleveland; Jake Stahl, who refused to play in Chicago, signed with New York.

M. A. A. C. FIVE WILL MEET Y. M. C. A. TEAM

Multnomah club and the Portland Y. M. C. A. will play basketball next Saturday night in the winged "M" gymnasium, the game being the second between the two in the state league. When the five met several weeks ago the association won from the club, 21 to 20. The game will be called at 8:30 o'clock. The officials will be from Salem.

YARDAGE ABILITY OF TWO TEAMS NEW YEAR'S

Clark punted 15 times for a total of 605 yards, averaging 40 1-3 yards to the kick.

Robinson and Schneider punted 10 times for a total of 640 yards, averaging 64 yards to the kick.

Multnomah tried the forward pass but once and that went but five yards and to a St. Louis player.

St. Louis used the forward pass seven times for 93 yards.

THE PASSION PLAY

Admission 10c and 25c. Song by Miss Millie Perkins.

OWEN MORAN AND ABEL ATTILL ARE A TELL DRAW

British Champion Featherweight Fights Game Battle With Little Wonder.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Colma, Cal., Jan. 2.—In a battle marked by vicious but ineffectual hitting Abel Attill, featherweight champion of America, failed to defeat Owen Moran, featherweight champion of England, here yesterday afternoon. The fight lasted through rounds and Moran seemed to be in better condition at the close than Attill.

Moran's game was to close in as frequently as possible and to take all of Attill's skill to avoid the rushes of his opponent. Both men failed to land in vital spots and although Moran's eyes were blackened early in the game he suffered little serious punishment.

Betting was 2 to 1 in favor of Attill but with no large sums in the market the attendance was enormous, and interest in the fight ran high.

In the preliminaries Willie O'Neil won from Willie Farley in the tenth round. The Attill-Moran fight by rounds was as follows:

Round 1—Attill led first with a left. Attill sent a light left to the face and they clinched. With one arm free Moran began talking to Moran and Attill crossed with a pretty right to the head. The men broke from a clinch carefully and Moran shot a right at close range without result. They sparred carefully and Moran swung two rights over the kidneys. Attill hooked a wicked left to the head as the bell rang. Both fought carefully and Attill had a very slight advantage of the round.

Round 2—Moran the aggressor throughout Attill's clever ducking gave him the advantage, however. Round 3—Moran sent Attill against the ropes with a left hook to the stomach and they wrestled to the center of the ring. Moran sent a straight left to the jaw and the latter looked a bit worried. Moran sent a short-arm left jolt to the face. Moran swung his left to the head and the men seemed to break from a clinch. Moran had a slight lead of the round. Both men displayed marked cleverness.

Round 4—Attill jabbed his left to the face and they hugged each other. Attill saying that Moran was holding. Moran devoted most of his attacks to the ribs. Moran sent Attill's head back with great cleverness. Attill got in a short-arm left to the face and the bell changed on a comparatively even round. Attill planted two short-arm left jolts to the face. Moran swung his left to the head and the men seemed to break from a clinch. Moran had a slight lead of the round. Both men displayed marked cleverness.

Round 5—They sparred for half a minute and Abel jabbed his left to the face and they hugged each other. Attill then upcut with his right to the jaw. The referee broke them from a clinch and Attill drove a straight left to the jaw and then like lightning swung a hard right to the face. Attill had a slight lead in this round.

Round 6—Attill jabbed straight to Moran's face, several hard punches landed by him and received the advantage of the round.

Round 7—Careful sparring, slightly in Attill's favor.

Round 8—Moran closed with Attill having a slight lead.

Round 9—Attill swung a left to face and the Briton swung a vicious left to the nose as they broke from a clinch. They exchanged straight lefts to the face, clinched and were broken apart by the referee. Again the monotonous clinch and the usual springing about. Moran hooked his left to the face and Attill sent a straight left to the face and Moran hooked his left to the body. Attill sent a straight left to the face and Moran hooked his left to the body. Attill sent a straight left to the face and Moran hooked his left to the body.

Round 10—Moran cut off his opponent with a left over the eye and missed a face and followed it with another. Moran met Moran with a left uppercut to the face as the Briton rushed in. Several clinches followed. Attill finally hooked his left to Moran's stomach. Attill swung his right to the ear and Moran

FINISHES FIRST IN BIG FIELD

After Clearing Twelve Obstructions.

Miss Inez Cumming on Call Bond finished first in the New Year's paper chase of the Hunt club yesterday morning, covering eight miles and jumping 12 trees and one-half foot hurdles in very good time.

Along toward the end of the game Stott recovered a fumble on St. Louis' 15-yard line. A straight kick followed and Multnomah recovered. Another place kick from the eight-yard line gave Multnomah four more points.

When the Missouri team came on the grounds the rooters yelled, "Rah, Rah, Rah, Missouri!" and to some joshers near by was added the postscript, "now d— you laugh!"

The players were critically compared and "Rah, Rah, Missouri!" was the cheer of the Multnomah boys were the heavier the rooters consoled themselves by saying it was agility and science that had won the game.

When St. Louis scored the noise made would have caused any animals but human to run for cover. Not being satisfied with their noise, however, one of the crowd enlisted the help of the St. Louisian who called out to the Multnomah boys to hear their own.

When St. Louis scored the noise made would have caused any animals but human to run for cover. Not being satisfied with their noise, however, one of the crowd enlisted the help of the St. Louisian who called out to the Multnomah boys to hear their own.

When St. Louis scored the noise made would have caused any animals but human to run for cover. Not being satisfied with their noise, however, one of the crowd enlisted the help of the St. Louisian who called out to the Multnomah boys to hear their own.

When St. Louis scored the noise made would have caused any animals but human to run for cover. Not being satisfied with their noise, however, one of the crowd enlisted the help of the St. Louisian who called out to the Multnomah boys to hear their own.

When St. Louis scored the noise made would have caused any animals but human to run for cover. Not being satisfied with their noise, however, one of the crowd enlisted the help of the St. Louisian who called out to the Multnomah boys to hear their own.

When St. Louis scored the noise made would have caused any animals but human to run for cover. Not being satisfied with their noise, however, one of the crowd enlisted the help of the St. Louisian who called out to the Multnomah boys to hear their own.

When St. Louis scored the noise made would have caused any animals but human to run for cover. Not being satisfied with their noise, however, one of the crowd enlisted the help of the St. Louisian who called out to the Multnomah boys to hear their own.

When St. Louis scored the noise made would have caused any animals but human to run for cover. Not being satisfied with their noise, however, one of the crowd enlisted the help of the St. Louisian who called out to the Multnomah boys to hear their own.

When St. Louis scored the noise made would have caused any animals but human to run for cover. Not being satisfied with their noise, however, one of the crowd enlisted the help of the St. Louisian who called out to the Multnomah boys to hear their own.

When St. Louis scored the noise made would have caused any animals but human to run for cover. Not being satisfied with their noise, however, one of the crowd enlisted the help of the St. Louisian who called out to the Multnomah boys to hear their own.

When St. Louis scored the noise made would have caused any animals but human to run for cover. Not being satisfied with their noise, however, one of the crowd enlisted the help of the St. Louisian who called out to the Multnomah boys to hear their own.

When St. Louis scored the noise made would have caused any animals but human to run for cover. Not being satisfied with their noise, however, one of the crowd enlisted the help of the St. Louisian who called out to the Multnomah boys to hear their own.

When St. Louis scored the noise made would have caused any animals but human to run for cover. Not being satisfied with their noise, however, one of the crowd enlisted the help of the St. Louisian who called out to the Multnomah boys to hear their own.

When St. Louis scored the noise made would have caused any animals but human to run for cover. Not being satisfied with their noise, however, one of the crowd enlisted the help of the St. Louisian who called out to the Multnomah boys to hear their own.

When St. Louis scored the noise made would have caused any animals but human to run for cover. Not being satisfied with their noise, however, one of the crowd enlisted the help of the St. Louisian who called out to the Multnomah boys to hear their own.

When St. Louis scored the noise made would have caused any animals but human to run for cover. Not being satisfied with their noise, however, one of the crowd enlisted the help of the St. Louisian who called out to the Multnomah boys to hear their own.

SPORTING NOTES

Local and Otherwise.

With "Rah! rah! rah!" for Portland, the Missourians in Portland, everybody in Portland, the Multnomah club and the state of Oregon, the St. Louis university football team made the streets ring on the large scale market to the depot last night to begin the 2,600-mile journey back to the Mound City.

Christy Mathewson of the New York Nationals will coach the West Point pitchers next spring.

Hugh Jennings will draw $5,000 a year for the next two years as manager of the Detroit Tigers.

Hiram F. Stoudt, who is minus both hands, won third place in a recent pool tournament in Reading, Pennsylvania.

Buck Connelly, who was manager and backer of Peter Maher, is reported critically ill at his home in Pittsburgh.

It is estimated that 600 clubs are playing indoor baseball this winter, mostly in the central and western states.

In the seven years that Fred Taral, the veteran American jockey, has been riding in Latvia and Hungary he has won 553 races.

The Northwest curling association has decided on the week of January 20 for the fifteenth annual bonspiel at Duluth.

It begins to look as though Milwaukee, Colorado will be the only Sunday ball towns in the American association next season.

Manager Frank Chance of the Chicago National league team has sent a contract to a Chinese ball player in Honolulu.

The first annual tournament of the Iowa and Northwestern Bowling association will be held this month in Sioux City, Iowa.

Washington baseball fans believe that the veteran, Lave Cross, will be manager of the Washington team in the new Union league.

President Gerry Herrmann of Cincinnati denies that he is after Roger Bresnahan of the Giants.

RESULTS OF CONTESTS HELD NEW YEAR'S DAY

Here are the results of some of the athletic games over the country New Year's day:

Vancouver Rugby football team defeated Stanford university in the last game of the holiday series of three contests for the Keith cup. Harold Reid and Kenney Fenton, Portland boys, were the stars of the college football.

The M. C. A. defeated the Alaska basketball team in the morning, 39 to 23. This was the second of the M. C. A. victories over the team of the United States, the first having been inflicted by Dallas college of Oregon.

The Columbia soccer football team of the Portland City league defeated the Hornets yesterday morning without the score being in the net. The Columbia have not been scored against in the three games they have played.

Charlie Smith of Denver had easy pickings with Charlie Williams in their scheduled 20-round fight at St. Louis City last night, the latter quitting at the end of the ninth round after he had been floored twice.

Ashland team won the championship of the Rogue River valley by defeating the A. A. C. eleven, 2 to 0. The game was played at the Ashland Hotel. The Dallas won from the Chemawa Indians at the Dallas yesterday, 10 to 0, after a fast and exciting game. The game was played on a snow-covered field.

THE GOVERNMENT "GREEN STAMP" SEALS

every bottle of our Rye or Bourbon Whiskies. Positive proof that both landing rights to the head.

Attill had a slight lead.

Round 25—The men shook hands and fought to close quarters, Moran checking in a hard right short-arm jolt to the jaw. They shook hands again and Moran shot in a hard right to the body. They fought viciously at close range, both landing telling rights to the head.

Round 26—Moran cut off his opponent with a left over the eye and missed a face and followed it with another. Moran met Moran with a left uppercut to the face as the Briton rushed in. Several clinches followed. Attill finally hooked his left to Moran's stomach. Attill swung his right to the ear and Moran

Round 27—Moran opened by beating Attill's kidneys, followed by a clinch. Moran was saved by clinching.

Round 17—Moran swung a vicious left to the shoulder and in a clinch sent a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill slipped to his knees, but came up quickly. Moran swung a hard left to the jaw and a moment later duplicated the blow, the crowd yelling "Moran! Moran!" as he swung a hard left to the jaw and Attill rushed to a clinch, the referee parting them. Moran sent a left uppercut and wrestled Attill to the ropes. The latter, his head under Moran's arms, wrestled for a minute in that position. Jeffries thrice pulled the wrestlers apart. Attill